Some 1931 Cokesbury Good Books

THAT YOU'LL READ WITH PROFIT

HUMANISM: ANOTHER BATTLE LINE. By Ten Noteworthy Religious Scholars. $2.25

This frontal attack on the nontheistic preachments of Humanism is a timely companion volume to "Behaviorism," about which Dr. John Versteeg said, "The preacher who fails to read this book is in a sad case."

MEN OF THE GREAT REDEMPTION. By William L. Stidger. $1.50

Beautiful "upper room" experiences of men prominent in many walks of life to-day, told by one whose great gift it is always to write interestingly and to deal with the unusual.

FRIENDS OF GOD. By Costen J. Harrell. $1

This new devotional classic, by one of the best-known writers of books of this nature, will merit a wide reading, both from pulpit and platform and in the home and in the privacy of one's own study or bedroom. An added feature is the prayer that closes each devotion.

THEY CRUCIFIED AND CRUCIFY. By Edward L. Keller. $1.25

Vital, practical, and not following the usual beaten paths, this author shows that the sins which crucified Jesus are the identical sins which "crucify him afresh" in our day.

GIRDED WITH GLADNESS. By Bruce S. Wright. $1

"As a writer of devotional literature, Bruce S. Wright is well known. His books have given us proof of his rare ability to touch the heart of his readers." Here are thirty new devotional chapters, beautifully written and attractively printed and bound.

THE AUTHORITY OF CHRISTIAN EXPERIENCE. By R. H. Strachan. $2.50

Bishop Mouzon says, "Every scholarly preacher in America should read this book." It deals with the issues that lie at the very heart of our religion.

GEORGE WHITEFIELD: THE AWAKENER. By A. D. Belden. $3

Through a beautifully illustrated, carefully written, and well-documented book, the Superintendent of Whitefield's Tabernacle, London, brings a fresh study of one whose work in America as well as in England, is too little known.

THE RELIGIOUS EXPERIENCE OF ST. PAUL. By Dr. J. E. Rattenbury. $2.75

This brilliant leader of the Wesleyan Methodists in England, and author of "Wesley's Legacy to the World," writes a deeply penetrating volume on the relation of Jesus and Paul, with highly beneficial studies in the great ethical and doctrinal problems faced by the Pauline Epistles.

CHRISTIAN CONQUESTS. By Robert Merrill Bartlett. $1

It would be difficult to find another book that projects so effectively this type of study in spiritual victories. It will lead many readers into a life-giving stream of personal religion.

COMFORT FOR THOSE WHO MOURN. Compiled by Rev. O. V. Armstrong. Bible, Poetry, Prose. 50 cents

Ninety-six pages of comfort for those who mourn, and with much helpful material for the use of those whose Christian duty and privilege it is to extend the consolation of the Great Comforter.

STUDIES IN POWER. By Henry M. Edmonds. $1.75

This brilliant preacher of Birmingham, Ala., takes the great spiritual leaders, great statesmen, and the military, and out of the record of their accomplishments, failures, and their peculiar gifts to the world, discovers for us the sources of their power. The characters: Charlemagne, William the Conqueror, Vladimir, Richard the Lion Heart, Joan of Arc, Genghis Khan, Philip II of Spain, Washington and Franklin, Lincoln and Lee, Roosevelt and Wilson. The concluding chapters on Jesus and Paul climax a book of unusual insight and fascination.

SPIRITUAL ADVENTURES IN SOCIAL RELATIONS. By Bertha Conde $1

Another devotional masterpiece by a woman beloved by all her Southern Methodist readers. Here she discovers for us how the real meaning of life is found in our relations to God and in our dealings with fellow men and women.

YOUNG J. ALLEN. By Bishop Warren A. Candler. $1.50

This absorbing study of one of Southern Methodism's greatest missionaries abroad will provide many hours of fascinating reading. It is interestingly illustrated.

ADVERTISING JESUS. By S. R. Bratcher. Sermons for Special Days on the Church and Secular Calendars. $1.50

This splendid series of sermons, by one of our own preachers, relate themselves to "advertising Jesus" — making his claims known throughout the year and all the years. It is at once a book for preachers and for inspirational reading.

JOHN ALBERT PETERSON, son of Dr. Francis M. and Amanda Shivers Peterson, was born at Greensboro, Ala., May 19, 1850. At ten years of age he joined the Church and at twenty-one was licensed to preach. He graduated with the A.M. degree in 1871 at the Southern University. That fall he joined the Alabama Conference and was sent to the Citronelle Circuit. His active ministry included fifty-one years, during which time he served the following charges: Citronelle Circuit, 1872; Mobile City Mission, 1873. During the summer of this year he was transferred to Union Springs, where he remained until the close of 1874. Troy, 1875; St. Paul, Mobile, 1876-77; Livingston, 1878; Gainesville, 1879-82; Milton, Fla., 1883-84; Beulah, 1885-86; Evergreen, 1887-88; Uniontown, 1889; Mobile District, 1890-93; Selma District, 1894-96; Greensboro District, 1897-1900; Eufaula, 1901-04; Tuskegee, 1905-06; Marianna District, 1907-08; Dothan District, 1909; Union Springs, 1910-11; Gadsden Street, Pensacola, 1912-15; Forest Avenue, 1916-19; Evergreen, 1920; Geneva, 1921-22. Dr. Peterson was married three times. On December 16, 1875, he was married to Miss Mary Ellen Rush at Marion, Ala. She died June 15, 1895. Six children were born to this union: Francis Ruth, James Jesse, Edgar A., John Albert, Rivers Andrew, and Mary Ellen, who is now Mrs. James Ward. John died several years ago. Mary and Rivers were the only children who could reach their father at the time of his death. In 1897 he was married to Miss Hortense Baugh, who did not live a great while. On June 11, 1903, he was married to Miss Barnie May Wade, at Montevallo, Ala., who survives him. Dr. Peterson was a man of clean lips, his conversation was pure and chaste. He had a clear-cut conversion and never doubted his acceptance with God. At the close of 1922 he superannuated and made his home in Montgomery until the time of his going away. As long as he was able he taught a class in the Sunday school of the Forest Avenue Church. For several years before his death he was weak and spent much of his time in the wheel chair. His wife was his constant and faithful companion during those days of forced confinement. She gave him every possible attention. He was exceedingly anxious to attend the last session of the Alabama Conference at Montgomery. His physician advised against it, but he went down one day and watched the preachers come out of the church at noon and shook hands with some of his friends. On March 16, 1930, God took his servant home. The end came quietly. On the following Tuesday he was buried in Greenwood Cemetery. I. W. Chalker and R. R. Ellison officiated at the funeral. The other Methodist preachers of the city acted as pallbearers.—W. M. Cox.

Thaddeus B. Barrow was born in Barbour County, Ala., on March 12, 1866, being the eldest son of William and Louise McDonald Barrow. When Thaddeus was about two years of age the family moved to Ozark, Ala., and there he grew through the years of his boyhood and young manhood. There were six children in the home, of whom three sisters survive him. He had only the advantages coming from the local public schools in the community, but he applied himself with fidelity. During his young life he loved the Church and grew into all of her activities with the affection of his soul. He felt the call of God to preach the gospel for a number of years before he finally asked for this privilege, feeling that he was not worthy to assume this responsibility. At the age of twenty-six he knocked at the door of the Alabama Conference for admission on trial, and at Eufaula in December of 1892 he was received. The years of 1893-94 he served the Ochesee Circuit; 1895-96, Wewahitchka; 1897-98, Freeport; 1899-1900, DeFuniak Springs and Bonifay; 1901-03, Sweetwater; 1904-05, Butler and Mount Sterling; 1906-07, West Green; 1908-10, Pine Barren; 1911-12, Bells Landing; 1913-14, Pine Hill; 1915-16, Havana; 1917, Cottonwood; 1918, Slocomb; 1919, Daleville; 1920-21, East Brewton; 1922-23, Asbury; 1924, Rutledge; 1925-26, Vernon; 1927, Jay; 1928, Barrineau Park; 1929-30, Pittsview. While in the faithful discharge of his duties as a pastor he heard the summons, "It is enough, come up higher," and on April 12 the laborer was called from labor to refreshment. While serving the DeFuniak and Bonifay charge he was married to Miss Ola Owens on December 5, 1900. To them were born six children, Owens, Myrtle, Glenn, Louise, Thaddeus, and Ralph, all living. The mother moved with the younger children to Brewton, Ala., where they will make their future home, the body of Brother Barrow having been placed in the cemetery there to await the coming of the resurrection.—D. W. Haskew.

Dowdell D. Reeves was born near Tallassee, Ala., on May 29, 1856. He was the son of Davenport G. and Mary Ann Lee Reeves. When about eighteen years of age he united with the Church under the ministry of Lewis F. Dowdell, for whom he may have been named in infancy. We know little of his activity as a layman in the Church. In July, 1886, he was granted license to preach and at the session of the Alabama Conference held in Montgomery in December of the same year he was admitted on trial and appointed to the Cottonwood Mission. On December 29, 1885, he was united in marriage to Miss Leila E. Blanks, who was his faithful companion until about a year before his death. This union was blessed with seven children. Brother Reeves served Cottonwood Circuit the two years of his Conference probation, 1887-88, and was admitted into full connection at the session of the Conference held in Mobile in 1888, and at the same time ordained deacon by Bishop Hargrove. Brother Reeves' service as an itinerant preacher was short. Sometime in young manhood he had suffered a serious accident which crippled him for life and contributed to a condition of generally poor health. These physical afflictions unfitted him for the pursuance of an effective itineracy. In 1889 he served the Choctaw Circuit and Mission, and in 1890 the Clifton Circuit. At the Conference of 1890, quoting the record, "he was continued in the class of the fourth year, and, on motion, his name was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the superannuate relation," which relation he held at that time for a single year. In 1892 he served Harmony Circuit and Mission and at the session held at Eufaula that year he was ordained elder by Bishop Fitzgerald. In 1893-94 he served the Pleasant Grove Circuit, after which he was again placed on the superannuate roll, which relation he held until his death. His time of superannuation was spent in Tallassee, near his old home, and in Birmingham, among his children, doing what little he could for the Church to which he had hoped to give a life of effective service. On two occasions he supplied unexpired vacancies in the North Alabama Conference. God shall reward him according to the measure of his faithfulness.—J. E. Tate.

John Altamont Thompson, son of T. W. and Mary Wilder Thompson, was born in Franklin (now Colbert) County, Ala., December 15, 1841. He was educated in the rural schools about his home and at the old Academy which was conducted by a scholarly Christian gentleman whose personality inspired the youth with an ambition to inquire into every branch of learning. He was prepared for college and his parents had planned for his entrance to the University of Virginia when the Civil War broke out and forever ended that aspiration. In 1861 young Thompson volunteered in the Confederate Army and joined Rev. David Campbell Kelley's Cavalry Company, which was a part of General Forrest's original regiment. Colonel Kelley wrote a long letter to the War Department of the Confederacy commending young Thompson's bravery and ability and later Forrest cited him for "conspicuous service." Young Thompson was severely wounded at Stone's River, Murfreesboro, Tenn. From this wound he was a constant sufferer to the day of his death. His record during the four awful years of carnage and strife between the States is an enviable one, full of daring and notable service to the Confederacy. Dr. Thompson was converted at the age of thirteen and licensed to preach at the age of nineteen by the Quarterly Conference of the Chickasaw Circuit on August 14, 1860. At the same time and by the same body he was recommended to the Tennessee Conference, which then included Alabama, for admission on trial. He was duly admitted on trial at Clarksville, Tenn., October 13, 1860. Bishop Pierce presided at this Conference. At this Conference Brother Thompson was assigned to Madison Circuit in the Huntsville District, as junior preacher with Milus E. Johnson as preacher in charge. During the stormy four years of war which followed, the youth was unable to attend a session of the Conference. However, in October, 1865, he, with sixty-seven others, was ordained both deacon and elder by Bishop Kavanaugh, who presided over the Conference that year. From that ragged and torn but impressive assembly Dr. Thompson was assigned to Farmington Circuit as preacher in charge. In 1867 he was assigned to Prospect Circuit, where, as he afterwards said, he enjoyed the richest year of his ministry. He received over three hundred into the Church that Conference year. In November, 1870, Bishop Paine organized the North Alabama Conference at Gadsden, Ala., and Brother Thompson became a charter member and was elected Secretary, a position he occupied for eighteen years. He was also Assistant Secretary to the General Conference which met in Nashville, Tenn., with T. O. Summers as Secretary. Dr. Summers was taken desperately ill and died during the Conference, and Dr. Thompson acted as Secretary in the place of his chief. A little later our subject was elected associate editor of the Alabama Christian Advocate under Dr. Christian, editor in chief. In 1890 Bishop Haygood asked Dr. Thompson to transfer to South Georgia Conference, and in this Conference he served until he transferred to the Alabama Conference in 1904. In our Conference Dr. Thompson served the following charges: LaPine, 1905; Camden, 1906; Marion, 1907-10; Tuskegee, 1911-13; Forest Avenue, Montgomery, 1914-15. At the conclusion of this year, Dr. Thompson took the superannuate relation. For a time he resided in Montgomery, later moving to Dothan, Ala., and during the last three years he lived at Huntsville, where he had served as pastor four years and presiding elder four years in his earlier ministry, and from here he went home to join the Conference on high. Perhaps the happiest recollections of this hero of the cross clustered around Huntsville, where so much of his ministry was spent and where he met and married Miss Lenah A. Patterson on December 11, 1884. She was the daughter of General Benjamin and Sarah Patterson. No truer helpmate ever traveled with an itinerant. She was the ministering angel of his life and one might say she closed his eyelids down when he fell on death, June 16, 1930. His son, John A., Jr., and his noble wife remain to mourn his going.—A. E. Shafer.

Charles Prescott Atkinson was born in Newton, Ala., August 31, 1867, the oldest child of C. V. and Mary Eason Atkinson, whose high character and exemplary lives had created a Christian home for his growth and development, and transmitted to him the splendid heritage of a good name, a brilliant mind, and a cheerful spirit. They brought him up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. At the age of twelve he joined the Methodist Church at Pleasant Hill, on the Ozark Circuit, under the pastorate of E. M. Turner. In November of 1886 he was licensed to preach at Haveridge Church on the Ozark Circuit. Angus Dowling was the pastor and Henry D. Urquhart was the presiding elder. After completing elementary school at Newton, Ala., he entered Southern University. From this historical institution he obtained his B.S. and M.A. degrees, and later, when he had proved his great worth for his Master in the field of Christian service and education, his Alma Mater conferred upon him the degree of D.D. He obtained his Ph.D. degree from Wesleyan University. He was admitted on trial at the Conference held in Pensacola in 1890 presided over by Bishop Granbery, and appointed to the pastorate of Marianna, Fla. At the Conference held in Eufaula in 1892 he was admitted into full connection by Bishop Fitzgerald. He served the following charges in the order given: Marianna, Geneva, Holt Street Church (Montgomery), Camden, Dayton, Uniontown. From 1904 to 1918 he held the Chair of Philosophy in Southern University. When the two Conference colleges were united in the spring of 1918, Dr. Atkinson refused a chair in the merger institution and was appointed to the pastorate at Thomasville in 1919. He served Samson and Hartford from 1920 to 1922. In 1923-24 he served his last charge, Chipley, Fla. Here he did a remarkable work. It was during his pastorate that the first offering was taken for the magnificent educational building just completed. It was there in the midst of strenuous devotion to the things of the ministry that a nervous breakdown made it necessary for him to ask for the superannuate relation. All that medical skill could do was of no avail to bring back to health the worn body. On the night of October 22 he retired at his usual hour. At one-thirty he was called to resume his work, which John in his prophecy tells us is serving God continually about the throne. On October 14, 1896, he was married to Miss Jessie Laird, of Geneva, Ala. She helped largely to make his days of usefulness and popularity in the university and the pastorate. There were two children to gladden the home: Arthur Laird and Erin (now Mrs. Farmer). Fifteen of his brother ministers were present at his funeral. D. Y. Register, J. F. McLeod, C. C. Wilkerson, and R. J. Mills, his old college students, and W. H. Venters, his former pastor, conducted the services. His brother ministers acted as pallbearers.—D. Y. Register.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? Jefferson W. Duffey, John H. Wilhite, John H. Schooley. 3.

JEFFERSON WAITE DUFFEY was born in Moorefield, W. Va., September 23, 1846. He was converted January 1, 1865, in Hebron Lutheran Church, located upon Capon River, Hampshire County, W. Va., Rev. Peter Miller being pastor of the church, and two months later was received into the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Moorefield by James Beaty. He was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of Moorefield Circuit on September 28, 1867, John C. Dice being presiding elder and Thomas Hildebrand preacher in charge. He was admitted on trial into the Baltimore Conference at the session held in St. Paul's Church, Baltimore, in March, 1870, Bishop McTyeire presiding. He was ordained deacon at the Warrenton Conference, in 1872, by Bishop Robert Paine and elder at the Staunton Conference, 1874, by Bishop Doggett. He served the following charges: West River, two years; Cumberland, two years; Salem, four years; Fredericksburg, four years; Trinity, four years; Falls Church, four years; Martinsburg, one year; Central, Baltimore, four years; Winchester District, one year; Mount Vernon, Washington, four years; Washington District, four years; Harrisonburg, four years; Winchester, four years; Alexandria, four years; Rockville, four years. At Roanoke, in 1921, he was granted the superannuate relation, at his own request, after fifty-one years in the active service. He served at different times on all the committees and boards of the Conference except the Joint Board of Finance, the last committee work being to examine on the course of study for admission on trial, on which committee he served twelve years, during which time ninety-five men were admitted on trial into the Conference. He was educated at Randolph-Macon College, from which he received the honorary degree of D.D. and was elected a trustee of the college in 1892. The boy born in the little mountain city of Moorefield, W. Va., in 1846, was destined to grow to manhood under conditions that knit the fiber of his soul into threads of steel for the conflict of life. Two currents were running strong in the minds of the men of his day, each of them of far-reaching importance and lasting significance on the life of the country. One was the current of religious enthusiasm which was sweeping the country with an almost irresistible tide. The various divisions of Protestant Christianity were making their appeals to the people and winning great victories through their evangelical efforts. The different branches of the Church in their individual propaganda acted upon each other to increase their zeal, to deepen their convictions, and to awaken a spiritual and intellectual appreciation of the gospel of Jesus Christ. The other was mainly in the field of politics. The country was agitated with controversies centered upon the construction of the Constitution of the nation which were fated to continue with ever-increasing force until the country was swept into the maelstrom of the Civil War. This boy grew to manhood amid these conflicting and awakening influences. He had not reached full manhood when the Civil War began in 1861, and we find him taking his place with his mountain comrades with a command known as "McNeill's Partisan Rangers." His experience of four years of Civil War was such as to forge the fibers of his soul in a furnace of fire. Having staked all during this fiery trial upon his convictions of right, he came out of the conflict unsoiled and with a strength of character that could never be swerved from the path which he believed to be the path of duty and of honor. Dr. Duffey had many qualities of mind and soul that made him one of the outstanding preachers of his day. His list of appointments shows that he was recognized as having the ability to meet the demands of the Church in the centers of keenest intellectual activities and highest culture. Everywhere he preached the simple gospel with firmness and power, and yet with a winsomeness that drew to him all classes of men. Firm in his convictions, strong in his ability for sustained thinking, capable at times of high emotional inspiration, but always tender in his appeal, he won thousands to the standard of the Cross and to consecrated living. The fineness of his character was seen in his native sense of humor—that which was sordid and low amid the incongruities of life made little appeal to him, but running through all his processes of thought the finer and more subtle forms of humor lightened and illumined his preaching and conversation. Dr. Duffey was at the time of his death one of the last two surviving veterans of the Civil War in our Conference. This is not the place to record his war experiences except to show how these laid the foundation of his life and service in the ministry. One incident pronounced by military experts to be one of the most daring feats of the war was when he, with a small detachment of Confederate cavalry, entered Cumberland, Md., under cover of night where there were eight thousand Union troops and kidnaped two major generals and carried the distinguished prisoners, Crook and Kelley, within the Confederate lines. This illustrates the heroic mold in which his character was cast. In the fifty-one years of active service in the Conference he was not less brave and heroic in fighting under the banner of the cross. The funeral services of Dr. Duffey were conducted after the manner of his own planning with the utmost simplicity. They were in charge of W. A. Lambeth and held in Mount Vernon Church. Assisting in the services were J. H. Balthis, H. P. Hamill, J. C. Copenhaver, Frank T. Griffith, E. V. Register, and F. J. Prettyman. At his request two prayers during the services were offered by H. P. Hamill and Frank T. Griffith. He had expressed the wish that there would be no flowers except a white and a red rose laid upon his coffin—emblems of the Confederacy. His remains, draped with the flag of the nation and the flag of the Confederacy, were interred with military honors in the Confederate section of the National Cemetery at Arlington, Va. Surviving him are his beloved wife, two sons, and two daughters.—F. J. Prettyman.

J. H. WILHITE was born March 2, 1860, near North River, Va. His parents were members of the Lutheran Church, and he grew up in the delightful atmosphere of a Christian home. He was converted at the age of sixteen in an old schoolhouse where Fairview Methodist Church now stands. He attended the public school at Mount Crawford, Va., where he was associated with H. H. Sherman, B. V. Switzer, and W. J. Whitesel, men who have become leaders in our Conference and Church. He taught school for some years; and while teaching he felt a divine call to the ministry and yielded himself without reservation to the call of God. He entered Randolph-Macon College to better prepare for his life work. He was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of Bridgewater charge, Rockingham District, under the administration of J. H. Waugh, presiding elder. He joined the Baltimore Conference in 1890 and served with acceptability the following charges: West River, two years as junior preacher; Rockville, three years as junior preacher; Freedom, one year as junior preacher; Frederick City, four years; Elkton, three years; West Washington, two years; Woodstock Mission, one year; Sudbrook, one year. Brentwood, two years; North Point, four years; Burlington, four years; Petersburg, six years; Brucetown, part of one year. Broken in health, believing that his work was done, no longer able to go out and come in as the loving shepherd of the flock, he took the superannuate relation. He made his home for some years with friends in Maryland, but as his health declined he came back to his old home in Virginia to die. After reaching the home of his sisters he was never able to leave his bed; and for nine months suffered intense pain, but he bore it all with the courage of a soldier and the patience of a saint. At the home of his sister, Mrs. Tom Tutwiler, North River, Va., he passed to his eternal rest on June 17, 1930. His funeral was held from the Methodist Church at Mount Crawford, conducted by H. M. Canter, presiding elder of the Rockingham District, assisted by J. C. Thrasher, H. M. Roane, C. L. Potter, B. V. Switzer, G. G. Martin, M. L. Fearnow, W. A. Lynch, and the writer.—K. D. Swecker.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? J. M. McCarter (no memoir), C. Rowland, Alonzo Monk, Jr. 3.

CORNELIUS ROWLAND was born in North Carolina in 1850, and died at Fort Worth, Tex., May 22, 1930. He was converted and joined the Methodist Church when a young man. He entered the ministry at the age of twenty-seven in Williamson County, Tex. He was admitted on trial into the old Northwest Texas Conference in March, 1879. He served the following pastoral charges: Cowhouse, three years; Moffett, two years; Witt, two years; Springton, three years; Peaster, three years; Smithfield, one year; Godley, one year; Cleburne Circuit, two years; Alvarado, two years; and Riverside, three years. He was placed on the superannuate roll thirty-six years ago, moving to Polytechnic, where he lived in his own home until God called him to the home above. He did evangelistic work for twenty years, during the summers, in his home State of North Carolina. He made as many as twenty consecutive trips, preaching two hundred times in five months. When eighty years of age he preached nine weeks, returning last November, which was his last active work. His mind was clear and active up to the last. He is survived by three sons and one daughter, Leonard, J. C., L. W., and Mrs. Loma Hildebrand. Brother Rowland was looked upon as a man pure and clean of heart, lip, and life. He was deeply pious, humble, and unusually enthusiastic for a man of his strength. His native ability was very marked, having retained his original personality, which is so often destroyed by the attrition of education. Hundreds were saved under his ministry, and many family altars established in his pastoral charges. His type is fast passing away. Let us cherish his memory.—M. K. Little.

Alonzo Monk, Jr., was the third child of Dr. Alonzo Monk and his wife, Mrs. Bettie Carl Monk, and was born in Camden, Ark., February 21, 1881. His father was one of the great pulpiteers of Methodism in his day and in the circle of the home the very best influences operated. At the age of thirteen he entered the Webb School in Bellbuckle, Tenn. From this institution he went to Vanderbilt University, where he was recognized as one of the brilliant minds in the student body. He graduated not only in the academic courses, but held his degree of Bachelor of Divinity. Before his college days were finished he was known as one of the gifted young ministers in his Church. He had done much religious work while in school, having served as assistant pastor of Monroe Street, Nashville, Tenn., and as pastor at Waverly Place. In addition to this he had served one year in the Louisiana Conference. In 1908 he was admitted into the Northwest Texas Conference and appointed to Morgan Station. The following year the Conference was divided and Brother Monk was reassigned to his work, which was now in the bounds of the Central Texas Conference. In this Conference he held his membership throughout his subsequent ministry. During the years to follow he served Anglin Street (Cleburne), Hamilton, Gatesville, Arlington, First Church (Corsicana), Mineral Wells, and one year as city missionary for Fort Worth. In the latter field he lay the foundation for two of the vigorous churches of the city, Highland Park and Hemphill Heights. Brother Monk was always possessed with a passion for evangelism. No year passed while he was in the regular itineracy in which he was not repeatedly in revival work. He was never happier than when seeking to win men and women who had lost their way spiritually. At the end of his second year at Mineral Wells he was appointed general evangelist. Some of his friends sought to dissuade him, but he felt God calling him into this difficult and needy field. He would council with his friends, but prayer was his one final resort in the decisions of his life. In the few years spent as an evangelist he had come to be recognized as one of the most effective men in this group of special workers. Calls for his service had increased each year, and at the time of his death few men among the evangelists were in greater demand. In 1908 he was married to Miss Mary Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Smith, of Big Spring, Tex. To them were born two children, Mary Smith, who since her father's death has followed him to the home above, and James, now in school at Fort Worth. The companion of his early ministry passed away in 1925. Later he married Miss Eudora Dickason, daughter of Dr. E. E. Dickason, of Brownsville, Tex. In addition to his wife and son, he is survived by his sister, Mrs. Gid J. Bryan, and two brothers, Carl Monk and Rev. Marion S. Monk. His death came after a brief illness in the Methodist Hospital at Fort Worth, Tex., on the evening of July 28, 1930. The funeral services were held in the First Methodist Church, which building was started by his father some twenty years before. The writer was assisted in the services by J. W. Upchurch, founder of the Berachah Home at Arlington, Tex., to which institution Brother Monk had rendered exceptional service.—Eugene B. Hawk.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? T. J. Nixon, John Beers, B. F. Lawhern, J. P. Durrance, J. W. Jackson. 5.

JOHN BEERS was born in Murry Harbor, Prince Edward Island, Canada, September 10, 1862, and died at Tampa, Fla., September 11, 1929. In 1886 he was married to Miss Sara Margaret Brehaut, of the place of his own nativity. To this union four children were born, three of whom, with their mother, survive. They are Mrs. J. R. Schooly and Miss Bertha Beers, of Tampa, and Mrs. L. F. Townsend, of Jacksonville, Fla. Brother Beers was admitted on trial into the Florida Conference in 1892, ordained deacon in 1894, and elder in 1900. On account of failing health he superannuated in 1918. During the twenty-six years of his active ministry, he served country missions and city churches with acceptability and efficiency. He left a deep impression in the communities where he served. While ministering to others in spiritual things he and his faithful wife did not neglect their own children, and as a result they are all active members of the Methodist Church. Brother Beers was achieving success in business when, at the age of thirty, he felt the call to preach the gospel and entered the Florida Conference College at Leesburg, where he spent some years struggling to fit himself for his work. While a student, he conducted some very remarkable revival meetings, in which many sinners were saved and Christians blessed. He was a preacher of more than ordinary ability, a diligent student, a faithful pastor, and a loyal friend, loved and trusted most by those who knew him best. He knew and loved the doctrine and discipline of his Church and was true to his vow in accepting, without reservation, the canonical Scriptures as proclaimed by the Church, and stood firm to the last in such faith. He was a faithful worker who never shirked hard tasks or lost faith in the power of the gospel to save sinners. He was dependable in any emergency that might arise. He learned to think and express his thought in vigorous English. He was not sensational, but a man of sanity and poise. After his superannuation Brother Beers lived in Tampa, where he kept busy, frequently preaching for the pastors of the city and assisting his presiding elder when requested. He preached on Sunday evening before his sudden passing away; the following Wednesday he preached for one of the city pastors. Wednesday he left home early in the morning, cheerful, singing hymns as he drove out with a helper to look after the property of a brother minister. About noon, while still busy, he fell to the ground lifeless. He left no dying message; but that was unnecessary, as his daily life best proclaimed abroad the gospel he professed. He was buried from the First Methodist Church of Tampa after an impressive service, in which a hymn of his own composition was sung and messages expressing sympathy for the bereaved and appreciation of his noble character were delivered by some of the members of his Conference. A large number of the members of the Conference attended his funeral, with many other friends. His body was borne to its last resting place by the kindly hands of Methodist preachers.—J. P. Hilburn.

JOSEPHUS P. DURRANCE was born on a farm in Georgia, January 4, 1860. He was converted in his early twenties, while living in his home in South Florida below Fort Meade. Soon thereafter he felt the divine call to the ministry, to which he promptly yielded; and with the strength of firm convictions and courageous faith, he entered into a fearless fight against evil. Realizing his need of better preparation for the work of the ministry, he entered as a student the Florida Conference College at Leesburg, after having been licensed to preach and serving as junior on Caloosahatchee Mission. During his college years his deep religious convictions and his love for souls led him to go out often and preach to the small churches on neighboring circuits. On May 17, 1889, he was married to Miss Belle Williams, who survives. Having finished his college course, he was graduated in 1892. He was admitted on trial into the Florida Conference in January, 1892, ordained deacon in 1893, and elder in December, 1895. He served in succession the following charges: Hillsboro Circuit, Brooksville Circuit (two years), Stewart's Chapel, Umatilla, Bolusia and De Land Mission, Palmetto Mission (two years), Sparks Chapel, Key West (two years), and Jasper. While in Key West his health was seriously impaired and there was a break in his once strong constitution from which he never fully recovered. In 1903 he was made Conference Colporteur, in which position he served for four years, 1903-06, making fifteen years on the effective list. In December, 1906, he was placed on the superannuate list. During these years he was a great sufferer. The end came on August 23, 1929; and the spirit of our brother passed into the unseen world to be forever with the Lord. His worn body was laid to rest in the old Curlew Cemetery near Palm Harbor, Fla., by a large concourse of sorrowing friends, and suitable services conducted by his pastor, Rev. F. W. Cramer.—George M. Glazier.

JOHN WILLIAM JACKSON was born November 14, 1869, in Franklin County, Ky., and departed this life February 26, 1930, in the hospital at Valdosta, Ga. He was educated at Asbury College, Wilmore, Ky., and licensed to preach and recommended for admission on trial into the Kentucky Conference by the Shelbyville District in 1899, and served his native Conference until 1921, when he transferred to the Florida Conference and was appointed to Parrish pastorate. Brother Jackson was married to Miss Annie Virginia Hamilton on June 9, 1908, at Lexington, Ky. To this union were given two children, Edward and Julia Ray, who now live with their mother's sister, Mrs. Robert Winn, at West Irvine, Ky. Brother Jackson served the East Madison Circuit the last two years of his ministry, and was in Madison when his wife became ill, and after a few months of suffering she preceded him to her eternal reward, July 20, 1928. On account of ill health he was superannuated at the Annual Conference at Miami in June, 1929, and resided in Madison until a few days before his death, when he entered the hospital at Valdosta, Ga. His body was brought to Madison and prepared for burial, after which Rev. W. A. Fischer and Rev. W. O. Troutman escorted it to the train and sent it to West Irvine, Ky., where it was buried by the side of his wife's grave.—W. A. Fischer.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN LAWHERN was born in Clinton County, Ky., in the year 1871. He was the son of D. C. and M. E. Lawhern. He was married to Miss Kathryn A. Zimmer on May 11, 1895, in Hopkinsville, Ky. This union was blessed with a precious daughter, Miss Verner Kathryn Lawhern. He was converted and called into the ministry in his early youth. He united with the Methodist Church on February 11, 1894, at Hopkinsville, Ky. He joined the Louisville Conference in 1900, at Elizabethtown, Ky. Later he transferred to the South Georgia Conference. After serving in that Conference for thirteen years he transferred to the Florida Conference. He was a strong gospel preacher and a faithful pastor—serving in the Florida Conference the following charges: Welborn, McClenny, Lakeland Mission, Seffner, and four months on the Trilby charge. He served faithfully in the ministry for thirty years. His last illness covered a period of eight weeks. He was in the hospital a part of the time. Everything was done for him that medical skill and loving hands could possibly do, and he wanted to live to preach the gospel awhile longer, but our Heavenly Father called him up on high and gave him an exalted appointment in the glory world. Our brother's last words were: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing." After uttering these cheering words his pure spirit passed out of this world to meet Jesus, whom he so dearly loved. His departure came on January 3, 1930, with his weeping loved ones standing near his bed. Besides his faithful companion and darling daughter, he leaves one devoted sister, Mrs. R. M. Lanier, of Miami, Fla. The body of our brother was carried to First Methodist Church, Lakeland, Fla., and the funeral services were conducted by his brethren in the ministry, Drs. I. C. Jenkins, W. K. Piner, W. F. Dunkle, B. F. Rogers, and W. F. Budd. His remains were laid to rest in Oak Hill Burial Park, Lakeland, Fla., and his pure spirit is at home with God.—T. L. Z. Barr.

Thomas James Nixon, son of James and Louise Wood Nixon, was born in Gadsden County, Fla., June 15, 1857, and died at his home in Bradenton, Fla., November 5, 1929. His father died during the Civil War and his mother soon after, but left the impress of a noble character upon her son, though he was a mere lad. When about ten years of age, he was converted and united with the Methodist Church. He attended the schools of his native county and later Emory College, but for lack of funds was not able to finish. However, he learned to study and continued to be a student to the end of his life. Dr. Nixon was admitted on trial into the Florida Conference in 1878, admitted into full connection and ordained deacon by Bishop Pierce in 1880, and elder by Bishop Kavanaugh in 1883. At Madison, Fla., April 8, 1884, he was married to Leona Alice Blalock, who survives. To this union seven children were born, two dying in childhood. Those living are Charles A. Nixon, Atlanta, Ga.; Roy W. Nixon, Idaho, Calif.; Raymond B. Nixon, Emory University; Mrs. W. V. Wheeler, Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; and Mrs. G. W. Ernshaw, Bradenton, Fla. Dr. Nixon served country circuits and the largest city churches and districts with unusual acceptability. While quite young, he was appointed to district work, but was frequently delighted to be allowed to return to the pastorate. He was a member of the Florida Conference fifty-three years, serving twenty-eight years as pastor and twenty years as presiding elder. Three years ago he was superannuated at his own request, but, despite failing health, kept busy supplying a little church as pastor, preaching for other pastors, and assisting his presiding elder as opportunity offered. No doubt he felt very keenly the privation of being out of the active service, but seemed to maintain his usual cheerful spirit. From the time of his superannuation to his passing away, he served as president of the Manatee River Preachers' Association. While he was always successful as a pastor, he considered the last ten years of his service the most fruitful. During this time he conducted personal evangelistic services, when many were led to accept Christ as a personal Saviour through the direct influence of the pastor and his helpers, and this afforded the greatest possible delight to one who continued to grow wiser in winning souls to the end. He was not only a good man but so prudent that there was never a suspicion against his noble character. He never sought preferment or honor from men, but at different times was elected delegate to the General Conference. Southern College conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity. He was a trustee of Emory College and for a time president of the Board of Trustees of Southern College. He was confined to his bed eleven days. His mind was clear up to the last day. He talked much of God's abounding grace and the joys of the heavenly inheritance. He said he was ready to go and just waiting for the boatman to take him over. Funeral services were conducted in the church at Bradenton by Dr. S. W. Walker, presiding elder, H. C. Hardin, pastor, J. W. Austin, pastor at Manatee, and the writer. About twenty of his brethren of the Conference were present and some of them availed themselves of the opportunity of giving testimony to their love for this faithful servant of God. The body was taken to Madison for interment. Rev. F. E. Steinmeyer, presiding elder, and W. A. Fischer, pastor, and other members of the Conference officiated. Thus the beautiful life of this man of God ended on earth, but his influence for righteousness will continue forever.—J. P. Hilburn.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? Silas A. McGhee, Newton F. Walker, Alfred H. Towe, John W. Malone, Jerome V. Hall. 5.

SILAS ANDREW McGHEE was born near Canton, Haywood County, N. C., February 12, 1878, and died in the parsonage at Pennington Gap, Va., October 14, 1929. He was the son of George Ira and Sallie Mosser McGhee, being the second of thirteen children. His father was a farmer, and the boyhood of Brother McGhee was like that of the average country boy. He was of Methodist stock, his parents being devout Christians and members of the Methodist Church. Throughout his boyhood and youth he was surrounded by religious influences. At the early age of fourteen he was happily converted and joined the Methodist Church at Canton, N. C. His education was acquired in the public schools of Haywood County, N. C., and Waynesville Academy, and was enhanced by diligent study and much reading. Soon after his conversion he felt the call to preach, which, to him, was imperative. He never doubted or questioned his glorious conversion or his divine call to preach the gospel. Both were as real to him as his own existence. He was licensed to preach December 16, 1899, and served as a missionary to the Cherokee Indians for two years. After this he united with the United Brethren Church and served Otterbein Church in Greene County, Tenn., for four years. His pastorate there was very beautiful, many were added to the church, and a new church was built. His reason for joining the United Brethren Church was that the Western North Carolina Conference was crowded and the presiding elder was unable to give him supply work. He was admitted into the traveling connection of the Holston Conference at Chattanooga, Tenn., in October, 1920. He was married to Miss Sarah Henry, of Newport, Tenn., July 21, 1904. To this union were born two sons, Dwight Haddon and Grant Oliver. Both of these sons were educated at Emory and Henry College. Dwight H. is now a supply preacher in the Holston Conference, having been licensed to preach a week before this session met. Grant O. is teaching his first school near Roanoke, Va. Brother McGhee served the following charges: Hawkins Circuit, three years; Louisville Circuit, three years; Ducktown Circuit, one year; Fall Branch Circuit, one year; Elizabethton, one year; Bulls Gap Circuit, three years; East Park, two years; district evangelist, one year; Bluff City Circuit, one year; Broadford Circuit, one year; Pennington Gap, two years, and returned for the third. Wherever he labored success attended his efforts. Under his ministry people were converted and added to the Church, and believers were built up in the holy faith and led into a life of Christian service. All the interests of the Church were dear to him and were conscientiously cared for. Besides his ministry in spiritual things, he built churches and parsonages, paid off old debts, and developed the material interests of the church. He served on some of the various Conference boards and committees. Whatever he did was well done, and the service rendered was willing and sincere. Brother McGhee attended the session of the Conference at Chattanooga in October, 1929, and was entertained in the home of the writer of this sketch with his dear friend Hale S. Hamilton. He returned home from Conference on Monday and complained of being sick, but did not take his bed until Wednesday. He continued to grow worse all the while, and passed to his reward Sunday morning, October 14. His suffering was great, but he bore it with patience and Christian fortitude. The funeral service was conducted in our Church at Pennington Gap, Va., October 16, by his presiding elder, P. L. Cobb, assisted by the writer and the pastor of the Baptist Church. His remains were interred at Emory, Va., to await the resurrection morning.—E. H. Cassidy.

NEWTON F. WALKER was born in Hawkins County, Tenn., June 21, 1868, and died at Wyndale, Va., October 25, 1929. During the session of the Holston Conference, held at Knoxville, Tenn., in 1908 he was received on trial into the itinerant ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, coming to us from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. His appointments were as follows; Embreeville, 1908-10; Fall Branch, 1911-14; Johnson City Circuit, 1915-17; Limestone Circuit, 1918-20; Parrottsville, 1921; Bristol Circuit, 1922-24; South Bristol, 1925; Fall Branch Circuit, 1926-27. In 1927 his health failed, and at the session of the Holston Conference held in Princeton, W. Va., he was placed on the superannuate list. He held this honorable relation until he went home. He was married to Miss Mary Magdaline Saylor, February 17, 1889. To this union were born four children, three of whom survive: Walter M. Walker, Mrs. O. J. Carter, and Mrs. E. Roy Smith. One sister, Mrs. J. M. Evans, and three brothers, Rev. K. E. Walker, C. D. Walker, and R. B. Walker also survive. Brother Walker's second wife was Miss Susie Gentry, of Wyndale, Va. His second marriage was August 26, 1926. During his long sickness he had all the loving attention that loving hands could give. The funeral services were conducted by his pastor and I. P. Martin, assisted by Rev. Mr. Thompson. His body was laid to rest by the side of his sainted wife in Johnson City cemetery. The Masons had charge of the services at the grave.—J. C. Logan.

ALFRED HAMILTON TOWE was born in Carroll County, Va., June 19, 1862. When a boy of six years, his father and mother moved to Russell County, Va., where he grew up, attending the public schools. For four years he was a student in Temple Hill Academy, of wide reputation for its scholarship and thoroughness of work done. He then taught school for four years. On September 3, 1883, he was married to Miss Florence Jane Potter, who through all the years was a devoted and helpful wife. Four children came to bless and sanctify this home. The first-born was Stuart, who since the death of his father has departed this life; the other children are Mrs. R. N. Havens, Mrs. C. B. Greer, and Mrs. Frank Shoemaker. On August 10, 1877, under the ministry of John H. Kennedy, he was converted and became a member of the Southern Methodist Church. In this same year the Quarterly Conference, recognizing his talent as a speaker and his devotion to the Church, gave him license to exhort, and in 1881 he was licensed to preach. In October, 1886, he was admitted on trial into the Holston Conference as a traveling preacher. In 1888 he was ordained deacon by Bishop Granbery and in 1891 Bishop Wilson ordained him an elder. He served the following charges: Fall Branch Circuit, 1886-87; Hamilton Circuit, 1887-88; Riceville, 1888-91; Ooltewah, 1891-94; Evensville, 1894-97; Kingston, 1897-99; Hawkins, 1899-1902; Powells Valley, 1902-04; Tazewell, Tenn., 1904-07; Madisonville, 1907-09; Etowah, 1909-10; Parrottsville, 1910-14; Rocky Gap, 1914-16; Honaker, 1916-19; Spring Valley, 1919-23; Draper, 1923-26. At the Conference held in Johnson City in October of 1926 he was granted the superannuate relation after an active and continuous service of forty years. Release came to him on Saturday morning, August 16, 1930. The funeral services were conducted by S. D. Long and W. D. Farmer in the Methodist church of which he had been the pastor in former years, and in the presence of a large congregation of the people, gathered together to give thanks to God for the life and character of this good and worthy man. We laid his body to rest in the beautiful cemetery overlooking Emory and Henry College.—S. D. Long.

JOHN WESLEY MALONE, son of J. D. and Mary Malone, was born in Atlanta, Ga., July 10, 1856. His father was a local Methodist preacher in South Carolina. His mother was Scotch-Irish, and a native of Tennessee. She was a Presbyterian until she married a Methodist preacher, when she went with him to his Church. The subject of this sketch was educated at Hiwassee College and Vanderbilt University. In 1885 he went to Mississippi, and served the Byhalia and Victoria Circuit as a supply until the meeting of the North Mississippi Conference that year, when he was admitted on trial under the presidency of Bishop Hargrove. He completed the course of study in regulation time, and was ordained an elder at Holly Springs, Miss., in 1899 by Bishop Galloway. He was married to Miss Lillian Kemp, of Holly Springs, June 15, 1887. Eight children were born to them, seven of them surviving as follows: Dr. Kemp Malone, Dr. Dumas Malone, Miles S. Malone, Mrs. David Wilson, Miss Elizabeth Malone, Mrs. Roger Sharpe, and Miss Virginia

Malone. John Wesley Malone, Jr., died years ago. The highest educational advantages were given these sons and daughters, as they graduated with honors from the universities of the land. The youngest daughter is now at Duke University. In the North Mississippi Conference Brother Malone served the following charges: Early Grove Circuit, 1886; Kosciusko, 1887-88; Minter City, 1889-90; Hernando and Coldwater, 1891-93; Como and McGhee, 1894. During the summer of 1894 he was elected president of Grenada College, where he served five sessions. In the summer of 1899 he resigned to take charge of the Woman's College in Oxford, Miss., where he remained for three sessions. In the fall of 1902 he returned to the pastorate, and was sent to Brunswick, Ga., in the South Georgia Conference, where he remained for four years. He served Cuthbert but six months when he was elected president of Andrew College, and served there for twelve years. From Andrew he came to Centenary College, Cleveland, Tenn., and was transferred to Holston Conference. Here he served for nine years under difficulties many and formidable, but with fidelity and the confidence of everybody. His last year in active service was as a pastor at Rural Retreat, Va., and was one of the happiest of his life. Surrounded by a devoted people, he and his wife commenced life over, as it were, and were serene and satisfied in their little parsonage home. Serious heart trouble broke into the contentment of the circle. When the physician told him that he could no longer take work, he broke down and wept. He was given the superannuate relation in 1928, when he moved back to Cleveland, Tenn. For two years he bore patiently his failing health, and was finally taken to a hospital there, where he lingered for three months. He died Sunday morning, August 17, 1930. Funeral services were held from our church at Cleveland by J. Earl Gilbreath, assisted by W. S. Neighbors and M. P. Carico. The people paid loving tribute to his memory. Another service was held in Grenada, Miss., by Dr. Countiss, and the dead was buried by the side of his namesake, John W. Malone, Jr. The two Johns—father and son—are sleeping together after a separation of thirty-four years. Mrs. Malone is now living with her daughter, Miss Elizabeth, "keeping house" in New Orleans.—James A. Burrow.

JEROME VIRGIL HALL was born at Bland, Va., March 27, 1873, and died at Chilhowie, Va., October 3, 1930. He was converted at the age of twenty-two and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Bland, Va. He was licensed to exhort in 1896, and served his Church in this capacity for four years. Then he became a local preacher and served in this capacity for four years. In 1904 at the Conference held in Abingdon, Va., Brother Hall was received on trial and traveled as an itinerant preacher for twenty-three years in the Wytheville District, serving the following charges: East Wytheville, Old Town, Spring Valley, Independence, Elk Creek, Cedar Springs, Wytheville Circuit, Marion Circuit, and Chilhowie. He was married to Miss Ida Louella Hall, of Ceres, Va., December 24, 1889. To this union were born eight children—five boys and three girls, all of whom are living. While serving the Chilhowie charge the fifth year his health failed him, and it became necessary for him to superannuate in October, 1927, spending the remainder of his life in Chilhowie, Va. After being superannuated he retained his interest in church work, such as preaching, circulating religious literature, and promoting the interests of the Sunday school. At the time of his death he was president of the Smythe County Sunday School Conference. On October 5, 1930, reverently and quietly we carried the body from the home to the Methodist church where for many years he was pastor. A great throng had gathered there, many coming from a great distance. The services were led by his pastor, W. A. McCormack. Others taking part in the service were J. T. Frazier, R. B. Platt, Jr., E. A. Shugart, E. N. Woodward, S. S. Boyer, L. M. Burris, and L. C. Ross, of the Baptist Church. After the services we drove in the mellow autumn afternoon to the cemetery at Mount Pleasant, three miles north of Wytheville, and there tenderly committed his body to the ground, and covered it with a bank of beautiful flowers.—W. A. McCormack.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? W. W. Spates, W. W. Green. 2.

W. W. Green, son of Frederic and Altimisa Green, was born June 29, 1853, in Bath County, Ky. In 1873 he was married to Miss Catherine Crump, and it was through her influence that he was brought to Christ. He joined the Kentucky Conference at Carlisle, Ky., in 1882, and served the following charges: Salt Well, Stanton, Gratz, Campbellsburg, Wilmore, Oddville, Benson and Curry, Warsaw, Hillsboro, Sardis and Shannon, Jackson, Pleasureville, Chaplin, Simpsonville, and Mount Zion in Clark County. He was a true Methodist preacher, believing the doctrines of John Wesley and earnestly and faithfully preaching them. He believed the Bible was the word of God and squared his life by its teachings. He was a soul winner; God honored the word so earnestly and faithfully spoken. Four thousand souls were saved under his ministry, sixteen of whom became ministers of the gospel. Among them were W. L. Clark and Bishop U. V. W. Darlington. Howard W. Whitaker, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Paris, Ky., is a grandson. He is survived by a second wife (who was Mrs. Amosetta Hoskins), five children (George, Marvin, Mrs. W. H. Whitaker, Mrs. Kathryn White, and Mrs. D. H. Henderson), thirty grandchildren, and five sisters. In his last days he suffered greatly, but was always patient and never complained. Often he would quote a promise of the word he loved so well, or offer a prayer to his heavenly Father. He talked to his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Whitaker, of his going, and made plans for his departure. He often spoke of his brethren of the Kentucky Conference, expressing deep appreciation of their friendship and love. His daughter, Mrs. Whitaker, who was constantly at his bedside during the last two weeks of his life, told me that he was anxious to the last that the churches might be revived, and that God would send an old-time revival of Holy Ghost religion upon his people. He died in the Good Samaritan Hospital, Lexington, Ky. His body was brought back to his home in Winchester, Ky., where a short service was held by J. R. Whealdon before leaving for Oddville, Harrison County, where his funeral sermon was preached by Adolphus Gilliam, pastor of Mount Zion charge, from the text, "I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing." He was laid to rest by the side of his first wife in the churchyard at Oddville, Ky.—M. T. Chandler.

W. W. Spates was born near Oxford, Scott County, Ky., February 7, 1842. He was educated in the schools of his native county. For some time he read law under Judge Stevenson of Georgetown. He taught school in his native county at Stamping Ground, and while here joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He was converted while attending a revival at Georgetown, when he was about twenty years of age. He migrated to Missouri soon thereafter and was licensed to preach at Greenton, in that State, April 6, 1871. Returning to his native State, he joined the Conference at Mount Sterling in 1874; was ordained deacon by Bishop Marvin at Maysville, September 6, 1875; and was ordained elder at Shelbyville by Bishop Pierce in 1878. He served faithfully for thirty-three years, when failing health caused him to retire. He was never strong enough to serve as our steward again. His interest in his Church never abated. He attended church service when his strength was not sufficient for the exertion, but always with great joy. He built eight churches, repaired a greater number, and a host of people were converted under his ministry and received into the Church. On November 20, 1878, he was united in marriage with Miss M. Betty King, of Grassy Lick, Montgomery County. There were no children, but it was a happy union indeed. He was confined to his room for three months. He was happy in his experience—nothing in his way. He said: "I am really waiting and willing to go." At his request the writer conducted his funeral, assisted by C. A. Tague, presiding elder, and twenty-three ministers.—P. C. Eversole.

Ques. 15. Who are the deacons of one year? J. R. Whealdon, E. C. Johnson, D. R. Klingler, A. D. Houglin, G. B. Traynor, H. L. Graybeal. 6.

WILLIAM F. LASETER was born in Pike County, Ga., May 25, 1853, and died at Little Rock, Ark., at the home of his son, Roy M. Laseter, June 22, 1930. Brother Laseter spent his youth and early manhood in the State of Georgia, and came to Arkansas in 1898. Having been a member of the Methodist Church since childhood, and a local preacher since his early manhood, he felt a call to the active itinerancy soon after coming to this State. He was admitted on trial into the Little Rock Conference in 1900 and was appointed to the Sheridan Circuit, where he spent four years. In 1904 he was appointed to Redfield Circuit; 1905, to Swan Lake Station; 1906, to Rison Circuit; 1907-08, to Gillette Circuit; 1909, to Snyder Circuit; 1910-11, to Mabelvale; 1912-15, to Austin Circuit; 1916, to Patmos Circuit; 1917, to Princeton Circuit. At the Conference of 1918 at Hot Springs he took the appointment which he held for nearly twelve years, that of superannuation. He is gone, but his life and works shall abide in the life of his children and many of his parishioners. He is survived by two sons and two daughters, J. R. Laseter, Roy M. Laseter, Julia C. Laseter, and Mrs. J. R. Pounds, and one brother, J. L. Laseter. The writer conducted his funeral from the Asbury Methodist Church, assisted by James Thomas and J. H. Glass. The pallbearers were: Active, H. D. Sadler, C. N. Baker, C. D. Meux, Robert Beasley, O. L. Walker; honorary, W. R. Harrison, W. R. Richardson, S. W. Rainey. His remains were placed in Roselawn Park to await the resurrection.—J. L. Dedman.

JOHN CALVIN MCELHENNEY, son of Jack and Amaretta Steel McElhenney, was born in Anover, Cleveland County. Ark., August 15, 1861, and died at Little Rock, Ark., October 26, 1930. He was educated in the White Hill Academy, and while his studies did not take a very wide range, yet he received a very liberal education for a man of his day. After leaving school young McElhenney taught school for a number of years and otherwise employed his time in useful labors in the community where he lived. On December 1, 1888, he was married to Miriam Rogers, of Pine Bluff, Ark., and settled in that city with his wife. To them were born five children: Forest, Fern, Johnnie (now Mrs. C. E. Smith), Hazel (now Mrs. C. A. Edwards), and Dale. In June of 1911 his wife went to her reward in the home of the good. It was like a bolt of lightning hurled against a stately oak. John McElhenney was never the same any more. But far from allowing this tragedy to darken his life, he was rather sweetened by it. There came into his soul a hope in Christ that had not been there before. In 1912 he was admitted on trial into the Little Rock Conference, and three years later into full connection in that fellowship. His ministerial appointments were Hamburg Circuit, Eudora, Watson, Arkansas and Southern Camps, and Snyder. In 1921 his health became critical, and it was necessary for him to take the superannuated relation and go to the hospital. It proved to be the end of his labors. He was never able to take up work any more. As his brethren knew him, the outstanding quality of his life was purity. He was careful, courteous, kind, gentle, and loved every one he knew, and prayed for people he never saw. He won his way into the hearts of his people by the goodness of his life as well as the truth and power of his messages. We may say of him as Luke says of Stephen, "He was a good man, full of faith and of the Holy Ghost." These are the qualities that will save the world if it is ever saved at all. Whether it be Church or State, if they be not led by men of this type, both alike are doomed to go on the rocks. There is no substitute for goodness in anything.—J. L. Cannon.

ROBERT WILLIAM MCKAY, one of the most widely known and highly esteemed members of the Little Rock Conference, died at his home in Cabot, Ark., August 21, 1930, after a lingering illness of more than six years. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McKay, and was born in Yorkville, S. C., March 29, 1864. When he was about six years of age his parents moved to Arkansas and established their home on a farm near Cabot, where they reared a large family of sons and daughters. There Robert William grew to manhood. When about fifteen years of age he was converted and joined the old historic Mount Tabor Church, known as "the mother of preachers" because so many preachers have gone out from it. When about twenty years of age he was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of the Austin Circuit, C. C. Godden being the presiding elder at that time. Soon after being licensed to preach he was appointed to supply the White River Circuit, which he served two years, 1885-86. At the close of his first year of service as a supply pastor, he was admitted on trial into the Little Rock Conference at the session held in Arkadelphia in December, 1885. For nearly forty years he devoted himself wholeheartedly and continuously to the work of an itinerant Methodist preacher. In the summer of 1924, while serving as presiding elder of the Pine Bluff District, his health became impaired, and after a brave but futile effort to continue his work he was compelled to surrender. He was a man of iron will and heroic spirit, and for six long years he waged a courageous fight against the ravages of that dread disease, tuberculosis. After spending more than a year in the State Sanatorium at Booneville he was sent home to die. Generous friends came to his financial assistance and helped him to buy a comfortable home at Cabot, where, under the constant care of his faithful wife, he lingered for more than four years until the end came. For many years he was an active and influential member of each of the three boards of college trustees and also a member of one or more of the important quadrennial boards of the Conference. His life was literally absorbed in the work of the Little Rock Conference and his interest in his work made of him an efficient leader and a most helpful counselor. Even after he was confined to his bed and unable to take any active part in the work of the Conference, he maintained a lively interest in all Conference matters. While serving his second pastoral charge, Stuttgart, he was married to Miss Mary Frances Morgan, of Arkansas County, June 14, 1888. Four daughters and one son were born to them, all of whom with their mother are still living. He leaves also his honored father and mother, both of whom are past ninety years of age, one brother, and five sisters.—J. A. Sage.

JOHN H. MCKELVY, son of Rev. William and Loula Spain McKelvy, was born December 11, 1859, at Moulton, Ala., and died at his home in Little Rock, October 29, 1930. Brother McKelvy came to Arkansas in early life, engaging in agriculture until he answered the higher call to the ministry. That he should become one of God's evangels is not surprising, as he was following in the footsteps of his father. He served eleven years as a supply before joining the itinerant ministry. He entered the Little Rock Conference on trial at Prescott in the year 1894. He was received into full connection two years later at Camden, obtaining his elder's orders at Little Rock in 1898, Bishop Morrison presiding. The charges he served are as follows: Spring Hill Circuit, one year; Genoa Circuit, two years; DeAnn Circuit, two years; Oak Hill Circuit, one year; Hickory Plains Circuit, one year; Des Arc Circuit, three years; Carlisle Circuit, two years; Bryant Circuit, three years; Dalark Circuit, two years; Cedar Glades Mission, four years; Princeton Circuit, two years; Leola Circuit, one year; Washington Circuit, two years; Keo and Tomberlin, one year. After his superannuation in 1922 he served five years in the Batesville District, North Arkansas Conference, supplying the Strangers' Home and Desha Works. Brother McKelvy was a courageous, earnest, and deeply spiritual minister, never compromising with wrong. He went forward without hesitancy, preaching, teaching, visiting from house to house, touching men of all classes, and blessing lives everywhere. He came to a beautiful sunset. He often spoke of being ready to answer the call, of his assurance of a rich inheritance and the glory that awaited him. He suffered long, never complaining, only thinking of the comfort of others. His first wife died several years ago, and he had married again. He is survived by his wife, a son, A. C. McKelvy, and a daughter, Mrs. May Mason. The funeral was held on October 31, 1930, at Henderson Church. J. H. Glass and the writer were in charge.—O. C. Birdwell.

HUGH REVELY, son of Hugh and Mary Elizabeth Revely, was born near Jackson, Tenn., January 8, 1856, and died in Florida, March 4, 1930. Of the early life of Brother Revely little is known to his brethren of the ministry. When he was licensed to preach we are uninformed. But he was with that group of men who knocked at the doors of the Little Rock Conference when it was called in session at El Dorado in 1903. He was admitted on trial at that time and was regularly advanced in his courses of study for four years and completed the courses in 1907. His ministerial appointments were Oak Hill, El Dorado Circuit, Mount Ida, Hamburg Circuit, New Edinburg, Rowell, Maumelle and Oak Hill, Bright Star, Cherry Hill and Tomberlin. He was superannuated in 1916 and moved to West Texas, where he served as a supply pastor for a time. Leaving Texas in 1925, he went to Florida, where he continued to preach for a year, when his health utterly failed, and he went to the Penney Farms of that State and was very happy in his location till his death. While pastor at New Edinburg he was married to Mary Marks. No preacher ever had a more faithful and devoted wife. By a former marriage he was the father of four children, who, with his wife, survive him. They are Joseph, Minnie Hale, Lawson, and James. On the evening of his death he sang aloud, "God Will Take Care of You." Having concluded this hymn, his wife was reading aloud to him from his Bible when she detected a scarcely audible gasp and quickly turned to his bed. His spirit was gone.—J. L. Cannon.

COLUMBUS O. STEELE died at Hot Springs, Ark., April 15, 1930. At the time of his death he was the oldest member of the Little Rock Conference in point of years, lacking only a few months of being ninety-two years of age. He was born in the State of Tennessee in November, 1838, and there he grew to manhood and entered the ministry of the Methodist Church. He was licensed to preach in 1857 and was admitted on trial into the Memphis Conference at its session held in October of that year. He was transferred immediately to the Ouachita Conference, now the Little Rock. He attended the session of that Conference which was held in the city of Little Rock in November following, and was appointed to the White Sulphur Springs Circuit. He spent about twenty-five years in this Conference, serving a number of leading charges with great acceptability and occupying a place in the front rank of the members of the body. Sometime about the year 1879 or 1880 he was transferred to the Pacific Conference, where he spent about twenty years or more in efficient service. He returned to the Little Rock Conference in 1901, but after nearly four years of service in this Conference he returned to the Pacific Conference on account of the health of his wife, who died in California. After spending two more years in the Pacific Conference he returned to his home Conference and was appointed to Stephens, where he spent four happy and fruitful years and where he closed his active ministry. At the session of the Conference held in 1911 he asked for and was granted the superannuate relation, after having spent fifty-four years in the active work of the ministry. Few men have labored so long and so well. After the death of his second wife, and about the time of his final return to Arkansas, he was married to his third wife, a woman of rare beauty of life and character, who proved a most congenial and helpful companion for him in his declining years. She preceded him by some two years to the heavenly home, and his last days were full of loneliness and pain. The comrades of his early ministry had all gone before him. The younger men, most of whom had come into the Conference while he was in California, had never known him at his best. Under such conditions it was not strange that he grew lonesome and homesick for heaven. He leaves three children, R. M. Steele, C. O., Jr., and Mrs. Eugenia Marlott. A beloved daughter, Mrs. Fred Gray, died several years ago. A granddaughter, the daughter of Mrs. Gray, tenderly ministered to him during the closing days of his life. He was buried from the First Methodist Church in Hot Springs, the funeral service being conducted by the pastor, J. D. Hammons, assisted by J. H. Glass and several others.—J. A. Sage.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? Joseph B. Seay. 1.

JOSEPH BENSON SEAY, son of Daniel and Elizabeth Seay, was born near Grant, Tenn., on May 8, 1857. He was educated at New Middleton College, Cumberland University, Vanderbilt University, and was also a graduate of Oberlin (Ohio) Business College. On January 1, 1885, at Ellsworth, Ohio, he was married to Miss Nellie Bingham. For nearly forty-five years these two walked together through joy and sorrow in a beautiful Christian fellowship. To this union were born seven sons and two daughters. Surviving are five sons and one daughter. They are: Paul H., Nellie B., Joseph B., Olney B., Daniel W., and Hillis S. Brother Seay had the advantages of a Christian home. His parents were prominent citizens of their community, and leading members of the Methodist Church. Joseph was converted, baptized, and received into the Church in 1872. In early life he was called to the ministry, but resisted the call for some years. He was licensed to preach by B. M. Stevens, at New Middleton, Tenn., on July 1, 1877. On October 10, 1886, at Clarksville, he was admitted on trial into the Tennessee Conference and, at the same Conference, was ordained deacon by Bishop Hendrix. Two years later he was admitted into full connection in the Louisville Conference at Cadiz, Bishop Wilson presiding. He was ordained elder by Bishop Fitzgerald at Campbellsville, September 25, 1892. Following are the appointments served by Brother Seay: In the Tennessee Conference, Swan Creek and Blanche Circuit. In the Louisville Conference, Leitchfield, Bardstown, Princeton, Greenville, Elkton. At the conclusion of his pastorate at Elkton he was transferred to the St. Louis Conference and was appointed by Bishop Wilson to the Washington District. After serving this district four years, he returned to the Louisville Conference and served Kuttawa, Cloverport, Portland (Louisville), Robards, Corydon, Smith's Grove, Russellville Circuit, Allensville, and Scottsville. After his superannuation, Brother Seay lived for a while at Franklin. He then purchased a home at Nashville, Tenn., where he lived until December 20, 1929, when he left us for his eternal home with the Lord he loved. On Christmas eve day, the funeral service was held at his home in Nashville. In compliance with his request, it was held by the writer who was assisted by W. H. Johnston. His dust was laid to rest in Mount Olivet cemetery, but his noble spirit has gone to be with God who gave it.—G. W. Hummel.

WILLIAM SLATER LOCKMAN, fourth child of William and Virginia Lockman, was born in McNairy County, Tenn., October 14, 1879. He had two brothers and four sisters. At the age of twelve he gave his heart and life to God and joined the Church. At an early age he was elected Sunday school superintendent and very efficiently carried on this work. God laid his hand upon him and he felt the call to preach. He struggled against the call, but finally the victory was won. He surrendered whole-heartedly and there will be many who will rise up and call him blessed in the great day of accounting. He was admitted on trial into the Memphis Conference on November 16, 1911, at Memphis, Tenn. He was received into full connection November 7, 1914, and ordained deacon on the eighth by Bishop Murrah. On November 18, 1916, he was elected elder, but illness prevented his ordination. Bishop Murrah ordained him elder on November 11, 1917. His first charge was Scott's Hill Circuit in the Lexington District. He then served in order Reidland Circuit, Farmington Circuit, Adamsville Circuit, Selmer Circuit, Ayers Circuit, Ridgely Circuit, Brazil Circuit, Wingo Circuit, Elbridge Circuit, Hardin Circuit, and Camden Circuit. Always frail from a physical standpoint, his health began to give way under the strain of his much-beloved work. After consultation with his presiding elder his name was referred for the superannuate relation which was granted him November 16, 1929. He came with his family to Memphis and resided at 1935 Courtland Avenue. Here on March 11, 1930, he passed away while asleep. His body was carried back to Selmer, Tenn., and there laid away in the tongueless silence of the dreamless dust to await the resurrection morn. On March 6, 1906, he was united in marriage to Miss Sallie Evelyn Johns. To this union three children were born: Dewitt, Dorothy, and Frances. He has gone on ahead of them and us and awaits our coming.—L. H. Estes.

George H. Martin, associate pastor of First Methodist Church, Memphis, Tenn., passed to his rest and reward on September 10, 1930, at the ripe age of eighty-six years. It was my rare privilege to be a fellow-worker with Brother Martin during the sunset years of his life. Our sharing of a common task brought us much together and I came to know him intimately. He had truly risen with Christ and therefore constantly set his affections on things above. He had his dwelling in the secret place of the Most High. He was a man of fine sanity. He had fervor without fanaticism. He could see visions without becoming visionary. His outlook was never that of the old. Winter was upon his head, but springtime never ceased to home in his heart. To the very end he was able not only to mount up with wings as eagles, but also to run and not be weary, and even to walk and not faint. Most winsome of all was his quenchless and contagious joy. He never lost his zest for either laughter or song or work. This does not mean that he was a stranger to tears. During these eventide years his life seemed to fairly fall in ruins about him. His wife went home after a companionship of over sixty years. A noble son upon whom he leaned heavily was killed in a ruthlessly reckless accident that made it all the harder to bear because it was so difficult not to feel bitterness against the one who was to blame for the needless tragedy. But Brother Martin found His grace sufficient. He never missed a service at church, nor was the face he showed in God's house a clouded face. It was rather that of one who had looked unto him and become radiant. There was about him something that we simply could not explain apart from God, therefore we glorified Christ in him.—C. G. Chappell.

Winfield Jackson Mecoy, son of J. A. and Susan Mecoy, was born in Butler County, Ky., September 29, 1862. We have no written history of the details of his early life, but he was converted and became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in his early youth and spent the remainder of his life in the fellowship and service of the Church of his choice. He was received on trial by the Memphis Conference at Memphis in December, 1884. He was received into full connection at Jackson, Tenn., on December 10, 1886. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Duncan on December 12, 1886, and elder by Bishop Keener on November 11, 1888. From that date until October 26, 1930, he remained in the active service of his Church. He was married to Miss Maggie Witt Waters on December 7, 1887. To this marriage were born four children. The oldest, Charles Edgar, died at Union City, Tenn., in his childhood. The other three, Mary Ed, Martha J, and Rebecca Ann, with the mother survive him. In his long and active ministry Brother Mecoy held the following appointments: Briensburg Circuit, Benton and Murray, Huntingdon and Long Rock, Bolivar Circuit, Brownsville Circuit, Clinton Station, Dyersburg Station, Harris Memorial, Paris Station, Union City Station, Martin Station, Paducah District, Jackson District, Commissioner of Emory University, Conference Missionary Secretary, Conference Evangelist, Troy Circuit, Arlington Station, Arlington and Burkeley, Financial Agent of Lambuth College, Bardwell and Wickliffe. Brother Mecoy was one of the most beloved and useful men of his generation in the Memphis Conference. And now the long, arduous task of his ministry is finished. He has gone home to receive the approval, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." The end came suddenly and without warning. He was fatally injured in an automobile accident near Bardwell, Ky., on October 23, 1930, and died in the Methodist Hospital in Memphis, Tenn., on October 26. He was buried at Union City, Tenn., October 28. The end was perfect peace in the triumph of a victorious faith.—S. L. Jewell.

Edward Bryan Ramsey went home to be with God on December 31, 1929. He was one of nature's noblemen, and one of our most popular and effective preachers. He was the son of Thomas Solomon and Mary Bryan Ramsey, and was born in Bedford County, Tenn., December 4, 1853. He was the youngest child and the only boy in a family of five children. His sisters were Nancy, Diadama, Sarah, and Mary. The sisters all married, moved to Texas, and reared large families. The oldest, Nancy, lived until 1922, and the others have passed away since. When Edward was a small boy the family moved to Alcorn County, Miss., where they lived until all the children were grown and married. They lived on a farm twelve miles from the railroad until the son was almost grown, at which time they moved to Rienzi that he might attend school. He had been in school in the country, but the terms were of short duration and the quality of instruction poor. He professed religion at a log meetinghouse known as Thomas' Chapel at the age of fourteen, under the preaching of J. W. Honnoll. His mother and sisters were all members of the Church, but his father did not become such until after his son had joined. He went to school to Professor Gilham at Rienzi, to Professors Carmack and Gibson at Jacinto, Miss., and to G. M. Savage at Henderson, Tenn. Sometime during this period he was impressed with a call to the ministry, and on October 25, 1873, secured a license to preach from the Rienzi and Jacinto charge at a quarterly meeting conducted by J. D. Cameron, presiding elder. In 1876 he supplied the Burnsville Circuit, a charge composed of ten churches, scattered over a large territory. Near the close of that year he assisted John Scruggs in a meeting at Iuka, Miss., and there met Miss Julia Steel, who later became his bride. He joined the North Mississippi Conference with the class of 1876 at Sardis, Miss., and was appointed to the New Albany Circuit, which he served one year. He was ordained deacon in 1878 by Bishop Paine, whom he ever after held in very tender esteem. He was ordained elder in 1860 at the Conference which met at Columbus, Miss., and at this same Conference was united in marriage to Miss Julia Steel on December 23, in the presence of the assembled Conference—the bride's brother, S. A. Steel, himself a distinguished preacher of the Church and now living as an honored superannuate at Mansfield, La., being the officiating minister. He served other charges in the North Mississippi Conference as follows: Ripley and Faulkner, two years; Grenada Station, two years; Starkville Station, one year; Como Station, three years; Oxford Station, two years. At the close of his pastorate at Oxford he was transferred to the Memphis Conference and stationed at First Church, Jackson, Tenn., where he had a most successful pastorate of four years. He served other charges in the Memphis Conference as follows: Union City Station, one year; Broadway, Paducah, four years; Hernando Street (afterwards Second Church), Memphis, two years; Central (afterwards St. John's), Memphis, one year; Paris Station, two years; Fulton Station, two years; Madison Heights, Memphis, four years; Mississippi Avenue, Memphis, four years; Dyersburg Station, four years; Broadway, Paducah, three years, where his dear wife passed away on January 6, 1919; Humboldt Station, four years; Harris Memorial, Memphis, four years. At the close of the latter pastorate his health was greatly impaired but he served Bartlett Station one year, nevertheless, and Davant Avenue, Memphis, a portion of a year. A short while after going to Davant Avenue his health failed entirely and he was forced to give up his active ministry. He took the superannuate relation at the Conference which met at Broadway, Paducah, in 1928. Most of the last two years of his life he was confined to his bed in the Methodist Hospital at Memphis. For a short time during that period he was able to sit up and be driven about in a car; but this was not for long. Then on that last morning of the old year he went to sleep to awake for the new in that fairer home in the skies, of which he had dreamed so much in his years of devoted labor and for which he had so much longed those weeks of his protracted decline. Services to his memory were held at Madison Heights Church in Memphis on the afternoon of January 2, with Felix R. Hill, his presiding elder, in charge, assisted by C. N. Terry, of the North Mississippi Conference, his only surviving classmate, George H. Martin, W. W. Adams, H. S. Spragins, and the writer. His daughter, Mrs. Alma Bowers, and son Samuel, survive and mourn his going.—Fred H. Peeples.

William Owen Stone was born in Medon, Tenn., June 5, 1887, and came to the end of his earthly career on the early morning of June 13, 1930. Up to within a few weeks of his passing he was the picture of health and strength and seemed to have the promise of many years. The early years of his life were spent in and around Medon, where he received secondary education in the public schools of that section and later attended Union University in Jackson, Tenn. From early childhood he was attracted by the higher ideals and sought the finer things of life. He was admitted on probation into the Memphis Conference in 1910 and after serving the customary years of probation and completing the course of study was admitted into full connection and ordained to the full ministry. He started at the foot of the ladder and by faithful and effective service was working his way up the front and to prominence in the Conference when his sun of life suddenly went down at high noon. His record of service closed with nineteen and a half years, but that record will compare favorably with the record made by any itinerant who has labored among us. His first charge was Ridgely Circuit, which he served for two years; Shiloh Circuit, one year; Beech Bluff Circuit, four years; Third Street, Paducah, four years; Southside, Memphis, one year; Trinity, Jackson, four years; Somerville, three years; Bemis, six months, when he laid down his armor and passed over the "great divide." In 1911 he married Miss Susie Black, of Toone, Tenn. Of this union five daughters were born, all of whom survive: Marguerite, Lucile, Virginia, Dorothy, and Sarah Ethel. His funeral was conducted by this writer, assisted by the pastors of the several Methodist churches in Jackson, from the Bemis Methodist Church, which was filled to its capacity, not only by the people of Bemis, but friends from charges which he had previously served and brother ministers from every section of the Conference. His body was laid to rest in beautiful Hollywood Cemetery.—J. W. Blackard.

Earl A. Tucker was born near Corinth, Miss., July 10, 1874, son of Heslep R. and Abbie Deloach Tucker. His father and also an elder brother were prominent members of the North Mississippi Conference. Earl attended the Mississippi Normal College four years and afterwards attended the Southern University, now Birmingham-Southern. In 1898 he was married to Miss Annie Lee Houston of Guntown, Miss. Of this union two children were born—a son, who died in infancy, and a daughter, who is now Mrs. C. B. Hughes. His first wife died in 1902 and he rehabilitated his home in 1904 by marrying Miss Bessie Hubbard, of Memphis, who made not only a devoted wife, but a model pastor's wife. Of this union two sons were born, Bruce and Randolph. His first ministerial service was in the North Mississippi Conference. In 1904 he joined the Memphis Conference and was assigned to Kenton and Rutherford charge, then served successively and successfully Lexington Circuit, Milburn Circuit, Middle Avenue (now Trinity, Jackson), Milan Station, Fountain Avenue (Paducah). From this last charge he transferred to the St. Louis Conference and served Fredericktown two years and then back to the Memphis Conference, serving Millington, Somerville, Hickman, Murray, Highland Heights (Memphis), then the Lexington District as presiding elder for two and a half years when he reached the end of his earthly pilgrimage. In the Mason Memorial Hospital at Murray, Ky., on June 15, 1930, he passed away after skilled physicians, trained nurses, and loving friends had done all that it was possible to do for him in his brave fight for life. Besides the wife and three children he leaves three sisters and one brother, to mourn his passing. On June 16, funeral services were held in First Methodist Church, Murray, with W. C. Waters, his family's pastor, in charge. Loving tributes were paid to his memory by three of his closest friends, each of whom at different times had been his presiding elder: J. W. Blackard, J. M. Pickens, and W. D. Jenkins. Other ministers taking part in the service were: A. L. Dickenson, J. F. Morelock, and J. O. Ensor. Preachers from every section of the Conference and loving friends from many charges which he had formerly served came with flowers for the dead and tender words of sympathy for the bereaved. His body was laid to rest in the city cemetery at Murray.—J. W. Blackard.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? William Lawrence Linfield, Obed Burch Matheney. 2.

WILLIAM LAWRENCE LINFIELD was born August 18, 1866, at Baton Rouge, La. His father was William E. M. Linfield, one of the most outstanding figures in the Mississippi Conference. His mother was Sophronia Jane Barker Linfield. From reports of her life and character she was a most excellent and staunch character, giving to her preacher husband help and inspiration that were inspiring and fitting. She implanted her ideals and devotion in the heart of her home, from which has come much of blessing and joy. While his father was pastor at Hazlehurst his son William, a lad of sixteen years, joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. His loyalty to this organization never wavered. He put the Church first in all his after life and sought to serve her without any reservations in every duty and obligation placed upon him. Brother Linfield's education was obtained from the local schools where the family resided from time to time and from the University of Mississippi and Centenary College (then located in Jackson, La.). The stamp of both these great institutions was to be found upon his life and work. Soon after his uniting with the Church, at the age of sixteen, he felt impelled to preach. This compulsion continued to grow and manifest itself until he made application for license to preach. At the Quarterly Conference held at Beauregard, Miss., August 27, 1886, he was recommended in due order, and on August 29 he preached his first sermon in the Methodist Church at Beauregard. At the session of the Annual Conference held at Port Gibson, Miss., in 1886, Bishop Duncan presiding, he was admitted on trial into the Mississippi Conference. Here he received his first appointment, which was to the Rodney Circuit. When the Conference met at Jackson in 1887 he was assigned as a student in Centenary College, Jackson, La. Here he pursued his courses of study until June, when he was asked to take the Georgetown Circuit until Conference, which he did. At the session of the Annual Conference held at Vicksburg in December, 1888, he was ordained deacon by Bishop Hargrove. He was again assigned as a student in Centenary College, where he remained until June, when he was again asked to take a circuit, this time in East Baton Rouge Parish, Pipkin Chapel being the most prominent church on this charge. It was during this pastorate that he was happily married to Miss Bessie Hampton Barrow, of West Feliciana Parish. In 1889 he was sent to Franklinton, where he remained for one year. In 1890 he was sent to Lake City, where he remained two years. At the Conference in 1891, held at Brookhaven, Miss., he was ordained elder by Bishop Hendrix. In 1892 he was assigned to Baker, in East Baton Rouge Parish, where he completed a most successful two years' pastorate. In 1894 he was assigned to Utica, where he remained two years. In 1896 he was assigned to Morton, where his pastorate was four years. In 1900 Laurel was beginning to assume a place of importance and some one was needed to guide the forming of this important work. Brother Linfield was selected to this important task, and he remained there for two years. In 1902 he was sent to Waynesboro, where he served for four years. In 1906 he was sent to Woodville, where he had a happy two years' pastorate. In 1908 he was appointed to Washington Street, Vicksburg, now Gibson Memorial. His pastorate here was just for one year. In 1909 he was sent to Hazlehurst, where he had been as a boy. From 1910 to 1913 he was the pastor of Main Street, Biloxi. In 1914 he was sent to Court Street Church, Hattiesburg. He was called from this important pastorate to be the presiding elder of the Newton District. Here he served for four years. From the Newton District he became the pastor of First Church, Gulfport, where he spent four years. In 1923 he served Fifth Street, Meridian. In 1924-25 he served the Lumberton charge. From Lumberton he was sent to Logtown, where he remained one year, 1926. From Logtown he was sent to Ocean Springs. Here in the summer he was in an automobile accident which was a severe shock, and he asked for the superannuate relationship at the Conference of 1928 at Philadelphia, Miss. He moved to New Orleans, where two of his children were already employed, in order to make a home for them. Here he lived until October 2, 1930, when he went home. While in New Orleans he was used in the different churches and worked with Brother Johns in the Carrollton Avenue Church. Two sisters survive him, Miss Annie Linfield and Mrs. B. F. Jones. Mrs. Linfield and five children survive him: Miss Mary Barrow Linfield, Miss Janie Barrow Linfield, Hilliard Barrow Linfield, William Lawrence Linfield, and Robert Paine Linfield. Mrs. Linfield is in New Orleans, making a home for her two daughters.—J. C. Chambers.

OBED BURCH MATHENEY was born near Waynesboro, in Wayne County, Miss., May 5, 1877, and died November 13, 1930, while serving the Waynesboro Circuit after four years as pastor of this, his home church. It was with much sadness that the Conference received word that Brother Matheney could not answer to his name at the roll call, being confined to his bed from an infection which developed into blood poison, spreading quickly through his system, and it was noted by friends and dear ones that death was inevitable. News came to the Conference of his death, deepening the sadness of his brethren who loved and respected him as a man and a minister. From his early childhood he received training at the hands of a consecrated mother, who shaped his life and caused him, when quite a child, to unite with the Methodist Church, accepting Jesus Christ as his Lord and Saviour, determining later in life to become a servant of God and a minister of the gospel. In 1914 he was married to Miss Nannie Graham. This union was blessed with five children: Robert, Erin, Mary Loraine, Thad, and Cora V. These, with their mother, cherish the memory of a tender father and loving husband, mourning the loss and separation from this earthly life, looking to that union of the family in the Father's house. Brother Matheney did not serve the Church long as a minister, his life having been snapped, as it were, in the midst of a service that was not onlv happy to him, but profitable to the kingdom. In 1920 he was licensed as a local preacher, serving in the ministry for two years. At the Conference held in Crystal Springs, Miss., in 1922 he was admitted on trial into the Conference and assigned at that time to the Vimville charge, where he served for four years. At the Conference of 1924, held in Canton, Miss., Bishop Ainsworth received him into full connection and ordained him deacon. He was ordained elder two years later by Bishop Candler at the Conference of 1926 held in McComb City, Miss. At this Conference he was assigned to the Waynesboro Circuit, which he served until the time of his death. He was laid to rest by the side of friends and relatives in the little cemetery at Hebron Church, Wayne County, Miss., November 14, 1930, by the tender hands of his brother ministers, C. M. Crosley, S. M. Young, and H. J. Oakley, to await the call of God, triumphantly to arise and live forever.—Claude P. Jones.

Bone, a local deacon on trial in the class of the first year with all examinations complete, to the Northwest Texas Conference. 6.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? J. D. Houston, J. P. Godbey, J. T. Mitchell, E. W. Reynolds, W. H. Utter. 5.

JOSIAH PERRY GODBEY, son of John and Orpha Godbey, was born at Somerset, Ky., March 27, 1844, and passed away at Fayette, Mo., January 13, 1930. W. M. Alexander preached the funeral sermon. When he was sixteen years of age he moved to Missouri, where he resided until his death. In 1876 he was graduated from Central College. Following in the steps of his forefathers, Brother Godbey entered the Methodist ministry and spent the best years of his life in faithful and fruitful service for his Lord. He was received on trial into the Missouri Conference in 1884. He served with conspicuous success churches at Liberty, Hardin, Rayville, Hamburg, Forest City, and other points. Brother Godbey was married to Miss Ellenora Bates on February 12, 1880. To this union six children were born, all of whom are now alive. Brother Godbey and his wife gave their children the best educational advantages Central College offers.—W. B. Selah.

JOHN DANIEL HOUSTON was born in Chariton County, Mo., near Brunswick, February 20, 1850. He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, when a lad. He was licensed to exhort in 1873, and licensed to preach in 1874. He entered the Missouri Conference in 1875, was ordained deacon by Bishop Marvin in 1877, and was ordained elder in 1879 by Bishop Wightman. His first circuit was Jamesport, and his second circuit was Lineville, Iowa. Here he met Miss Sarah Porter, who became his wife on July 31, 1877. To this union six children were born, all boys, two of whom died in infancy. Those living are Marvin M., William B., Byron T., and Joseph D. Besides his loving companion, four boys, and six grandchildren, he leaves hosts of relatives and friends to mourn his departure. He was superannuated in 1895, after which he settled on a farm in Mercer County, where he remained until last fall, when he went to California to spend the winter. He passed away February 1, 1930, and his body was laid to rest in the Lineville Evergreen Cemetery. —Obie F. Davenport.

JOHN T. MITCHELL was born at Macon, Mo., September 12, 1879, and passed away at his home in Polo, Mo., June 21, 1930. He was licensed to preach under the ministry of M. H. Moore, presiding elder, April 16, 1912, and served as a supply on the Keota charge during the remainder of that year. He was admitted on trial into the Missouri Conference at its session in Shelbina that fall and appointed to the Cairo Circuit. He served Brashear, Leesburg and Madison, Fulton Circuit, Mexico Circuit, and Polo Station. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Murrah at the Conference in Liberty in 1920, and four years later he was ordained elder at the Conference in Richmond by Bishop McMurry. He was married to Miss Leona Summers on March 24, 1901. Two children were born to this union. The first one, Wilbur Lee, died in infancy. He is survived by his widow, his daughter, Mrs. Clifford Fowler of Polo, and his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mitchell of Moberly, Mo. Funeral services were conducted at Polo, June 23, by his presiding elder, assisted by R. C. Holliday and J. N. Boyd, two of his former presiding elders. Interment was in the Cowgill cemetery.—G. A. Shadwick.

ELLIOTT WHITFIELD REYNOLDS, the son of Rev. George A. and Margaret (McClanahan) Reynolds, was born March 19, 1854, at Bluestone, Tazewell County, Va. Both parents were Methodists, his father being a local preacher and teacher in the Holston Conference. When but ten years old he joined the Church under the ministry of his pastor, John Hyden, but was not converted until two years later under the ministry of J. T. Frazier, then his pastor. Three years later he became convinced of his call to the ministry, but tried for some time to shake off the conviction, finally yielding in 1875, being licensed to preach by the East Tazewell Quarterly Conference, Jeffersonville District, Holston Conference, held at Bluestone, Va., September 4, 1875; George Stuart, presiding elder, and W. H. Kelly, preacher in charge. He then attended school one year, after which he taught school for three years. On June 28, 1879, he was recommended to the Western Virginia Conference for admission on trial, by the Quarterly Conference of Raleigh Circuit, Charleston District; John H. Hendrickson, preacher in charge, and W. R. Chambers, presiding elder. He was received into the Conference at Clarksburg, W. Va., September 4, 1879, and ordained local deacon by Bishop Doggett, September 7, 1879. He was ordained elder by Bishop Granbery, October 14, 1883, at Huntington, W. Va. He was married to Miss Emma Bird Rider, of Williamstown, W. Va., December 21, 1887, and they had one son, Floyd Wilson Reynolds. His appointments have been: In the Western Virginia Conference, Green Circuit, 1879; Braxton, 1880; New Martinsville, 1882; Clarksburg, 1886; Guyandotte, 1890. He was transferred to the Missouri Conference and appointed to Montgomery City, 1891; Auxvasse, 1893; Mexico Circuit, 1897; Jonesburg, 1898-1901; Elsberry, 1902; Vandalia, 1906; Warrenton from 1907-1911. From Warrenton to Fayette for one year; Millville one year. He was sent to Jonesburg for the second time and remained there two years. He went to Louisiana in the fall of 1915 and in February following carried his wife to West Virginia on account of her failing health. She died May 12, 1916. He spent the summer of 1916 in Barboursville, W. Va. He returned to Missouri in the fall and was sent to Avondale. He remained at Avondale three years and from there was sent to Wentzville and O'Fallon. He remained at this charge five years and went from there to Warrenton. His health began to fail seriously, and he went to live with his son in New York in November, 1927. Last September, 1929, he suffered a light stroke of paralysis. From that time on he continued to lose strength rapidly, being confined to his room and under the care of a nurse until his death, July 22, 1930. The funeral services were held at the home of his nephew, Dr. E. L. Griffin, at Williamstown, W. Va., and were conducted by Samuel E. Foote, pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Williamstown, who had been a friend for years. He was laid to rest by the side of his wife in the Knights of Pythias cemetery.—J. H. Jackson.

William Henry Utter, son of David and Mary Utter, was born in the State of Illinois on February 1, 1852, and died August 9, 1930, at Plattsburg, Mo. In 1878 Brother Utter was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Rhoades, and to this union eight children were born, all of whom—four sons and four daughters—have preceded him in death, with the exception of one daughter, Mrs. Florence Dykes, of Plattsburg. About seven years ago, while he was pastor at Laddonia, his wife died, and upon his superannuation a few years later he made his home with his daughter and grandchildren in Plattsburg, where he endeared himself to the citizens of the community in which he spent his last days. He is survived by his daughter and eight grandchildren: Dental and Eugene Capps; Ted, Wayne, Vaughan, Ray, and Faye Pickett; and Mrs. Christine Wright. Two great-grandchildren also survive: Thelma Jean Capps and Buddy Pickett. Brother Utter's health continued good almost until the time of his death. The illness which resulted in his death was brief, confining him to his bed but a few days. He was ready to go; and though he loved life, he faced the inevitable with confidence, rejoicing in the saving grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and assured of the crown awaiting him. A month or so before his death, his son-in-law was killed by lightning, and this shock seemed to mark the beginning of the end. The incident appeared to prey upon his mind. The funeral service was conducted by the presiding elder of the Richmond District, G. A. Shadwick, at Broadway Methodist Church, on Monday, August 11. The pastor was absent in a distant State, and therefore could have no part in the service. Brother Utter was admitted on trial into the Missouri Conference which was held at Columbia, September 9-15, 1885, Bishop Granbery presiding. His first charge was Novelty Circuit, which paid that year $225 on a $263 assessment. He remained there for two years, then served, in the order named, the following places: Colony, two years; Rutledge, two years; Brashear, one year; and Queen City, two years. He was admitted into full connection in 1890, and was ordained deacon by Bishop Key. There is no record in the Conference minutes of his ordination as elder, though he has been listed as an elder in the Conference journals since 1891. In 1893 he located and made his home for a number of years in Queen City. From 1909 until 1925 he served the following charges as supply: Winfield, three years; Wright City, two years; Moscow Mills, one year; Winfield again, two years; Defiance, four years; Laddonia, three years; Paris Circuit, one year. In 1925 he was readmitted and given the superannuate relation. His earthly remains lie sleeping in the beautiful Greenlawn Cemetery at Plattsburg, Mo., a plot consecrated with the dust of several other of Methodism's faithful, heroic ministers. —C. L. Stillwell.

LEWIS CAPERS BRANSCOMB, presiding elder of the Bessemer District of the North Alabama Conference, died October 30, 1930, after confinement in a hospital at Jasper, Ala., for treatment of injuries sustained in an automobile accident. Dr. Branscomb was one of the outstanding men of the Methodist Church. Not only had he preached in the largest Churches in his native State, but had served on General Conference committees and commissions requiring ability of the highest type. Since 1922 he had been a member of the Book Committee. He was a delegate to four General Conferences, 1914, 1918, 1922, and the special session of 1924. In 1912 Dr. Branscomb was elected editor of the Alabama Christian Advocate, continuing in that position four years. Dr. Branscomb's ability as a preacher was known and recognized throughout the connection, and the opportunity came to him from time to time to transfer to other Conferences. He preferred preaching to the people of his own State, and during his ministry was pastor at Bessemer, Decatur, Huntsville, Talladega, First Church (Birmingham), and Anniston.

He was presiding elder of the Birmingham District from 1912 to 1916, and his last appointment was the Bessemer District. In addition to his pastoral work he was intensely interested in Christian education, and his services were in constant demand in executive and advisory capacity by both Church and secular institutions of learning. He had been president of the board of trustees of Woman's College, Montgomery; member of the board of trustees of Birmingham-Southern College, and commissioner for the unification of Methodist male institutions of learning in Alabama. Other positions of responsibility that came to Dr. Branscomb were the chairmanship of the North Alabama Conference Commission for the Unification of American Methodism, membership on the executive committee of the Federation of the Churches of Christ in America, membership in the board of directors of the Alabama Methodist Orphanage, membership in the board of directors of the Anti-Saloon League of America, the vice presidency of the Anti-Saloon League of Alabama, and membership in the executive committee of the Alabama Young Men's Christian Association. Dr. Branscomb was born in Union Springs, Ala., August 27, 1865, and was ordained into the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1886. Two of his sons are Methodist ministers: R. E. Branscomb, pastor at Guin, Ala., and Harvie Branscomb, professor at Duke University. Two cousins are also Southern Methodist preachers: Albert L. Branscomb, pastor at Alice, Ala., and John W. Branscomb, pastor at Gulfport, Fla.

JAMES LEON BRITTAIN was born in Blount County, Ala., July 23, 1846. He was the son of Joseph M. and Cary Ann Carnes Brittain, who were very devout Christians, and therefore gave him that type of training in early life that made him a great and useful citizen. He was a student in an academy at Summit, Ala., before the War Between the States, and when war was declared he volunteered in the Confederate Army and was in Company G, Stuart's Battalion, while his father served in Company B, 19th Alabama Regiment. Soon after the close of the war, he attended a school taught by Major Solomon Palmer, and finished his academic education under Professor Freeman, a noted educator at Danville, Ala. In 1869 he entered the Junior Class in the Cumberland University at Lebanon, Tenn., and graduated in 1871 with high honors, being valedictorian of his class of twenty-four. Seven years afterwards he received his Master of Arts degree from the same University and returned home to join his old classmate, Professor M. V. Henry, in establishing a school at the old academy at Summit, Ala., where many boys and girls received their educational training and went out to help build a new and better South. He was married to Miss Novella Gibson in 1872. To this union God gave seven children who were trained as was he, and lived with the stamp of his consecrated life and character upon theirs, and one daughter, Miss Ruth Brittain, has been for many years a missionary in China. Soon after his marriage he entered the ministry, joined the Conference in 1872, and served until 1878, when he was compelled to retire from active service on account of the loss of his sight for three years. After regaining his sight, he taught school for twelve years at Huffman, Ala., and Belview Academy in Birmingham, with Professor M. V. Henry. He was readmitted into the Conference in 1893 and served with distinction some of the most difficult charges as well as some of the leading appointments. He superannuated in 1915. On September 15, 1930, just after the evening shadows had gathered about him, our Lord said to his weary servant, "It's enough, come up higher," and thus closed a useful life of more than 84 years, and his pure and deathless spirit winged its flight away to glory and to God. His last few years on earth were spent in the quiet Ruth Brittain Superannuate Home in the midst of devoted friends at West End, Birmingham, Ala. As the end drew near, his faith grew stronger, his hopes brighter, and his spirit more beautiful. He fought a good fight, he finished his course well, and amidst all the trials and troubles, hardships and sufferings of life he kept the faith, henceforth the crown of righteousness has been pressed down upon his immortal brow by the infinite hand of the eternal, loving Heavenly Father, in whom he lived and moved and had his being, and with whom he shall live forevermore—A. H. Nabors.

BEN HANFORD COX was admitted on trial at Anniston, Ala., in 1929 and was appointed to the Summit Circuit in the Albertville District. He went cheerfully to his work and made a very fine start in his new field. He was untiring in his efforts to serve his people and they were rallying to him very loyally, when it was discovered that one of his children had developed a very serious malady and he was advised to carry him out West. Arrangements had been made for his transfer when other circumstances arose which interfered with his plans and he had to abandon his plans to transfer and on the afternoon of June 17, with a heavy heart, he drove over to Albertville to inform his presiding elder that he could not go West, and had started back home when his car became ignited from some undetermined source and the first he knew of the blaze, his clothing was aflame and he was fatally burned. He was carried to the hospital in Albertville, where it was soon discovered that he could not live long. He asked the attending physician if he would get well, and when told that he could last but a little while, he asked if they thought that he would live until his wife and children could reach him. When told that he had only a few minutes to live he said it was all right, that he was ready to meet his God, and that he had done his best to render faithful service in the charge to which he had been sent. W. R. Battle, J. S. Robertson, and the writer were with him and did all that could be done to comfort him in his last moments. On the afternoon of June 18, W. R. Battle, assisted by J. S. Robertson, W. M. Wade, S. W. Brooks, and Robert H. Jones, conducted the impressive burial service in Boaz and the body of our young comrade was laid to rest in the cemetery in that beautiful little city to await the resurrection morning. Surviving Brother Cox are his wife and two children. To them he leaves a legacy more precious than gold—the memory of a devoted husband and an affectionate father, and a Christian minister in whom was no guile. Brother Cox's first appointment proved to be his last here in the Church militant, but he has only been transferred to the Church triumphant where he can serve Him whom he loved and from whom he shall never more be separated.—Robert H. Jones.

John Chapman Craig was born near Mount Hope, Lawrence County, Ala., in June, 1858. He resided on the farm of his father until twenty-three years old and was in business in Town Creek, Ala., for several years. He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, under the ministry of D. S. McDonald in 1893. He heard the call to preach and, like Paul, the only question in his mind was, "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?" The call was clear and urgent to him and, like Paul, he answered that call. He was licensed in the year of his conversion and entered the old Southern University at Greensboro where he prepared himself from an educational standpoint. He graduated from this institution in 1896, and was admitted to the North Alabama Conference that fall and from that session of the Conference was sent to his first charge, the Millerville Circuit, where he labored two years, 1897-98. While there he met and married Miss Cora Adella Ingram, who proved a worthy helpmeet, earnestly engaging with him in his pastoral work. The next three years he was on the Lanett-Langdale charge, 1899-1901. Then for four years, 1902-05, at Ashland. Then on the Oak Bowery Circuit, 1906-08, and on the Lincoln Circuit, 1909-11. At the session of the Conference that fall he was elected Superintendent of the Methodist Orphanage at Summerfield, Ala. Brother Craig did a great work in the ministry, but none greater than as superintendent of the Orphanage. There, in coöperation with his good wife, hundreds of orphan children were the objects of their untiring love and devoted care, and hundreds of hearts of former occupants of the orphanage were made sad as the news of his departure was flashed over the wires. He not only gave his love and prayers to this splendid work, but also his trained business mind. From a disorganized and poverty-stricken home, struggling for its very existence, he gave to the Church a fine property in Selma, and to the children the many advantages of the present fine location in the city of Selma. He found it weak in every way. His health giving away, compelling him to rest for a while, he left an institution worthy of our great Church doing incalculable good in training children for God and the Church. After leaving the orphanage and resting only a short time, he again went into the itinerancy though he was weak physically. Yet in his heart was the flame of love that impelled him to go out into the active work and continue therein long after has physicians had warned him that it was dangerous for him to do so. He yearned over lost men, and having experienced the saving grace of God he wanted others to come into that same blessed experience. Again taking up the work, he served the Anniston Circuit in the year 1921. He was on the Bluff Park Circuit in 1922 when he gave up the active work and moved to Anniston, Ala. While at Anniston he collected money for the Centenary Movement. But the call was too imperative and back again to active work he went again, feeble in body, strong in faith and love. For the last seven years of his life he served the Church at Eastaboga. He found a weak, struggling church in an old frame building. With all the strength of a man born of God he went to the task given him and at the end of the seventh year, at the session of our Conference held at Anniston in 1929, he took the superannuate relation, leaving a beautiful brick church, erected and paid for by his liberality, aided by the faithful members of that church. This church recently, in loving memory of Brother and Sister Craig, changed the name from Eastaboga to Craig Memorial, a worthy tribute to a worthy pair. Not long did he linger after retiring from active labor, for on December 24, 1929, in his lovely home at Anniston, he quietly went to rest. The poor, frail body rests in the cemetery at Anniston, waiting the coming of Him he loved so well and served so faithfully. Brother Craig left a splendid monument in the church he built at Eastaboga, but splendid as that church is, more beautiful are the memories he has left in the hearts and lives of many. He leaves to mourn his going away, a devoted companion of the years, an adopted daughter at home, and several adopted daughters out in homes of their own.—J. C. Francis.

Edward Fulmer, son of Rev. J. W. and Rachel Cotton Fulmer, was born near Newnan, Coweta County, Ga., October 2, 1863, and at the age of four moved with his parents to Coosa County, Ala. He attended the Hanover Elementary School and the Rockford High School. He was converted and called to preach when he was about sixteen years old. He was married to Miss Carrie Matthews on July 15, 1883. To this union one child was born, which died in infancy. Brother Fulmer united with the Methodist Church in the spring of 1884, and on May 31, the same year, was licensed to preach with V. O. Hawkins, presiding elder, and J. L. Ferguson, pastor. In the fall of 1884 he was admitted on trial into the North Alabama Conference held at Talladega, and was admitted into full connection and ordained deacon by Bishop Hendrix at Florence in 1886. He was ordained elder by Bishop Hargrove at the Conference in Anniston in 1888. He served the following charges: Fort Deposit Circuit, 1885; Flint Hill Circuit, 1886-87; Danville Circuit, 1888; Trinity Station, 1889-92; Madison Station, 1893-94; Scottsboro-Stevenson, 1895-97; Sulligent Circuit, 1898; Fayette Station, 1899; Montevallo Station, 1900; Warrior Station, 1901; Oak Bowery Circuit, 1902; Jasper District, 1903-06; Sheffield Station, 1907; LaFayette Station, 1908-09; Trinity Station, Birmingham, 1910; Piedmont Station, 1911; Oxford Station, 1912; supernumerary, 1913-14; Millport, 1915; Courtland, 1916-17; Oak Bowery Circuit, 1918; Vernon Station, 1919; Blountville Circuit, 1920; Whiton Circuit, 1921; Waterloo Circuit, 1922-23; Cloverdale Circuit, 1924; Vinemont Circuit, until August 19, 1925, when he had his first paralytic stroke. At the Conference held in Huntsville in 1925 he was granted the superannuate relation. Brother Fulmer was a student, and during the early years of his ministry studied and mastered most of the courses of study offered by the colleges. He availed himself of every opportunity to study the subjects that would tend to educate him in the Holy Scriptures. While he was pastor at Madison he took two years of intensive work in the Hebrew language under a learned Rabbi, who was pastor of the Synagogue in Huntsville. Our kind Heavenly Father called him home July 21, 1930, and his funeral was conducted by his pastor, S. O. Kimbrough, in the First Methodist Church at Woodlawn, assisted by W. E. Faust, J. E. Morris, J. W. Norton, W. E. Morris, and Boyd T. Cantrell. His body rests in the beautiful Woodlawn Cemetery.—Boyd T. Cantrell.

Henry Sanford Matthews was born in Tallapoosa County, Ala., October 15, 1858. He was the son of a Methodist preacher. At the age of sixteen he joined the Methodist Church and at the age of nineteen he was licensed to preach. Brother Matthews was admitted on trial into the North Alabama Conference at Huntsville in 1881, and into full connection at Birmingham in 1883. He was ordained deacon at Birmingham in 1883 by Bishop McTyeire, and an elder at Gadsden in 1885 by Bishop Wilson. He served the following appointments: 1882, Weogufka Circuit; 1883, Coketon Circuit; 1884-86, Blountville Circuit; 1887, Murphree's Valley Circuit; 1888-89, Daviston Circuit; 1890-91, Goodwater Circuit; 1892-93, Pinckneyville Circuit; 1894-95, Hackneyville Circuit; 1896-99, Munford Circuit; 1900, White Plains Circuit; 1901, Piedmont-Spring Garden; 1902, Piedmont Circuit; 1903-05, supernumerary; 1906-07, superannuate; 1908-11, Wedowee Circuit; 1912-13, Five Points Circuit; 1914-15, Langdale Circuit; 1916-17, Hackleburg Station; 1918-20, Red Bay Station; 1921, Waterloo Circuit. At the Conference session of 1921 he was placed on the superannuate list and remained there until his death. Brother Matthews was twice married. His first wife was Miss Etta Sasser. His second wife was Miss Effie McKibbon, of Talladega, who survives him. The following children survive him: R. H. Matthews, Mrs. J. M. Grady, Mrs. J. H. Kerr, Mrs. C. S. McCord, T. B. Matthews, E. B. Matthews, Mrs. L. T. Wells, Miss Frances Matthews, Charles D. Matthews, and Mrs. G. H. Knight. It is said that there are in the North Alabama Conference nineteen young preachers converted under his ministry. He lovingly referred to them as "his boys." At the time of his death he was teacher of the Men's Bible Class in the Roanoke First Church. Brother Matthews was a man of business ability. With very small salaries he reared and educated a very large family and also saved a little for the "rainy day." Brother Matthews was a man of intellectual ability. He kept abreast with the thought of his day. He knew and loved the doctrines of his Church. Brother Matthews had a keen sense of humor. He was always ready to smile. Even in the midst of pain (and he was a great sufferer) he was ever ready with a jest. His nature and his religion led him to believe that the "best is yet to come." I have often heard the beautiful song "Sunrise," but I think I never heard it sung more appropriately than when Mrs. Frank Hornsby sang it at the funeral of Brother Matthews, which was held at the First Church, Roanoke, September 1, 1930. Many comforting things were said, but they may all be summed up in one sentence, "He was a good man."—T. L. McDonald.

HAMILTON BLOUNT RALLS was born near Leesburg, Cherokee County, Ala., July 20, 1851. He was the oldest son of Dr. John Hector and Mary Agnes Hamilton Ralls. They were both cultured and Christian. This insured to him a wholesome and healthy religious environment. He early developed an inquisitive and critical mind. When he had fully availed himself of the best educational advantages within his reach locally, he went to Georgia and made his home with his uncle, who was a devout Baptist, and while there, in 1871, was converted and joined the Missionary Baptist Church. After completing his educational course there, in early young manhood, he went to Texas, and sought admission into Baylor University, where he was privileged to sit at the feet of some of the great masters of that day. In his diary he says, "I would probably have remained in this church, had not God called me to preach. In the study of theology, I came to the conclusion that I could not preach election and unconditional reprobation." He reached this conclusion when he was studying systematic theology in the Baptist Seminary at Louisville, Ky., in the spring of 1887. Under the advice of Dr. John A. Broadus, president of the institution, he took an honorable withdrawal, came at once to Gadsden, Ala., joined the Methodist Church, and was recommended by the Fourth Quarterly Conference for admission into the traveling connection of the North Alabama Conference, which met in Tuscaloosa, Ala., November 16, 1887, Bishop Keener presiding and John A. Thompson, secretary. In 1892, in order that he might discharge some financial obligations which had accumulated, by reason of his large family and small salaries, and which he felt would necessarily hinder him and embarrass his Church, Brother Ralls was located at his own request. His appointments were mostly hard to serve and the salaries small and inadequate to the needs of his large family. For the first five years of his active ministry his total assessed salary was $1,797 and paid for the five years $1,206. During these same five years he received eighty-four on profession of faith and baptized seventy-four infants. It was at the end of this period that, broken in health and burdened with debts, he located. At the end of two years, one of which he served as supply, with obligations satisfactorily adjusted and somewhat rested and repaired physically, he knocked for readmission, and obtained it without objection in 1894. He was thrice married: first to Miss Alice Gray Williams, of Coryelle County, Tex., November 17, 1875. To this union two children were born, Dr. Arthur Ralls and Agnes Harriet Ralls. Mrs. Alice Gray Ralls died September 21, 1883, in Texas. Agnes Harriet Ralls died July 29, 1884, at the home of her grandfather, Dr. John H. Ralls, at Gadsden. His second wife was Miss Emma Williams, of St. Clair County, Ala. The ceremony was performed by James Montgomery. There were ten children born to this union. All survive save Frances, the oldest daughter, who died July 1, 1905. Mrs. Emma Ralls was a most devoted wife and affectionate mother. She entered most heartily with her husband into the work of the Church, and shared without a word of complaint the crosses, hardships, and denials incident to the life of the itinerant ministry on the hard country charges. She entered into her reward March 23, 1908. Brother Ralls married Miss Emma Gore, of Jacksonville, Ala., June 19, 1912, Rev. J. W. Norton officiating. She meant much to him, in brightening the last years of his life, and lives to mourn his passing. He was a Royal Arch Mason, exalted in 1906, at Collinsville, Ala. He was a man of great faith in God and of unquestioned love for his Church. He read the freshest books from our Publishing House and kept in sympathetic touch with all the movements of Methodism. He preached with the unction of the Holy Ghost. Never a year passed that he did not have the salvation of souls as a seal to his ministry. In the autumn of 1929 he received a serious injury from a fall, from which he never recovered. He was removed from his home in Piedmont to the Ralls Hospital in Gadsden, Ala., owned and operated by his son, Dr. Arthur Ralls. Here he received every attention that loving hearts and skillful hands could give, but despite all devotion and earnest endeavor he grew gradually worse and died on January 30, 1930.—

—J. S. Robertson.

James W. Spencer, son of Alfred E. and Mary McAdory Spencer, was born at Jonesboro, Ala., July 12, 1854. He was reared on his father's farm, and was educated in the public schools of that region. He later lived for some time in Atlanta, Ga., and while there took a business course in one of the commercial colleges. On November 26, 1875, he was married to Miss Lou Morris, sister of the late lamented Rev. Joseph T. Morris, who was the father of our brethren W. E. and J. E. Morris. The ceremony was performed by T. P. Roberts, the father of T. K. Roberts, whom we all know and love as "Brother Tom." Brother and Sister Spencer lived happily together until his translation to the world on high. To them were born eleven children, of whom four sons have died. In addition to the faithful widow, seven children live to mourn their departed father: P. H. Spencer, L. J. Spencer, J. A. Spencer, Miss Mary Spencer, Mrs. E. L. Richter, Clifford M. Spencer, and Prof. W. H. Spencer. Brother Spencer was converted in 1879 and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Old Pleasant Hill, near Bessemer, under the ministry of Evans Nicholson. In November, 1880, he was admitted on trial into the North Alabama Conference at its session held at Oxford, Ala. Two years later at LaFayette he was admitted into full connection and ordained a deacon by Bishop Keener. He completed his four-years' course of study and was ordained elder by Bishop Wilson at Gadsden, Ala., in 1885. His appointments were as follows: 1880-81, New Castle; 1882, Bristow's Cove Circuit; 1883, Wilsonville Circuit. At the session of the Conference in 1883 he was located at his own request and the following year, 1884, he was readmitted, and served as follows: 1885, Blocton Mission; 1886, Abernathy Circuit; 1887-90, Alexandria Circuit; 1891-94; Talladega Circuit; 1885, Roanoke Circuit; 1896-99, Goodwater Circuit; 1900-01, Munford Circuit; 1902-03, Village Springs Circuit; 1904, Gadsden Circuit; 1905-06, Ashville Circuit; 1907, Coal City-Ragland; 1908, Leeds Circuit. Thus for twenty-eight years he served in the itinerant ranks, laboring in the hardest places under pioneer conditions. Worn out with toil and broken with ill health, he was granted the superannuate relation at the Conference of 1908. From then until his death, July 13, 1930, he lived the quiet, beautiful life of a holy man of God, still deeply concerned for and vitally interested in all the work of the Kingdom of God. He was one of eleven who in 1880, with great faith and high enthusiasm, began the heroic life of a Methodist itinerant. His death leaves one sole survivor in his class, Joe I. Williams, loved and revered by us all.

Ques. 13. Who are transferred to other Conferences? Oscar Anglin and Harold Nance, to the St. Louis Conference; W. T. M. Jones, to the Memphis Conference; Edgar R. Shuller, to the North Carolina Conference; J. E. Snell, to the Oklahoma Conference. 5.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? O. H. Tucker, T. J. Justice, D. L. Yates. 3.

O. H. TUCKER was born in Ohio, October 6, 1850. In infancy he moved with his parents to North Missouri, where he grew to manhood and where he was educated and trained for his life work. At the age of twenty-five he was married and came to Arkansas with his bride. He leaves four children, Mrs. J. H. Cummings, Ernest, Justin, and Clarence, all of whom attended the funeral from Central Methodist Church, Fayetteville, Ark. For forty years they shared together the hardships of an itinerant Methodist preacher's life. His wife preceded him to the heavenly home by eleven years. When he was on death's bed he said of her: "She was everything to me. For forty years we walked together. She will be waiting for me." Brother Tucker was a natural-born teacher. He was, after coming to Arkansas, a teacher in the public schools at Atkins. His scholarship and initiative in educational matters attracted attention, and he was appointed Superintendent of Public Instruction. Later he was called to the presidency of Quitman College, then the leading educational institution of the Southern Methodist Church in Arkansas. For seven years he rendered distinguished service in this position. In 1883 he was admitted into full connection in the Arkansas Conference at Clarksville. He gave thirty-three years of active service, four years as presiding elder of the Harrison District, and the remaining years as pastor and college president. He was a Scriptural and logical preacher. For fifteen years as a superannuate he missed only one Conference, the last one before his death, which occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John R. Cumming, at Byers, Tex., February 11, 1930. For years he was Honor Roll Secretary for his Conference. He took delight in his work, and it will remain as a wonderful monument to his tedious toil and amazing accuracy. His kindly face, his genial smile, and his heavenly benediction will be missed when Conference meets. —H. Lynn Wade.

Thomas Jefferson Justice was born into the North Carolina home of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Justice on April 2, 1881. Converted as a young man, his eighteen years of teaching in Texas brought not only development to the minds of the youth, but their hearts as well were filled with principles of valor and virtue. His marriage to Miss Ollie Hawkins, August 5, 1908, was blessed with five capable, earnest-hearted children, Glenn, Bernice, Clovis, Laverne, and Grady, who share their father's spirit of devotion and self-sacrifice. With the same willingness to serve which had characterized his entire life he responded to the call to preach in 1917 and was admitted on trial into the Central Texas Conference. His work at Cruz and Poe's Chapel was done earnestly and thoroughly. The four-years course of study, completed in 1921, entitled him to ordination. After two years each at Wingate Circuit and Rockwood he asked to be transferred to the North Arkansas Conference and his perseverance and thoroughness brought into the Church at Calico Rock, his first charge, fifty-two members and $1,800 on local indebtedness. At Gravette and Centerton, where he served the last three years, he proved himself most loyal to the program of the Church and untiring in his efforts. His noble bearing and geniality bespoke the Christly spirit within. Ever forgetful of self, he brushed aside unpleasant experiences with a pleasing smile and a readiness to forget. He knew, loved, and sympathized with people who, though mourning his sudden and untimely death on September 6, 1930, yet rejoiced that they had known him and felt the power of his godly life.—F. M. Tolleson.

Dillard Lesenby Yates, son of George and Laura Yates, was born near Water Valley, Ky., November 15, 1898, and died in the U. S. Veterans' Hospital, Outwood, Ky., October 12, 1930. He was the seventh of a family of eight children. At the early age of twelve he professed faith in Christ and at once united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Bethlehem, on the Water Valley Circuit. Later his family moved to Sedalia, Ky., where he grew to manhood. Brother Yates answered the call of his country for service in the World War in the early part of 1918, when the war clouds were the darkest. He was in France about ten months, being in three major battles. In the last battle of the war he was gassed and shellshocked. Although he lived for several years, he never fully recovered from the effects of war. His passing at such an early age is just another reminder of the tragedy of war. In 1920 Brother Yates answered the call of God and dedicated himself to the Christian ministry, being licensed to preach by the Paducah District Conference, at Lone Oak, Ky., in July, 1920. He was educated at Asbury College and Emory University. In November of 1923 he was admitted on trial into the North Arkansas Conference at Walnut Ridge. He served the following charges: Magazine, Yellville, and Alma. His health failed in the second year of his Alma pastorate. The past three and a half years were spent in hospitals, where he made a brave fight for health and life. Brother Yates was married in 1924 to Miss Helen White, of Magazine, Ark., who faithfully served the Church by his side to the last and now mourns the departure of a true and devoted husband. A father, four sisters, and three brothers also survive him. On Sunday afternoon, October 12, his spirit took its flight. The following Wednesday his body was interred in Kentucky's soil by the side of his mother. The funeral was conducted from the little church where he was converted, the writer, assisted by M. C. Yates, W. D. Dunn, and Boyd Norman, having charge. —J. Noble Wilford.

ROBERT WILLIAM BAILEY.—"The circle in the sky" was widened on September 14, 1930, when Robert William Bailey was called to become a guest of God. He was the son of John Price and Helen (Palmer) Bailey, and was born August 11, 1859, in Wake County, N. C. His father was wounded in the Civil War, and died from his wounds. His mother, frail in body, but brave and strong in spirit, educated her own and her neighbors' children. Her deep religious faith and her Christian life made a deep and lasting impression on many, including her own children. Robert William Bailey was converted and joined the Church early in life. As a boy he was so settled and quiet that the neighbors and his brother called him "Old Man." His college education was at Trinity College, now Duke University. He was married to Miss Frances M. Cuninggim, August 2, 1888, at Chapel Hill. Three children were born to this union: Robert Cuninggim, who died at the age of 22; Palmer E., and Jesse Lee. Brother Bailey was admitted on trial into the Conference at New Bern at the 1888 session, and was appointed to Clayton Circuit. In the latter part of that year he had a severe attack of typhoid fever, which left his throat in such condition that his doctors advised him to stop preaching. He then located for six years. At the Conference in Durham in 1894 he was again admitted on trial and sent to West Durham, where he served four years. His other appointments were: Southport, 1898-1900; Haw River Circuit, 1901-04; Siler City, 1905; Sanford, 1906-08; Louisburg, 1909-11; Warren Circuit, 1912-15; Garysburg Circuit, 1916-18; Roanoke Circuit, 1919. He was superannuated because of continued ill health in 1920, and from then until his death lived at Raleigh, where he did not sever himself from the work of the Church he loved so well, and, becoming affiliated with the Edenton Street Church and Sunday school, he was chosen teacher of the Norman Bible Class. On July 19, 1930, he was stricken with his last illness, and when God called him he passed from earth.—E. H. Cranmer.

NERUES E. COLTRANE, honored minister of God and faithful itinerant in the North Carolina Conference for a long term of years, died at his residence in Greensboro, N. C., June 2, 1930. Though the call at the last was sudden, yet his death was not altogether unexpected as his health had been impaired by an attack of influenza in the early spring. However, as his custom was, he was at the morning service at West Market Street Church the day preceding his death. There was no warning to his family or, as far as is known, to himself until half an hour before the call came. Brother Coltrane was the son of Jesse Franklin and Abigail Gardner Coltrane and was born in Randolph County, N. C., February 24, 1850. Following up the good start he had in the fine old home of his sturdy parents, Brother Coltrane availed himself of the best his section had to offer at the time in the way of education in its public schools. Brother Coltrane entered Trinity College, then under the presidency of Braxton Craven, in 1872, and was graduated therefrom in 1876. In class with him and graduating at same time was also his own brother, S. G. Coltrane, still living beneath the family rooftree. Leaving college with his A.B. degree, which afterwards became A.M., he taught for a while at Hillsville, Va., and then went West, where for a year he was president of Marvin College at Oskaloosa, Kans. Returning from the West after his short stay, he joined the North Carolina Conference at its session in Salisbury in 1877, taking work therein at that time and continuing without a break for forty-six years, until his superannuation in 1923. Following is a list of the charges he served: Wilkesboro, 1878-79; Mount Airy, 1880-81; Ruffin, 1882-85; Oxford, 1886-88; Pittsboro, 1889-92; Snow Hill, 1893; Mount Tirzah, 1894-95; Carr Church, 1896; Roxboro, 1897-1900; Rocky Mount, 1901; Kinston, 1902; Smithfield, 1903-05; Franklinton, 1906-09; Gibson, 1910-11; Mount Gilead, 1912-15; Carthage, 1916-19; Scotland Neck, 1920-21; Webb Avenue, Burlington, 1922-23. Such is the record of his life's work so far as dates, figures, and names can supply such record. Brother Coltrane was happy in his married life. On December 20, 1877, he was married to Miss Ida Mae Gannaway, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. W. T. Gannaway. She still lives at Greensboro, N. C. To them were born the following children who survive: Prof. W. G. Coltrane, Dr. J. F. Coltrane, Mrs. R. A. Merritt, and Mrs. W. Kirkwood Gibson. A daughter, Mrs. D. G. Ridenhour, died in 1919 and a son, Dr. Wallace E. Coltrane, died in 1928.—E. H. Davis.

ELI FRANKLIN LEE was the son of Arthur and Elizabeth Lee. He was born at Newton Grove, Sampson County, N. C., March 28, 1879. To the training received at the home school was added the special training of Turlington Institute at Smithfield, where he was prepared for entrance to college. In September, 1900, Brother Lee entered Trinity College where he remained two years. The next year he was superintendent of East Durham graded school and came back to college to graduate with the class of 1905. The years 1905-06 he was superintendent of schools at Plymouth, N. C. With a desire to better fit himself for his life's work, he entered Union Seminary and Columbia University. After two years he received the degree of Master of Arts from Columbia and the next year the degree of Bachelor of Divinity from Union Seminary. After his graduation from the seminary he accepted the position of assistant pastor of the Arlington Avenue Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, where he remained two years. His next pastorate was St. Albans, Long Island, 1902-12. Then he came back to North Carolina and was pastor at Buffalo Presbyterian Church at Greensboro from 1913-23. From this long and successful pastorate he joined the North Carolina Conference and was stationed at Beaufort, 1924-25; Kinston, 1926; Fayetteville, 1927-28; and from there he came to Calvary, Durham. His service here was short but acceptable. While bringing in a bucket of coal for the evening he was mortally wounded by some unknown assassin. He was taken immediately to the hospital where everything possible was done for him; but he died January 7, 1930. A great number of his friends gathered at Duke Memorial Church for the funeral. Brother Lee was a good preacher, a kindly spirited man, and a successful man. His stay among us seems all too short, but he wrought well and was considered among us as one of our good preachers. His widow, who was Miss Elsie Barbee, and daughter Lois survive him.—J. C. Wooten.

ALPHESUS MCCULLEN was born in Kinston, N. C., April 26, 1859, and passed away to his eternal inheritance in the house of many mansions from his home in Rockingham, N. C., November 6, 1929. He was the son of Bryan and Arcena McCullen. On November 26, 1879, he was married to Miss L. Addison Cuninggim by the Rev. Fred D. Swindell, and they lacked only twenty days of having lived together fifty years. Surviving him are his widow and four children, Jesse McCullen, Alphesus McCullen, Jr., Mrs. J. B. LeGwyn, and Mrs. John W. Covington. He was licensed to exhort October 24, 1879, and was licensed to preach May 17, 1880, by William Closs, presiding elder. At the request of Dr. Closs, he supplied the Wilson Circuit in 1882, and concluded the last service Dr. Closs ever held, the Doctor having been taken suddenly ill. He was received on trial into the North Carolina Conference at its session held in Raleigh in 1882, with Bishop Keener presiding. He was ordained a deacon by Bishop Parker at Wilmington in 1884, and ordained an elder by Bishop Granbery at Reidsville in 1886. He served the following appointments in the Conference: Craven Circuit, 1883-84; La Grange Circuit, 1885; Louisburg. 1886-88; Reidsville, 1889. At the close of that year he was transferred to the Missouri Conference and stationed at Park Church, Hannibal. He served that Church until September, 1890, when he returned to North Carolina and met with his old Conference at its first session after the division. His next appointment was the Warrenton Circuit, where he served in 1891-94; Carthage Circuit, 1895-96; Henderson, 1897-99; Oxford, 1900-03; Fifth Street, Wilmington, 1904-06; Washington District, 1907-10; Rockingham District, 1911-14; Trinity Church, Durham, 1915-16. While pastor at Henderson in 1898, he became Chaplain of the old Third North Carolina Regiment, and while serving as pastor at Trinity Church, Durham, in 1916, his regiment was ordered to the Mexican border, and he resigned his pastorate and went with his boys. His son, Lawrence, joined a company in this regiment, and insisted on accompanying his father to the Mexican border. When war was declared with Germany, the regiment was brought to Camp Sevier at Greenville, S. C., and soon thereafter it was sent overseas to France, and he was left behind because of his physical condition. It was the one regret of his life, but he bowed in humble resignation. His son went to France, became a lieutenant, and was killed in action. Neither Major nor Mrs. McCullen desired that the remains be brought back home, but wanted his body to sleep where he had fought and died—literally in Flanders Field. When he was not permitted to go overseas, he was left at Camp Sevier, in charge of the "Casually Battalion" and school for illiterates. The loss of his son, William Lawrence, was a terrible blow to his already overburdened father heart. The exposure and the responsibility of the hundreds of men left under his charge were a heavy tax on his sympathy and physical strength. At the close of the war, he was sent to Asheville and was a patient at Kenilworth Hospital until August 15, 1919, when he was pronounced totally and permanently disabled, and was discharged September 2, 1919. He then returned to Rockingham, where he spent his last days in his own beautiful little bungalow. The funeral service was held in the Methodist Church at Rockingham, after which his body was tenderly laid beneath an avalanche of flowers in the cemetery at Rockingham. The service was conducted by the presiding elder, H. C. Smith, C. M. Hawkins, C. L. Reid, and the writer.—John H. Shore.

ELI CALEB SELL, the son of John P. and Julia Crowell Sell, was born in Stanly County. N. C., June 26, 1861, and died in Wilmington, N. C., October 13, 1930. He attended the Albemarle Academy, the Waynesville High School, and the preparatory department of Trinity College. He entered the Conference on trial at Newbern in 1888, and continued a member of it forty-one years. On December 21, 1892, he was married to Miss Annie R. Allen, daughter of the late Col. and Mrs. D. C. Allen of Columbus County. Brother Sell served the following charges in the order named: China Grove, Fayetteville Mission, Market Street (Wilmington), Williamston and Hamilton, Siler City, Dunn, Roseboro, Scotts Hill, Roberdel, Troy, Cumberland, Snow Hill, Bethel, Swan Quarter, Nashville, Trinity (Wilmington), Maysville, Epworth (Wilmington), Roxboro Circuit, Hallsboro, Goldston, Stedman, Maysville, and Town Creek. At the Kinston Conference in 1929 he took the superannuate relation and lived quietly with his family in Wilmington until his death. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Annie R. Sell; four sons, Allen M., Emil, I. E., and Marvin M. Sell; three daughters, Katharine and Lora Sell and Mrs. J. C. Hardwick; a sister, Mrs. Mary Morris; and a brother, T. J. Sell. Among the prominent traits in the character of E. C. Sell were gentleness, sincerity, and truthfulness. He was a Christian gentleman, possessed of a fine native grace which made him at home among the great of the community as well as the humble. He had many friends among all classes of people, and it was good to hear them greet him as he went upon the street. With modesty and rare self-control he moved in quiet dignity through the years. Brother Sell was a student with a poetical cast of mind, observing great care in preparing his sermons and delivering them with force.—Harry M. North.

EUGENE MALCOLM SNIPES, the son of Alvis and Mary Snipes, was born in Chatham County, N. C., November 30, 1868. He was educated at the University of North Carolina, receiving his A.B. degree at that institution in 1894. Following his graduation from the university, he taught for three years at Bennettville, S. C., and Charlotte, N. C. Having definitely decided to enter the ministry, he entered Vanderbilt University in 1897, studying there for three years. He was admitted into the North Carolina Conference at its session held in Fayetteville in 1901. During his ministry he served the following appointments: Dunn, 1902-05; Burlington, 1906-09; Roxboro Circuit, 1910-13; Washington, 1914-17; Weldon District, 1918-21; Oxford, 1922-25; Mount Olive, 1926-29. On February 15, 1906, he was married to Miss Daisy Randle in Durham, Dr. J. T. Gibbs officiating. His health failed in the spring of 1929, and he preached his last sermon on the fourth Sunday in May of that year. From that time to his death he was the greater portion of the time confined to his bed, being a patient in Watts Hospital for about five months. He bore his suffering like a good soldier. There was no complaint, but only patience lifted up by love and hope. He died November 16, 1930. Funeral services were conducted at Duke Memorial Church, Durham, N. C., by W. A. Stanbury, pastor of that Church, assisted by L. C. Larkin, J. A. Russell, and S. B. Turrentine. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Daisy Randle Snipes, one brother, W. S. Snipes, and one sister, Mrs. W. S. Womble. To his brethren of the Conference Eugene Snipes was a true and loyal brother and colaborer. To his wife he was a devoted and tender husband. To the people of his pastorates he was a faithful, helpful, and Christlike shepherd. To all he was a noble and gracious Christian gentleman. To God he endeavored to be, and better by far than most of us—succeeded in being, a trustful and obedient child. He was a good minister of Jesus Christ.—W. A. Stanbury.

WILLIAM WASHINGTON BRINSFIELD was born at Pinson Station, Floyd County, Ga., August 14, 1848, the son of George Lindsey and Mary Martin Brinsfield. Born of godly parents, he was privileged with the heritage of a Christian home. His early training, both by precept and example, pointed his young feet toward the kingdom. Reared on a farm, his first educational opportunities were limited to the rural schools of that distant day. Feeling the need of better training for his expected life work of the ministry, he entered Vanderbilt University at Nashville, Tenn. Later he matriculated at Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn. At this latter institution he was a roommate of Walter R. Lambuth, later bishop. The warm friendship then begun continued through the after years. Thrown largely upon his own resources, he knew the double tax of self-support and the prosecution of his studies. This appreciation of mental culture and this recognition of the need of intellectual training for his high calling continued with him through the years. He was always studious. His library claimed a generous share of his income—sometimes meager—and to these carefully chosen volumes he faithfully gave himself in study and meditation. In 1873 he was married to Miss Mattie Mitchell, and he had reason to bless the day in which their paths became one. For fifty years she brightened his pathway and then, a few months after their golden wedding was celebrated, went forward to await him on the other side. "Children are a heritage of the Lord," the Scriptures declare. Nine times their home grew richer as another life took its place around their fireside. One of them, J. W. Brinsfield, became his Conference comrade and still walks the way his father trod. The others have taken their places in the Church so dear to him. His license dates back to 1866, when he was eighteen years of age. He was thus formally commissioned at Rush Chapel, Floyd County, Ga. In 1872 he was admitted on trial into the Tennessee Conference and into full connection in 1874. In 1873 he was ordained deacon and two years later was ordained elder. His appointments in the Tennessee Conference ran thus: Nashville City Mission, 1873-74; Nashville Circuit, 1875-76; Sawrie's Chapel and City Mission, 1877-78; Montgomery Circuit, 1879; Port Royal Circuit, 1880-82; New Providence and Bethel, 1883. Because of ill health he took the supernumerary relation in the fall of 1883 and sustained that relation for one year, transferring to the North Georgia Conference in the fall of 1884, where his Conference history continues: Dallas, 1885; Rockmart, 1886-87; Austell, 1888-89; Grantville, 1890-92; McDonough, 1893; St. Paul, Atlanta, 1894-95; Barnesville, 1896; Payne Memorial, 1897-98; Toccoa, 1899-1901; English Avenue and Jefferson Street, 1902-03; Atlanta City Mission, 1904; Broad River, 1905; Maysville, 1906-07; English Avenue and Jefferson Street, 1908-11; superannuated, 1912-13; St. James, Atlanta, 1914-16; superannuated, 1917-21; Agent for Superannuate Homes, 1922-29 and the beginning of 1930. Thus he was starting his fifty-eighth year in the itinerancy, forty-nine of which were effective. That his health was never robust is indicated by the fact that he once took the supernumerary relation and twice the superannuate relation. He returned each time, however, to the active ranks and was on the effective list at the time of his death. But his frailty of body was not allowed to prevent his pastoral diligence. In spite of weakness, he carried forward a vigorous ministry. When he was more than seventy years of age, he was called from the retired ranks to undertake the task and to enter into the privilege of providing homes for unhoused superannuates. To this work he gave nine years. During this period he secured to the Church twenty homes with an approximate valuation of $100,000. He lived and labored until, on January 24, 1930, he entered into that life which ever grows fuller and sweeter as the centuries eternally mount.—A. M. Pierce.

JOHN RHODES SPECK was born in Springfield, Va., October 20, 1853. His father was Barnhardt Speck, and his mother was Lydia Rhodes Speck. When twelve years of age he was converted and consecrated himself to Christ and the Church. He came to Emory College in 1880 with a hungry mind and a commendable ambition for life equipment. By indefatigable industry and perseverance he worked his way through and graduated from Emory in 1884. Two days before he was graduated from Emory, June 5, 1884, he was married to Miss Carrie Belle Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Evans of Woodstock, Ga. Seven children blessed this union, five of whom are yet alive. Henry Martin died at the age of two and John Phillip died in 1925. Those living are Mrs. O. H. Williams, Howard Haygood, Mrs. E. C. Andrews, Mrs. O. S. Ragsdale, and Frank Speck. Brother Speck was licensed to preach in May, 1884, and admitted on trial into the North Georgia Conference in the fall of 1884. He was ordained deacon in 1886 and elder in 1888. He was superannuated in the fall of 1903, but continued to teach, preach, visit the sick, stand by the pastor, and to fight the good fight of faith and lay hold on eternal life. On February 1, 1930, he passed from earth to heaven to "an inheritance incorruptible, undefiled, and that fadeth not away." His Conference appointments were as follows: Hickory Flat, 1884; Plainville (supply), 1887; Spring Place, 1888-89; Ringgold. 1890; Cassandra, 1891; Dalton, Hamilton Street, 1892; Carnesville, 1893-94; Jefferson, 1895-96; Harlem, 1897; Maysville, 1898; Asbury (Atlanta), 1899-1900; Winder, 1901-02. He retired in the fall of 1903. He was a good minister of Jesus Christ.—W. T. Hamby.

JOSEPH ASTOR SHARP was one of God's four-souled men, having rendered distinguished service in his native State as a preacher, a teacher, an educational administrator, and as a public-spirited citizen. The work of Dr. Sharp as a teacher marked him as one of the notable school men of the State over a period of twenty-five or more years; notable not so much for the process of instruction in the classroom, but more especially for those vital, spiritual, germinal, and infinitely more precious qualities of personality and inspiration that have marked the great teachers of history. His teaching was not so much "rule of thumb" pedagogy, as it was sharing with his ardent pupils the rich treasures of mind and heart he had garnered from literary contacts with the great dead and from personal associations with the great living. Because he combined these qualities with a godly life, a sacrificial service, and a fruitful ministry, I venture to call him the Thomas Arnold of our day. As a generation of England's best looked back to Arnold of Rugby, so a generation of maturing Georgia men and women look back to Sharp of Young Harris. As a preacher, Dr. Sharp was wholesome, winsome, and moving. He had a springiness in his mind that kept him in touch with his times, an optimism of spirit that kept close to young and old, an ethical vigor that put granite in his sermons, a magnetic heart that made him a master of an audience and an ardent devotion to Christ that made his ministry fruitful. Robust conviction, rugged sincerity, manly directness, native eloquence, and honest toil made his messages sparkle with originality, flash with the radiance of the Spirit, and burn with the fervor of a soul aflame. Both in his preaching and teaching there was a singing quality, a dash, an ardor, and a spiritual glamour that made him irresistible to boys and girls. Dr. Sharp was licensed to preach in November, 1894. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Wilson in November, 1896, and elder by Bishop Galloway in 1901. He was admitted on trial into the North Georgia Conference in 1894, and admitted into full connection in 1896. His appointments were: Fairmount and Shiloh, and President of Fairmount High School, 1895; President of Fairmount High School from 1896 through the spring term of 1899; President of Young Harris College, fall term of 1899 to 1916; Wesley Memorial Church, Atlanta, 1917-1919; Head Master of Emory University Academy from the fall of 1919 to the spring term of 1922; President of Young Harris College, fall term of 1922 until his death, March 27, 1930. He was a delegate to the General Conferences of 1914, 1918, 1922, 1924 (special session), and 1926. He died at Wesley Memorial Hospital, Atlanta, March 27, 1930, and was buried at Young Harris, Ga., March 30, 1930.

William Thomas Bell was born in Oglethorpe County, Ga., March 8, 1852. He was reared in a Christian home and amidst religious environment. At an early age he surrendered his life to the Lord, was converted, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. While a young man he felt called of God to preach and was licensed in 1876. At Augusta, Ga., in December of 1879, he was admitted on trial into the North Georgia Conference, Bishop Keener presiding. In December, 1881, at the Conference held at Athens, Ga., he was admitted into full connection and was ordained deacon by Bishop McTyeire. At the Conference held at Dalton, Ga., in December, 1883, he was ordained elder by Bishop Pierce. He served the following charges: Jasper, 1880; Cherokee, 1881-82; Alpharetta, 1883-85; Chipley, 1886-88; Hogansville, 1889-91; St. Paul, Atlanta, 1892-93; Jackson, 1894; Thomaston, 1895; Kingston, 1896; St. Luke, Atlanta, 1897; Palmetto and Fairburn, 1898-99; Bolton, 1900; Harmony Grove (now Commerce), 1901; Harlem, 1902-04; Newborn, 1905-06; Stone Mountain, 1907; Battle Hill and West Side, 1908-10; Culloden and Yatesville, 1911-12; Hephzibah, 1913-14; Hanleiter, Griffin, 1915. At the Conference of 1915, owing to failing health, he requested to be placed on the superannuate list and it was done. This record reveals only a small part of our brother's fidelity and zeal for the extension of the kingdom of God. Some of the charges he served paid meager salaries, and some were difficult, yet with joy and bright anticipation he went forth in the name of the Master and succeeded. Brother Bell was a good preacher, sound in the fundamentals of Divine truth, and clear in the proclamation of the gospel of Christ. He was evangelistic in his preaching, and many were converted, backsliders were reclaimed, and the Church edified. He was faithful as a pastor, visiting and praying with his people in their homes and becoming identified with them in every interest pertaining to their welfare—social, intellectual, moral, spiritual. He administered to the sick and bereaved, inspiring them with the hope of a better day. In the latter part of his life he was greatly afflicted, but amidst it all he was patient and submissive, realizing that the Father doeth all things well. With the blessed assurance of an inheritance in the City of the King on May 14, 1930, he fell asleep on the bosom of the Saviour and went home to God. Brother Bell was twice married. His first marriage was to Miss Georgia Young, December 9, 1869, who died in 1896. Ten children blessed this union, four of whom survive him. His second marriage was to Miss Elma Cox, January 14, 1897, who is now living in Decatur, Ga.—C. V. Weathers.

William Lewis Singleton, son of John Calvin and Louisa Jane Craven Singleton, was born September 22, 1860, in White County, Ga. His parents were devout Methodists, and he united with the Church at Lumpkin Camp Ground at an early age. He received his education at Dahlonega and at Emory College in Oxford. He was licensed to preach August 22, 1887. He was ordained deacon at Cedartown by Bishop Keener on December 1, 1889, and elder at Cartersville by Bishop Key on December 13, 1891. He was admitted on trial by the North Georgia Conference, at Marietta, Bishop McTyeire presiding, in 1887, and into full connection on November 30, 1889. His appointments were: Morganton, junior preacher, 1888; Ellijay, 1889; Cleveland, junior preacher, 1890; Lumpkin Mission, 1891-92; Freemansville, 1893; Clayton, 1894-95; Draketown, 1896-97; West Rome, 1898; Dacula, 1899-1900; Duluth, 1901; Hoschton, 1902-04; Pendergrass, 1905-06; Lincolnton, 1907; Homer, 1908-10; supernumerary, 1911-12; supplied Elizabeth Circuit in 1912, and superannuated in the fall. He supplied Cuming and Holbrook charges, filling out unexpired time for pastors who had been relieved for other duties. He was married twice, the first time to Miss Margaret Dellie Holbrook, on August 25, 1897, who died November 12, 1913. His second marriage was to Miss Kate Elizabeth Wright on August 22, 1916. These women came from a long line of faithful Methodists and made an everlasting contribution to the preacher's home and to the communities and Church where he served. Brother Singleton passed away at his home in Forsyth County, Ga., on June 15, 1930. His funeral was conducted at Midway Church by the writer, assisted by L. B. Craft and John L. Moore, with appropriate talks from Rev. Belk Godfrey, a nephew, and H. L. Wills, a faithful layman and a lifelong friend. His remains were buried in the cemetery near the church he loved so well.—William E. Purcell.

Ques. 12. Who have withdrawn or been expelled? Withdrawn, Abner Charleston Johnson. 1.

Ques. 13. Who are transferred to other Conferences? Carroll Warren, an elder, to the Florida Conference. 1.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? Daniel W. Babb, Robert M. Evans, Willard R. Williams, Moranda H. Weed, Guy D. Burt. 5.

DAN WESLEY BABB, the son of Matthew J. and Sarah Jane Babb, was born in Tishomingo (Now Alcorn) County, Miss., October 12, 1841, and died one mile from his birthplace, in the home of his brother, Eugene Babb, December 14, 1929. He was married to Miss Mattie E. Atkins, December 17, 1867. She answered the last call March 26, 1918. Their bodies rest side by side in the bosom of Box's Chapel cemetery, near where Brother Babb spent his last days on earth. Brother Babb's father was a class leader of the old school, a faithful Christian, a loyal Methodist, a successful farmer. Environed by such influence this remarkable man grew to manhood. He attended such local schools as were available. In 1860-61 he was in school at Alamo, Tenn. He was sent home because of pulmonary trouble, reaching home the day Fort Sumter surrendered. For two years he was practically an invalid. Despite this fact he joined the army on July 15, 1863. Camp life agreed with him. In the organization of his company he was elected second lieutenant (Company B, 6th Junior Calvary). In the first battle the first lieutenant was killed. In the reorganization of the company Lieutenant Babb was elected captain. He was in eighteen battles and skirmishes, all under Forrest. He was paroled at Meridian, Miss., May 17, 1865. The parole is still in possession of the family. He was licensed to preach by W. D. F. Hafford at Kossuth, Miss., October 24, 1868, J. W. Honnoll, pastor. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Kavanaugh in 1872. He was a delegate to the Annual Conference at Grenada in 1873, and accepted supply work on the Jonesboro Circuit. He joined the Conference at Aberdeen in 1874 and returned to Jonesboro Circuit. In 1875 he was made junior preacher on the Kossuth charge, serving there two years. The circuit was divided in 1877, and Brother Babb was appointed to the Blackland Circuit. He was ordained elder at Macon by Bishop Paine in 1878 and was sent to the Baldwyn Circuit. He served this charge four years. He served the following charges from two to four years: Baldwyn, New Albany, Booneville and Rienzi, Ripley and New Albany, Grenada Circuit, Hebron, Louisville, Red Banks (one year), Batesville, Crawford (two four-year terms), Verona, Coldwater, Charleston, and six years at Strongs and Prairie. He was superannuted at West Point in 1924. He was strong and well at this time, but felt that his age rendered him inefficient for the many demands of the pastorate. He declined to be a pensioner on the superannuate fund. His frugality and liberality went hand in hand. In addition to generous response to the Centenary and educational calls, five hundred dollars to each of them, Emory University, Grenada College, Millsaps College, and the Board of Church Extension shared the money of this master circuit rider. Some five thousand dollars was given on the annuity plan. He was for many years a trustee of the Orphans' Home. This institution was a child of his heart. His donations were all but constant. They ranged from five dollars to one hundred dollars. Nor did he ever accept compensation for services rendered. He even paid his own expenses to meetings of the trustees. I join his host of friends and brethren in the goodly faith that this man who knocked at death's door with a smile on his face, and left a heritage of deeds untarnished and faith unwavering to a new generation, heard the welcome plaudit, "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."—James H. Felts.

Guy Dean Burt, son of J. W. Burt, a beloved member of North Mississippi Conference, and Mrs. Mattie Hubbard Burt, was born at Iuka, Miss., January 23, 1886. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in early childhood. He felt the call to preach about four years before he applied for license. He was licensed to preach in 1918 at the Greenville District Conference, Greenville, Miss., while V. C. Curtis was presiding elder. He was admitted on trial into the North Mississippi Conference in 1920 at Charleston, Miss. At the Annual Conference at Water Valley in 1922 he was admitted into full connection and was ordained deacon by Bishop Ainsworth. In 1924 he was ordained elder by Bishop Ainsworth at West Point. He served the Lamar Circuit, 1920-21; Duck Hill Circuit, 1921-24; Macon Circuit, 1924-25; Abbeville, 1925-26; Hickory Flat, 1926-27; Kossuth, 1927-29; and was appointed to Salem and Friendship in 1929, which he served until August 23, 1930, when he was taken fatally ill and he never regained consciousness. The morning of the twenty-third he was taken to New Albany Hospital and that afternoon to the Methodist Hospital, where he died August 25, 1930. On June 2, 1918, he was married to Miss Lona Janet Hosey, of Laurel, Miss., who for ten years kept a parsonage home that was a haven of rest for the family and a place of hospitality to their friends. Mrs. Burt was educated at Blue Mountain College and was teaching at Natchez, Miss., at the time of their marriage. One daughter, Frances, was born September 30, 1923, and she, with her mother, awaits the day of happy reunion in the life to come. Brother Burt is also survived by his aged mother, Mrs. J. W. Burt; three brothers, Ward, Charlie, and George; and one sister, Miss Clara. He finished high school at Okolona, Miss. In 1908 he finished a business course in Memphis. He entered business as a bookkeeper, which occupation he followed until he entered the ministry. In the fall of 1918 he entered Emory University, where he studied for the ministry until the fall of 1921. Brother Burt was a hard student of deep concentration. To his father's extensive library he added many choice books until he had an excellent library of theology, history, and education. These he loved and he doubtless spent too much time with his studies to take the needed social and physical recreation. The writer knew and loved Brother Burt very much; went to him the morning of his last illness; accompanied him to both hospitals, and with the assistance of the Methodist pastor at Joiner, Ark., laid him to rest by the grave of his father at Whitton, Ark., August 27, 1930.—E. M. Shaw.

ROBERT MANSON EVANS.—Sunday morning, February 16, 1930, while the world enjoyed its blessed surcease from toil, Robert Manson Evans, one of God's noblemen, slipped away from his earthly home in Holly Sprigns, Miss., to his Father's house on high. Brother Evans was born in Fulton County, Ga., eleven miles south of Atlanta, August 22, 1852, of sturdy Georgia stock. His parents were John B. and Sarah Ann Montgomery Evans. When eighteen years of age he, with his family, moved to Neshoba County, Miss., fifteen miles south of Philadelphia. Here he received his early education. He attended Cooper Institute. He taught penmanship, in which he was eminently gifted, to help care for his school expenses. At Big Oak Camp Ground, in Kemper County, in 1875 he was soundly converted and joined the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. He soon became a licensed preacher in that Church, which relationship he retained until 1889, at which time he joined the North Mississippi Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and became an itinerant, continuing in that relation until the day of his death. He was three times married. He was first married to Miss Lillie Dear of Conway in 1883. Four children (two sons and two daughters) blessed this union: Dewitt, Howard M., Bonnie (Mrs. J. F. Hicks), and Willie (Mrs. J. S. Eason). After her death he was married to Miss Kittie Simpson of Macon, Miss. This union was of short duration. She died in eighteen months. On February 28, 1906, he was married to Miss Olivia Wright of Holly Springs, Miss. Twenty-four happy years were given to them. He served the following appointments in the North Mississippi Conference: Sallis Circuit, 1889-92; McNutt Circuit, 1893-94; Coffeeville Circuit, 1895; Ackerman Circuit, 1896-99; Shannon Circuit, 1900; Shuqualak Circuit, 1901; Wall Hill Circuit, 1902-04; Vaiden Circuit, 1905-06; supernumerary, 1907; Courtland Circuit, 1908-09; Crawford Circuit, 1910; New Albany Circuit, 1911; Corinth, South Side, 1912; Prairie and Strongs, 1913-15; Calhoun City Circuit, 1916-17; Isola, 1918; Buena Vista Circuit, 1919-21; Verona Circuit, 1922-24; superannuated in the fall of 1924; Ashland Circuit, 1925-26. On Monday morning, February 17, after appropriate services in the Methodist Church of Holly Springs conducted by his pastor and the writer and assisted by a number of his brethren, his frail body was laid to rest in the Hill Crest Cemetery in Holly Springs, underneath a bank of beautiful flowers, to await the call of the resurrection angel.—J. H. Holder.

MORANDA HENRY WEED, son of Frank Marion and Bessie Dockery Weed, was born in Montgomery County, Miss., near Winona, on May 25, 1891. His parents were Baptists, and in his childhood and youth he was under the shepherding of that vigorous Church, and he became a member of it by profession of faith when thirteen years of age. The teachings and work of the Methodists, however, appealed strongly to him, and when about nineteen years old he connected himself with our denomination. He attended the public schools of Montgomery County and also prosecuted his studies at the French Camp Academy, in Choctaw County, which was noted for its excellence of instruction and religious training. When in his twenty-fifth year he became convinced that he was called to the Christian ministry and discussed the matter with his pastor, W. J. Wood, and his presiding elder, L. M. Lipscomb. A little later he was licensed to preach, and soon thereafter he went to Greenville, Miss., to engage in the insurance business, in which he achieved notable success. In the autumn of 1920 he was invited by the presiding elder of the Sardis District to serve the Crowder and Bethel charge as a supply. Though the salary promised was only a fraction of what he was then earning in his secular occupation, he readily responded to this call and took charge of the work. He was a success in the ministry from the beginning and the churches under his care soon showed the effect of his earnest spiritual cultivation and leadership. At Crowder, a lumber-mill town with a very diverse population, what he accomplished was truly remarkable. During the two years of his pastorate there he preached to large and interested congregations and the Sunday school and prayer meeting were kept in a flourishing condition. He was also instrumental in effecting for the Methodist people at that place, who had hitherto been worshiping in a schoolhouse, the construction of a substantial and attractive church. In 1923 Brother Weed supplied the Sardis Circuit, and in the fall of that year was admitted on trial into the traveling connection and assigned to the Pleasant Hill Circuit for the year 1924. He was in charge of the Horn Lake Circuit in 1925 and 1926, during which he succeeded in bringing about the erection of a modern church building for the Hines Chapel congregation. The two following years were spent on the Guntown work, and in the course of his incumbency in that pastorate a splendid brick church costing several thousand dollars was constructed at Guntown, free from debt, and dedicated. Brother Weed brought up his Conference studies in regular order and was ordained a deacon by Bishop Ainsworth at Greenville in 1925, and received his ordination as an elder at the hands of Bishop Candler at Clarksdale in 1927. On June 7, 1923, Brother Weed was married to Miss Ruth Branscombe, of Tallahatchie County, who was a member of one of the churches of his first pastoral charge and who was a blessing and inspiration to him in all his subsequent career. Never robust physically, at the close of his two-year term on the Guntown charge, in the fall of 1928, the state of Brother Weed's health was such that, though the people were insistent upon his return, he asked for the superannuate relation, which was granted to him by the Conference. The end of the year following found him but little, if any, improved; so he was continued on the inactive list. In the summer of this year his maladies became more complicated and, accompanied by Mrs. Weed, he went to the Mississippi Gulf Coast about the middle of July, hoping that the climate there would be beneficial to him. For a few days he seemed to be getting better, and he ventured to conduct a prayer meeting service at the Seashore Tabernacle at Biloxi, in which, though quite weak, he made an impressive talk, taking as the basis of his remarks the first five verses of the second chapter of the Gospel according to St. Mark. This proved to be his last pulpit utterance, for his improvement was transient and he soon realized that he was making no headway toward recovery. In this condition he longed to be back at home and began to make arrangements for his return. When he awoke on Sunday morning, August 3, he appeared to be no worse than he had been for some time except that he complained of having a headache. Suddenly he called to his devoted wife and stated that he was becoming blind and unable to see her, and in a few minutes he was unconscious. Medical aid was summoned and he was placed in a hospital in Biloxi, where, without rallying, he lingered until August 8, when he peacefully passed away, the immediate cause of his death being a cerebral hemorrhage. His body was carried to the cemetery of Bethel Church, a few miles west of Enid, Miss., near Mrs. Weed's girlhood home, and in that quiet spot was laid to rest. The funeral service was under the direction of J. M. Bradley, presiding elder of the Sardis District, who was assisted by M. H. McCall, H. M. McKibben, W. D. Bennett, A. L. Davenport, and R. G. Mayo. —R. A. Meek.

Willard Rush Williams, son of Dr. B. F. and Laura Williams, was born in Tuscaloosa, Ala., July 2, 1863. In early life his father, with his family, moved to Mississippi and settled in Webster County, near old Cumberland. In the summer of 1889, under the ministry of Mose Honnoll, he was gloriously converted and joined the Church and was licensed to preach the same day. Brother Williams served the Quincy charge as a supply in 1897, and in the fall of the same year at the Conference held at Oxford, Miss., he was admitted on trial and served the following charges: Brown's Creek, one year; Marietta, two years; Booneville Circuit, two years; Cornersville, three years; Ashland, three years; Cockrum, four years; Mount Pleasant, four years; Buena Vista, four years; Nettleton, four years; Dumas, one year. At this time Brother Williams knew that his health was failing and his hearing was bad, so he asked the Conference to give him the superannuate relation, that he might be relieved of the responsibilities of the pastorate. In early manhood Brother Williams was married to Miss Margarette Mullennix, and to this union were born twelve children, six of whom preceded their father to the other shore, and the other six, with their mother, are left to mourn the passing of a noble father and an affectionate husband. On the night of March 8, 1930, Brother Williams received a severe stroke of paralysis, and on March 9, 1930, his noble spirit took its flight to be with the Lord. On Monday evening H. S. Spragins, of Madison Heights Church, Memphis, assisted by the writer, conducted his funeral at his home and we laid his body to rest in Elmwood Cemetery in Memphis. —R. S. Lawson.

JAMES FRANKLIN ALDERSON was born in Hart County, Ky., February 13, 1849. He was converted and joined our Church at Bowling Green, Ky., in 1872 and was licensed to exhort the same year. In 1873 he was licensed to preach and was admitted on trial into the North Texas Conference in 1884 and into full connection in 1887. He was ordained as a deacon in 1884 by Bishop McTyeire and elder in 1888 by Bishop Key. For thirty-one years, until he superannuated in 1915, he took his appointments and faithfully served the Church. Brother Alderson was twice married; first in Kentucky to Miss Rena Prather, with whom he came to Texas. He taught school for some years at Chico, and made this little frontier village to become the center of education for that part of the State for some years. Eternity will only reveal the great work he did in this school. Many went out from his school to teach and to preach and to take a large place in the leadership of the surrounding country. After Brother Alderson joined the Conference his first wife died and left him to care for their children, six girls and one boy. Some years later he married a Mrs. King, of Bells, Tex., and to this union one child, a daughter, was born. After his superannuation Brother and Sister Alderson lived in a superannuate home in Royse, where the death angel came and called Sister Alderson away, leaving Brother Alderson lonely again. Brother Alderson then spent his time with his children until about six months before his death, when he became so feeble that he went to the Methodist Hospital at Dallas, and there on January 18, 1930, he closed his eyes in death's sleep and entered into a well-earned rest. On the following morning his body was taken to Whitewright, the home of Mrs. Sam Montgomery, a beloved step-daughter, and later to the Methodist Church, where the funeral service was held. A number of his brother preachers were present, and these, with the pastors of the Whitewright Church, sat on the platform, and some of them shared with this writer in the service. After the funeral service the body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Whitewright. Left to mourn his passing are seven children, one having gone on before, his brother, E. W. Alderson, a member of the North Texas Conference, other relatives, and hundreds whose lives have been touched and blessed by his life and ministry.—M. L. Hamilton.

Philmer Compton Archer was born in Granville County, N. C., October 31, 1848, and passed to his reward at Dallas, Tex., on June 28, 1930. He was reared in Virginia and was licensed to preach at Chesterfield by E. P. Williams in September of 1868. He was graduated from Randolph-Macon College in 1871. After leaving college, he joined the Little Rock Conference and served Washington Station for one year. At the close of the year he was transferred to the Texas Conference and stationed at Huntsville, and served as pastor and president of the Andrew Female College for two years; he then served Navasota, Anderson, and Hempstead. After serving six years in that Conference he was transferred to the North Texas Conference, where he served most faithfully and acceptably such appointments as Greenville, Gainesville, Sulphur Springs, Sherman, Paris, Terrell, Decatur, Denison, McKinney, Whitesboro, Winnsboro, and Whitewright. At the Conference at Sulphur Springs in 1918 he asked for and was granted the superannuate relation. In 1919 he moved to Dallas, from which place he was transferred to the Church triumphant. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Keener and elder by Bishop Kavanaugh. He was married to Miss Anna Downard on October 31, 1878, at Bryan, Tex. To this union five children were born: Mrs. Otis Hocker, who preceded him to the heavenly home several years, Mrs. Furd Halsell of Fort Worth, Mrs. A. L. Park of San Jose, Calif., Mrs. J. L. Ganbury, and Thomas W. Archer of Dallas. He leaves, besides these, one brother, J. T. Archer, a superannuated member of the North Texas Conference, and his faithful wife to mourn his going away. Brother Archer was genuinely converted when but eight years of age, and for seventy-four years he grew in grace and a conscious knowledge of God through Jesus Christ. He was both by blood and birth a preacher; his father, his grandfather, and three uncles were Methodist preachers. He was twice married, and each time chose a Methodist preacher's daughter for a companion. He was a preacher of unusual ability, power, and strength. He was as tender and sympathetic as a mother. He was eloquent and poetic in his nature; during his early ministry he was a great evangelist, and thousands were converted under his preaching. The funeral service was held in the Oak Cliff Methodist Church, Dallas, where he had worshiped for the past eleven years and was greatly loved by the entire membership. His worn body was laid to rest in the Laurel Land Memorial Park, Dallas, June 30, 1930, surrounded by hundreds of weeping friends; and his grave was banked high with beautiful flowers, typifying his beautiful life.—S. A. Barnes.

Collin Franklin McKinney was born at Old Tarrant, in Hopkins County, Tex., October 25, 1862. He was happily converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1892, and was licensed to preach at Sulphur Bluff in 1894. He was admitted on trial into the North Texas Conference in November, 1902. He served the Sulphur Springs Mission one year; Birthright Circuit, 1904; Klondike Circuit, 1905-06; Sulphur Bluff Circuit, 1907. In November, 1907, he was transferred to the West Texas Conference and served Mathis Circuit in 1908 and Dripping Springs Circuit in 1909-10. He was transferred to the East Texas Conference in November, 1910, and was appointed to Melrose Circuit, which he served one year, then Gary Circuit one year. He returned to the North Texas Conference in 1912 and served the following charges: Blue Ridge Circuit, 1913-14; Pattonville, 1915-16; Pottsboro Circuit, 1917; South Bonham, 1918-1920; Princeton Circuit, 1921; Sadler Circuit, 1922-23; Lake Creek Circuit, 1924-25; and Cuthand Circuit, 1926. Having been in declining health for some time, he was superannuated at his own request in the fall of 1927, after giving a quarter of a century of most faithful service to the work of the Church. Brother McKinney was a man of strong character and of sterling worth. His conversion was clear and unmistakable.

He was never in doubt about his call to the ministry. He devoted himself with such complete abandon to his work that all who came in touch with him caught the spirit of his enthusiasm. During all the years of his active ministry he never had an easy charge, but counted it all joy to be permitted to be a coworker with Him who had called him into His service. Like the great apostle of old, he said, "This one thing I do," and "I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me." When he realized that his day's work was about done and that he would be compelled to retire, he accepted the inevitable condition with the same heroism that had characterized his entire life. When the good people of Cooper, Tex., assisted by friends from other places, had provided a modest but comfortable home where he might spend the evening time of his life, his gratitude knew no bounds. What a shout of joy must have gone up from this redeemed child of God when the gates of pearl swung open, and his eyes caught the first glimpse of the "house of many mansions" which was to be his eternal home. He is survived by his widow, one daughter, Mrs. Vera Shelton, one brother, W. A. McKinney, and one sister, Mrs. Kate Henderson. On May 1, 1930, he passed peacefully away at his home in Cooper, and we laid his body to rest in the beautiful cemetery near by.—G. A. Lehnhoff.

J. L. MORRIS, son of I. G. and Martha Morris, was born at Auburn, Ala., November 25, 1861. He was married to Miss Rebecca Birdsong at Lagrange, Ga., April 16, 1880. To this union were born three sons, all of whom live in Dallas. He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Roanoke, Ala., when a mere boy. He was licensed to preach November 25, 1888; joined the North Texas Conference in 1889; was ordained deacon by Bishop Hendrix in 1891 and elder by Bishop Wilson in 1893. He served most acceptably and satisfactorily the following charges in the North Texas Conference: Emerson, Clarksville, Ervay and Grace Church (Dallas), Sherman, Gainesville, Paris, Denton, Terrell, McKinney, Bonham, and Decatur. He also served four years each on the Dallas and Paris Districts. Truly a prince in Israel has fallen. J. L. Morris was one of the most commanding figures of the North Texas Conference. No pulpit in the Church was ever graced with a more princely soul. By nature he was endowed with a charming personality, a rich voice, a true eloquence, a dramatic delivery; he was a clear thinker and a profound preacher. He could have commanded attention in the halls of Congress, and he would have dignified any assembly. Wherever he went, he drew men, women, and little children to him. He was a man's man, dignified, aristocratic, with a soldier's bearing, and with it all he was as tender as a little child and sympathetic as a mother. He was human, and yet the grace of God possessed his great soul. At the last session of the North Texas Conference Bishop Hay sent him to First Church, Decatur. To this appointment he went with peculiar anticipation, saying to his wife, "I am so happy; here we will be quiet and contented, surrounded by splendid highways and picturesque scenery." His going away was as calm as a May morning and as peaceful as a baby's sleep. He fought like a true Roman; but when he fell, he fell with his face heavenward. Without a sigh or gasp he passed from earth's toils to heaven's portals from the Methodist Hospital in Dallas, on December 11, 1929. The funeral was conducted at the Munger Place Methodist Church, Dallas, Tex., December 12, 1929, at 2:30 P.M. Those having a part in the service were: J. B. Gober, Harrison Baker, W. A. Stuckey, W. F. Bryant, O. T. Cooper, and the writer. Many of his preacher brethren from over the Conference, former parishioners, and friends were present. His tired body was laid to rest at Grove Hill Cemetery.—S. A. Barnes.

S. M. OWNBY was born in Tennessee, April 2, 1857. He died at his home in Detroit, Tex., July 30, 1930. He was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the age of fourteen years. He surrendered to the ministry after he was grown and married. With no means and a family to support, he was confronted with the tremendous task of getting an education. He managed to spend a few years at Groson College, Whitewright, Tex., after which he taught school for a while to square himself with the world before entering the Conference. He finally entered the North Texas Conference in 1895 at Gainesville, Tex. Suffering a stroke of paralysis in 1902, he took the superannuate relation, but on regaining his health he reëntered the active service. His health, however, failed again and again. For a few years he was in and out of the service, finally having to give up entirely. He served the following charges: Ridley Springs, Birthright, Leonard, Belcherville, Bonita, Rosalie, Clarksville Circuit, Powderly, Dexter, Woodland, Pilot Grove, Crofton, Vashti, and Greenwood. Brother Ownby was married first to Miss Nannie Phillips, to which union five children were born, two of them surviving him: V. M. Ownby, of Dallas, Mrs. W. H. Fleming, of Woodland. He was married the second time to Miss Lula Blanton. To this union were born two children: Melvin Ownby, of Fort Worth, and Miss Reba Ownby, of Detroit. He is survived by these, also two brothers and one sister. Brother Ownby was deeply consecrated, full of faith, and preached with power. More than 1,300 souls were converted under his ministry. To know him was to love him, and his friends cannot be numbered.—C. L. Satterfield.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? R. F. Dunn, J. H. Watts, J. T. Weems. 3.

R. F. DUNN was born March 11, 1855, in Charlottesville, Va. He went to his reward November 23, 1929, from his home in Lubbock. The services were conducted from the First Methodist Church, Lubbock, November 25, by C. A. Bickley, presiding elder of the Lubbock District, assisted by H. L. Munger, D. B. Doak, G. P. McCollum, and D. C. Ross. Brother Dunn came to Texas with his parents at the age of fifteen. He was converted when just a young man and erected a family altar in the home of his father, who at that time was not a Christian. He was licensed to preach at Stephenville by S. D. Aiken, while a student in Granbury College. He was later one of the instructors and also served as vice president of the institution. He was admitted on trial at the session of the Annual Conference which met at Waxahachie on November 16, 1881. Bishop Ward was also a member of this class. At that session of the Conference he was appointed to Colorado Circuit, which then extended from Sweetwater to El Paso. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Parker, November 4, 1883, and elder by Bishop McTyeire, November 15, 1885. June 21, 1882, he was married to Miss Mary Luella Spruill. To this union were born ten children, all of whom are living except one, who died at the age of two years. They succeeded in educating all of these children, who are now filling places of importance, either in the home or in professional or business life. He was a pioneer in this great Western section and as such he was a church builder and organizer. He built the churches at Sweetwater, Baird, Post Oak, and rebuilt the church at Cisco after the awful cyclone which destroyed the town. He served the following charges: Colorado, two years; Sweetwater, four years; Flemming, one year; Baird, two years; instructor in Granbury College, three years; Cisco, two years; Breckenridge, three years; Greens Creek, two years; Cresson, two years; Bosqueville, two years; Morgan, two years; Killeen, one year; McGregor, two years; Itasca, two years; Maypearl, three years; Matador, two years; Tahoka, three years; Crosbyton, one year; Lorenzo, four years; Abernathy, one year; Wilson, one year. He retired three years ago this fall, having been a Methodist preacher forty-eight years. His brethren, both of the ministry and laity, loved and trusted him. He was a charter member of the brotherhood and served it as secretary and treasurer. He was greatly interested in the great cause of Missions. He educated three Mexican girls at Lelia Roberts School, Saltillo, Mex., who afterwards became teachers in that school. For the past twenty-four years he supported a Bible woman in Korea, having sent a check for this year just before his death. He was advised not to attend the last session of the Annual Conference, but he loved his brethren and his Church so much that he went. He enjoyed it greatly, taking part in the Love Feast on Sunday morning. He leaves his wife and the following children: Robert A. Dunn, John W. Dunn, Nelson Dunn, Sam G. Dunn, Myrtle Dunn, Mrs. O. F. Claunch, Mrs. Lee Quillian, Mary Dunn, and Beulah Dunn; three sisters, Mrs. Chris Meek, Mrs. Frank Davis, Mrs. Lee Coker; and one brother, John Dunn.

John Henry Watts was born July 7, 1855, in Bolinger County, Mo. The family moved to Red River County, Tex., in 1859, where they remained until the close of the Civil War when they removed to Arkansas and settled on a farm in Marion County. There he grew up under the care of devout parents and under the nurture of an old-time Methodist régime which grounded him in a faith that did not shrink. Under the hard times of the reconstruction days he was deprived of the advantages of an education. As a young man he taught school and served as county surveyor, but spent most of his time on the farm. He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1878, licensed to preach in 1883, admitted on trial into the Arkansas Conference in 1884, ordained deacon by Bishop Galloway in 1886, and elder by Bishop Hendrix in 1889. During twelve years he served the folowing charges in Arkansas: Carrollton, Valley Springs, Carrollton a second time, Wiley's Cove, Mountain Home and Yellville. In 1896 he was transferred to the Northwest Texas Conference, where he served the following charges: Carbon, Duffau, Proctor, Carlton, Huckabay, Tuxedo, Rochester, Goree, Lakeview, Goodnight, Mobeetie, and Kress. In the fall of 1919 he took the superannuate relation and lived at Clarendon, Tex., until 1927 when he moved to Austin, Tex., remaining there until July 23, 1930, when he went home to heaven. In 1875 he was married to Mary T. Sims. To this union nine children were born, five of whom survive: J. W., W. L., H. Bascom, Mrs. Virgie Keahey, and Mrs. Paul Nash. His wife died in 1894 and he was married a second time in 1895 to Mary Ellen Bussey, who survives him. One daughter was born to this union, Mrs. W. J. Bybee. The funeral services were conducted in the University Church at Austin where his son, H. B. Watts, is pastor. The following brethren officiated: K. P. Barton, S. W. Williams, and J. Fisher Simpson. The pallbearers were the Methodist ministers of the city. His body was laid to rest in Oakwood Cemetery, Austin, Tex. —J. H. Hamblen.

J. T. Weems was born August 16, 1875, and passed to his reward May 20, 1930, at his home in Lubbock, Tex. Brother Weems was converted and joined the Methodist Church in March, 1895, in Lampasas County. He was licensed to preach that same year and soon afterwards began his preparation for the ministry in Southwestern University.

He was admitted on trial into the West Texas Conference in 1903. He remained in that Conference until 1920, at which time he transferred to the Northwest Texas Conference. For four years of the time he was in the West Texas Conference he held the superannuate relation because of poor health, but during this time he was as active in church work as his health would permit. Brother Weems was married May 4, 1904, to Miss Gertrude Nisbet, of Goldthwaite, Tex. To this union were born two children, Inez (Mrs. Claude Montgomery) and J. D. These and his stepmother, one brother, four sisters, and a number of other relatives remain to mourn his going. Because of continued failing of his health, he superannuated in 1928 and settled at Lubbock, Tex. He hoped to regain his health and return to active work. His heart was in the work of the ministry and he placed himself at the disposal of his elder for any work that he might be called upon to undertake. But his hopes were not to be realized in this world. His body had been worn out as a true soldier of the cross, and God called him to his reward. His body was laid to rest in the cemetery at his old home in Goldthwaite, Tex. The funeral was conducted by G. P. McCollum assisted by J. W. Watson, Claude Ledger, and the local pastors of Goldthwaite.

J. M. CANTRELL passed away February 18, 1930. He was hit by a fast car while on his way to a mission study class in the First Methodist Church at Vinita, Okla. The funeral was held in that church February 20, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. M. L. Sims, pastor, was in charge, assisted by L. S. Barton, W. Lyles Blackburn, and other preachers. Brother Cantrell was born January 19, 1861, the son of William P. and Elizabeth Cantrell. He was one of fourteen children, all of whom lived to maturity in Marion County, near Yellville, Ark. His mother was a great motivating influence in the community and in the Methodist Church. His early life and boyhood were spent in helping to maintain the home and farm and in going to the few months' school to be had at the country schoolhouse. Very early he had a keen desire for an education, shown by his reading and studying books by a pine torch around the fireside at night. It is also said that he always took his books when he had to keep watch at the charcoal pits, as his family burned this commodity out of the native pine for market. At an early age he taught school and attended Quitman College. To the day of his death he was still hungry for more knowledge and read some every day. He joined the Church when ten years of age, having been converted when only eight years old. He joined the Liberty M. E. Church, South, and was made a steward at the age of twelve. On September 27, 1879, he was licensed to preach, ordained deacon in 1884, and elder in 1887. He was admitted on trial into the Arkansas Conference in 1882, where he served until 1907, when he was transferred to the Oklahoma Conference, remaining here till the last. He was superannuated at the last session of the East Oklahoma Conference. He was married to Martha Jane Bearden on October 19, 1879, with whom he lived over fifty years, having celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1929. To this union were born nine children, three dying in infancy, and the other six surviving him, all married and members of the M. E. Church, South. His children he inspired and helped to get a good education, and one of them follows him in the gospel. The chief interest of Brother Cantrell was unquestionably to "preach the Word." He not only filled his regular appointments, but was continually looking out for places where the people had not the gospel, so that his extra sermons probably equaled his regular ones. He did a great deal of evangelistic work. Next to his interest in preaching came his pastoral work. He made it his business to know his members, calling upon them often, and seeking to establish the relationship which would enable him to help them most, being a comforter and helper to all. His State and his home community he counted as parts of his country and always took a hand in all things for their betterment. As a prohibition worker he was very active, engaging in many campaigns in Arkansas during the days of local option to put out saloons. Much of his energy was spent working and preaching to abolish the liquor traffic. Last fall Brother Cantrell retired from the active service voluntarily. He always said that when preachers were ineffective, from old age or infirmity, they ought to retire. He took his own prescription cheerfully.—W. Lyles Blackburn.

OSCAR CHURCH FONTAINE, Conference evangelist of the East Oklahoma Conference, passed to his reward at Durant, Okla., on Tuesday, July 8, 1930, after a very brief illness. The funeral services were held the Saturday following, and the remains were laid to rest by the side of his wife in the Durant Cemetery. The sermon was preached by W. Y. Switzer, of Wetumka. E. A. Reed, presiding elder, and C. A. German, pastor at Durant, also took part in the services. Many of his brethren of the ministry were present. Brother Fontaine was born at St. Sullivan, Tex., January 1, 1867. As a youth he lived at Galveston, where in early manhood he was converted at a camp meeting and shortly afterwards entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. For more than forty years he was actively engaged in this his loved employ, ceasing at once to labor and to live. He served charges in Texas and Missouri, coming to Oklahoma about twenty years ago. In this State he was stationed at Shawnee, Poteau, and Durant. About fourteen years ago, at his own request, he was located that he might give to his children adequate educational advantages. Two years ago, after the youngest daughter had graduated and after the tragic death of his beloved companion, he was readmitted into the Conference. He served one year at Kiowa, and at the last session of the Conference he was appointed Conference Evangelist and had already made a strong impression by his vigorous and eloquent ministry in this field. During the years of his residence in Durant in the local ranks he was never idle. He loved so much to preach that no other employ appealed to him. He served as supply each year in communities and towns near Durant, making his impress upon the entire section for righteousness. He had few equals as a preacher, eloquent and earnest and with a fund of knowledge and scholarship which made his ministry at once popular and profound. His was an evangelistic ministry. Many were converted, and all were edified. He was a companionable man. He loved and was loved. He was married at Wills Point, Tex., to Miss Beulah Dickard, who for more than forty years was his true helpmeet. Sister Fontaine, whose beautiful Christian life was tragically ended in an automobile accident, preceded him to the heavenly world two years ago. Seven children survive them: Miss Verna, James H., Charles Erskine, Mrs. S. M. Hilburn, Oscar L., Mrs. J. N. Youmans, and Miss Lois. He was loyal to his family, to his friends, to his Church, and to his Christ.—W. Y. Switzer.

JOHN ANDREW RICE was born in Colleton County, S. C., September 25, 1862, and died at Tulsa, Okla., June 29, 1930. In 1886 he entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and served as his first pastorates Bennettsville Circuit, Kingstree Circuit, Darlington, and Washington Street Church in Columbia. In 1894 he became president of Columbia College for Women at Columbia, S. C., and was for the next six years engaged in college work. After a period of study in the University of Chicago he returned to the active ministry and served the following prominent Churches: Court Street, Montgomery, 1902-07; Rayne Memorial, New Orleans, 1907-11; First Church, Fort Worth, 1911-14; St. John's, St. Louis, 1914-18; Trinity, Sumter, S. C., 1918-20. Again he returned to college work, serving as professor of Old Testament in Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Tex. In 1921 he came to Oklahoma as pastor of First Church, Okmulgee. A year later he came to the pastorate of Boston Avenue and was pastor of this Church until 1927. For one year he was editor of the Oklahoma Methodist. In 1928 he accepted the pastorate of the First Congregational Church in Tulsa and continued in that relationship until his death. Dr. Rice began his education in the Sheridan Classical School at Orangeburg, S. C., and in 1885 took his A.B. degree from South Carolina College. Later he received the degree of A.M. from the same institution. He took his early training for the ministry at Columbia Theological Seminary. In 1903 he completed his work for the Ph.D. degree at the University of Chicago. In 1894 he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from South Carolina College, and in 1905 he had bestowed upon him the degree of LL.D. by the University of South Carolina and in 1906 the same degree by the University of Alabama. In 1887 he was married to Anna B. Smith, daughter of Rev. W. H. Smith, of Columbia, S. C., and the following sons were born, who survive the father: John Andrew Rice, Liston McLeod Rice, Coke Smith Rice. In 1902 Dr. Rice married Launa Darnell, daughter of Rev. T. L. Darnell of Tennessee, and to this marriage were born William M. Rice and Mrs. Robert L. Carruthers. —C. M. Reves.

B. F. STEGALL, the son of Rev. Benjamin C. and Sarah Stegall, was born in Monroe, La., September 11, 1856, and died at Ada, Okla., December 9, 1929. Brother Stegall lost both his father and mother before he was eight years of age. He and his brother, Wilbur, were then taken by an uncle, John Stegall, with whom they made their home until they were grown. Brother Stegall's educational advantages were rather limited, but his native ability and subsequent study enabled him in large measure to overcome this. When a young man he moved to Decatur, Tex., where he engaged in the hardware business. He was married to Miss Latitia Coffey on February 13, 1899, and she survives him, together with three children: Mrs. B. E. Ratliff, Ben F., Jr., and Roy. Brother Stegall was converted at Decatur, Tex., in 1893, was licensed to preach, and joined the old Indian Mission Conference at Ardmore, Ind. T., in 1895, and was sent to the Willis Circuit, which he served for one year. He served the following charges: Kiowa, 1896-99; Durant, 1899-1900; Pontotoc, 1900-02; Canadian, 1902-03; Hartshorne, 1903-04; Woodford, 1904-05; Rush Springs, 1905-06; Waurika, 1906-09; Headrick, 1909-10; Pontotoc, 1910-14; Ada, Asbury, 1914-17. He was superannuated by the Conference in 1917 and had made his home in Ada since that time. His ministry was, in many respects, notable. He preached the gospel with great effect; he said to a friend just a few hours before his death that he had had over nine thousand conversions, an average of more than four hundred for each year of his ministry. He believed in the old-time gospel and the old-time power, and he had it and he lived it. He was efficient in his work, faithful to his Church, and thoroughly loyal to all his obligations. His superannuation did not mean for him a cessation of labor—there was rarely a Sunday, summer or winter, that he did not preach somewhere at least twice. He was always loyal to his pastor and ready to help in any way possible.—Albert Norris Averyt.

WILLIAM WALTON WILLIAMS, son of Rev. Hollis H. and Elizabeth Williams, was born in Carroll County, Miss., October 16, 1845. He was baptized in infancy and took the vows of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the age of eleven years. He was licensed to exhort in 1863 and to preach in 1870. He was ordained deacon on November 29, 1874, by Bishop Doggett at Aberdeen, Miss., and elder on December 7, 1876, by Bishop Kavanaugh at Water Valley, Miss., in the North Mississippi Conference. On September 25, 1877, he was married to Lilly C. Kimbrough. After serving thirty-two years on circuits and stations in the North Mississippi Conference, he was transferred in 1906 to the East Oklahoma Conference, where he was an active member until November, 1922, when he was superannuated. During the eight years of his superannuation he made his home in McAlester, Okla. For the past few years his health failed gradually, and death came on the afternoon of August 28, 1930. His funeral was held at ten o'clock on the morning of August 29, at McAlester, Okla., conducted by the writer, assisted by J. D. Rodgers and J. M. Porter. He was buried at Durant, Okla., beside the grave of his son. He is mourned by his wife, a son, and a daughter.—J. W. Sims.

from other Conferences? J. C. McPheeters and J. L. Lyons, elders, from the Arizona Conference; William Harry Moore, in the class of the second year, from the North Alabama Conference. 3.

Ques. 10. Who are received from other Churches as traveling preachers? None.

Ques. 11. Who are located this year? W. M. McClearen. 1.

Ques. 12. Who have withdrawn or been expelled? Withdrawn, Hal A. Burns. 1.

Ques. 13. Who are transferred to other Conferences? Moffett Rhodes, to the Arizona Conference. 1.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? George S. Clark, C. R. Howard, L. P. Shearer (no memoir). 3.

GEORGE S. CLARK was born in Indiana, January 11, 1853, and went home to God November 9, 1929. He was the son of a Methodist preacher, S. H. Clark. He accepted Jesus Christ as his Saviour, and joined the Methodist Church when he was seven years old and remained a faithful, loving, and efficient servant of his Master through all the years. He moved to Texas in his early years and joined the Northwest Texas Conference in 1886. In 1900 he was transferred to the Los Angeles Conference and served the following charges: Santa Ana, four years; West End, Los Angeles, three years; San Bernardino, four years; Redlands, one year; Downey, four years; Phoenix, Bethel, two years. He returned to Downey as a superannuate in 1919 and continued to dwell there until he was called home. Brother Clark was one of God's noblemen, faithful and true to every principle of Christian living and Christlike service. He had a firm grasp upon the Word of God and a personal experience of the presence of God in his soul that made his ministry one of illuminating and evangelistic power. Brother Clark leaves his wife, Mrs. Ida Clark, and three sons, Ralph, Steve, and George, who miss his presence and mourn his departure.—C. P. Moore.

CHARLES R. HOWARD was born in the Willamette Valley in Oregon on August 3, 1866. His father, a native of Tennessee, crossed the plains in 1855. His mother's maiden name was Margaret Wilson. His father was a pioneer Methodist preacher in the early days of California, and Charles grew up in a parsonage. He was married to Miss Alice Smith in 1894. Seven children were born to this union. They are Mrs. Margaret Adkins, Mrs. Ruth Somerindyke, Mrs. Eva White, Mrs. Mildred Pryor, Mrs. Esther McNeilley, Ross Howard, and Dorothy Howard. Brother Howard entered the ministry in 1895. He served pastorates in the following places: Weston and Heppner, Oregon; Genessee, Idaho; Dayton, Wash.; Richland, Oregon; Walla Walla and Spokane, Wash.; Colusa, Dinuba, Ventura, and Cloverdale, and at Lakeport, Calif., where he was stricken with his last illness. He lived about a year in varying degrees of ill health. There in the beautiful San Benito Valley in the early spring of the past year, when nature was dressed in all its beauty, he was called home. He was a good Christian man, a faithful preacher and pastor. He was a brother beloved and a tender and indulgent father and husband. Weary of the toil of life, his strength already diminished, he heard the call of his Heavenly Father, and fled to the everlasting arms to rest in the land of the blest with loved ones gone before.—C. A. Rexroad.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? W. S. Tyler, M. M. Blease. 2.

MATTHEW MARTIN BLEASE was born in New York City, June 14, 1850, of French and German parentage. His father was born in Strasburg, Germany, and his mother in Munich, Germany. He was converted at the age of sixteen in Jayne Street Church, New York City, by J. H. Putnam. For thirteen years he failed to respond to the call to the ministry and in 1879 joined the Church at Lexington, Tenn., under the pastorate of W. H. Brooks. He was licensed to preach May 12, 1879, by J. H. Witt, and entered at once upon the itinerant work of a Methodist preacher, in Tennessee for three years, then two years in Mississippi, then back in Tennessee till 1886. He located and moved to Missouri in 1886, where he served Donerver Switch Circuit as supply for four years, receiving $14.60. In 1888 he was ordained deacon by Bishop Hendrix, and elder by Bishop Keener in 1890. In 1892 he was admitted to the St. Louis Conference at Fredericktown, and served Ristine Circuit, Lesterville Circuit, Jake's Prairie. In 1894 he was transferred to Birmingham, North Alabama Conference, by Bishop Hendrix, to serve a German Mission Church in the basement of the First Methodist Church, and Trinity Church until 1896. From 1896 to 1907 he served as follows: Peachville Circuit, Hokes Bluff Circuit, Keener Circuit, Larkinville Circuit, Cloverdale Circuit, Center Star Circuit, Royal Circuit, Ashville Circuit, North Alabama Conference.

Then he was suspended. He moved to Missouri in 1907, and was relicensed to preach by H. P. Crowe in 1908 at Charleston. In 1910 he entered again into the ministry as a supply, serving Marble Hill three years; Belleview Circuit, two years; Bourbon, three years; Sedgewickville, one year; Lilbourn, one year; York Chapel, two years; and was readmitted at Fredericktown in 1920. In 1922 he superannuated and moved to East Prairie, Mo. In 1883 he was married to Lucinda I. Presson, of Camden, Tenn. He joined the Masons in 1888 at Bertrand, and the Odd Fellows in 1901 at Larkinville, Ala. His parents were Roman Catholics, and he was reared in that faith till twelve years of age, serving as altar boy for five years. At the age of twelve he was given an American Bible Society Bible, worth 25 cents, by a fraternity woman with instructions to hide it between the bed and the mattress in daytime and read it at night, to keep the priest from getting it. This led to his conversion to the Protestant Church. He was stricken with apoplexy on April 10, 1928, while working in his garden. He died June 3, 1930, near East Prairie.

William Scott Tyler was born at Creve Coeur, Mo., July 3, 1841, and died at LaGrange, Ill., July 11, 1930. Interment was in LaGrange Cemetery, July 14. Brother Tyler's father was John Scott Tyler, and his mother was Miss Ann Dorsett, both born in Virginia, but among the pioneer families of St. Louis County. His mother died during his infancy, and Brother Tyler was reared in the home of his grandfather, Judge Walter B. Dorsett. Brother Tyler was educated in St. Charles College, St. Charles, Mo. He entered the ministry and joined the St. Louis Conference in 1881, a connection maintained continuously for forty-nine years. His first charge was his home Church, Mount Zion, where he served four years. Among other charges he held were Clayton (where he built the church preceding the present building), St. Clair, Belleview, Arcadia, and Oak Ridge. On October 29, 1891, Brother Tyler was married to Miss Martha Elizabeth Barnes, of Washington, Mo., Rev. S. W. Emory officiating. While serving at Arcadia and living at historic old Fort Hill, their only child, a daughter, was born. Brother Tyler's last appointment was Oak Ridge. During much of his two years' pastorate there illness confined him to his bed, and he superannuated at Fredericktown in 1901. He then returned to his home county (St. Louis) with his family. For twelve years they lived at Kirkwood and were active in the Church there. There in 1920 their daughter, Lucy Barnes Tyler, was married to Walker Howard Evans, of Chicago. After this event Brother and Sister Tyler made their home with the young couple at LaGrange, Ill., and there he died, leaving to mourn him his wife and daughter and two little grandchildren. It was most fitting that the end of his life came on a glorious summer day, and that after the beautiful and simple service conducted by Dr. James B. Swinney, of Marshall, Mo., his body was laid to rest under a flower-heaped mound, there to await the resurrection.—Mrs. J. E. Seegers.

WATSON BOONE DUNCAN was born March 19, 1867, the youngest child of a large family of sons and daughters of J. D. F. and Dulcenia Hopper Duncan. He was from infancy under decided Christian and Methodist influences. Converted at the age of eleven, he never knew the sins or bore the scars of a prodigal. At fifteen he realized the call of God to preach the gospel and unhesitatingly responded, beginning at once his preparation which never ceased through the years of youth or the forty-three after years given to the itinerancy. Ever he was adding to treasures new and old and bringing them forth to bless others. He entered Wofford College and spent two years there, taking the regular A.B. course. His eyesight failing, he did not return to Wofford for the completion of his course, but did supply work the remainder of 1887 for churches in a then neglected area around the city of Sumter, until the Conference session of 1887, held in Spartanburg, when he was admitted on trial and reappointed to the churches he had been supplying under the name Oakland Circuit. Entering the Conference in 1887, he passed regularly the ordinations following completion of the Conference course of study and was ordained deacon by Bishop Keener at Camden in 1889, and elder by Bishop Granbery at Darlington in 1891. His appointments were as follows: Oakland, 1888; Wedgefield, 1889; Cartersville, 1890; Timmonsville, 1891-92; Kingstree, 1893-95; Allendale, 1896-98; St. George, 1899-1900; First Church, Laurens, 1901-04; St. John's, Rock Hill, 1905-07; First Church, Sumter, 1908; Bethel, Charleston, 1909-12; St. Paul's, Orangeburg, 1913-15; Manning, 1916-17; Dillon, 1918-21; Cheraw, 1922-25; McColl, 1926-28; Lake City, 1929-30. February 6, 1889, he was married to Miss Lizzie Huggins, daughter of Dr. Herman H. Huggins and his wife, Louisa Gary Huggins, of Manning. Their first child died in infancy. Surviving are his widow and three children, Watson Boone Duncan, Jr., Herman F. Duncan, pastor of the Duncan Memorial Church, Charlotte, N. C., and Mrs. J. Olin (Elizabeth Louise) Horne. Brother Duncan died at the Florence Infirmary March 16, 1930. Funeral services, conducted by E. K. Garrison, presiding elder of the Kingstree District, assisted by M. L. Banks and W. I. Herbert, were held at Lake City on Friday, March 18. The burial took place at Manning, S. C. He early brought out "Twentieth-Century Sketches," being a volume of sketches of the preachers of the South Carolina Conference, and later a revised edition in 1914, which is a classic in its field, constantly used as a reference book. He was at the time of his death engaged in gathering the material for an up-to-date revision of these sketches including all who have entered either Conference since the division of South Carolina into two Conferences in 1914. He was also engaged in the writing of a history of Methodism in South Carolina, having been requested by his Conference to perform this needed service. Other books from his pen are: "Baptism," "Studies in Methodist Literature," "Our Vows," "Immortality and Modern Thought," and "Ideals of American Poets." His rare good humor and pleasing address made him in demand for popular lectures and addresses, some of his themes being, "Laugh and Grow Fat," "The Boy and the Billy Goat," "Matrimony and Alimony," in the field of humor, and in more serious vein, "Education and Citizenship," "The Literary View of Life," "The Religion of a Young Man," "Religion and Patriotism," "The Kingship of the Optimist," and various addresses suitable to the several fraternal orders in which he held membership, such as the Masons, the Knights of Pythias, Woodmen, Odd Fellows, and Junior Order of Mechanics. He contributed frequently to newspapers and magazines. His book reviews, long regularly published in the Southern Christian Advocate, were unsurpassed in clear, brief statement as to the character and contents of a wide range of books. His correspondence for the Columbia State and other papers reporting Annual and other Conferences of the Church were always accurate, comprehensive of all matters of importance, and written in graphic, entertaining style.

PHILIP ALCEMUS MURRAY was born at Pineville, S. C., on December 8, 1854. He was the son of John Wesley and Frances Davis Murray, his father being an honored member of the South Carolina Conference. After preliminary training in the public schools and at Cokesbury School, Brother Murray spent three years at Wofford College, leaving there to become a teacher in the public schools. On October 4, 1876, he was married to Miss Sallie Mulloy. To this union were born three children who have survived both of their parents. They are Philip Alcemus Murray, Jr., Mrs. Kathleen Murray Page, and Mrs. Lillian Murray Womack. He joined the Church after professing religion when sixteen years of age. About that time he felt the call to preach, but sought to throw off the impression and enter into other lines of work. He taught school for several years and studied law. He finally yielded his life to the ministry and entered the South Carolina Conference on December 22, 1879. His early appointments were Waccamaw Circuit and Mission, junior preacher on the Bennettsville Circuit, North Laurens, Bayboro. After this he transferred for a short time to Florida. Subsequently he served McCormick, Branchville, Camden, Little Rock, Brightsville, Batesburg, and Beaufort. In 1898 he volunteered for service as chaplain in the Spanish-American War and was in active service in Cuba with the Second Regiment of the South Carolina Volunteer Infantry. In 1899 he returned from Cuba and served as chaplain of the Charleston Port Society until 1907. In this work he dealt with sailors from all lands, holding services in the Port Society chapel, and otherwise ministering to the needs of these men. Returning to the pastorate in 1908, Brother Murray served at Bishopville, Clemson College, South Florence, Rome, Marlboro, Cameron, and Walterboro. In 1923, because of ill health, he asked for the superannuate relation, thus ending forty-five years in active service. For six and one-half years thereafter he lived in Cheraw with his daughter, Mrs. Kathleen Murray Page. On his seventy-fifth birthday, and the fiftieth anniversary of his entrance into the ministry, he occupied the pulpit at Cheraw for the last time. His death occurred in Bennettsville, at the home of another daughter, Mrs. Lillian Murray Womack, on June 28, 1930. His funeral was conducted in the Cheraw Methodist Church on June 29, by J. T. Fowler, presiding elder, assisted by Peter Stokes, D. M. McLeod, S. O. Cantey, J. H. Graves, W. A. Beckham, T. W. Law, and the writer of this sketch. His body was laid to rest in St. Davids Cemetery.—J. Emerson Ford.

JOHN HAMILTON MOORE, son of M. C. and Issaphena Moore, was born April 28, 1852, on what is known as Shooting Creek in Clay County, N. C. His father died when he was ten years old, and much of the responsibility for the family devolved upon him in his youth. The conditions following the Civil War made it a hard struggle even for mature men. It was especially hard for a mere youth, but he bore it manfully. In giving an account of his conversion he said that he was converted in the revival that swept over the country after the Civil War. He felt the call to preach very early after his conversion, but tried to overcome this by doing Christian work. At last he yielded, even though a grown young man, and attended Hicksville Academy, Hayesville, N. C. Here he almost completed the course of study offered. For two years he taught school. First he was licensed to exhort and later was duly licensed to preach. In October, 1882, he joined the Holston Conference. When a portion of that Conference was annexed to the Western North Carolina Conference Brother Moore's membership came with it. In 1907 he was transferred to the South Carolina Conference. His appointments for the thirty years of active service were as follows: Highlands Mission, 1883; Pigeon River, 1884; Cherry Street, Chattanooga, 1885; Rogersville, 1886-87; Bakersville, 1888-89; Hendersonville, 1890; Sulphur Springs, 1891-92; Ansonville Circuit, 1893-96; Lenoir Circuit, 1897; Elks Park Circuit, 1898; Leicester Circuit, 1899-1900; Macon Circuit, 1901-02; Franklin Circuit, 1903-06; Morven Circuit, 1907; Reidsville Circuit, 1908; Liberty Circuit, 1909-12; superannuated, 1913-30. He died at his home near McBee, S. C., October 30, 1930. Brother Moore was twice married. On September 25, 1889, at Bakersville, N. C., he was united in marriage to Mrs. Lucy Elmira Green, daughter of Jeremiah Green and Mattie Green. Four children blessed this union: Mattie Nell (died 1910), Mary Weaver Moore, George Frank Moore, and Jerry H. Moore. Sister Moore died in Lenoir, N. C., October 31, 1897, and was buried at Marion, N. C. On January 1, 1901, he was married to Miss Mary Ellen Mann, of Franklin, N. C. She was the daughter of George P. and Lizzie Mann. To this union the following children were born: Ruth Moore, Mrs. Frank E. Gant, John Moore, Florence Moore, Ellen Moore, George Moore, Nina Moore, and James Moore. Two of his sisters survive: Mrs. W. P. Patterson and Mrs. S. P. Waldrop. He leaves one stepson, Lawrence DeWitt Green. After funeral services conducted in the McBee Church on October 31, his body was laid to rest in the cemetery at McBee, there to await the resurrection of the just. J. T. Fowler, presiding elder of the Florence District, had charge of the service, assisted by D. M. McLeod, J. P. Inabnit, G. L. Ingram, and J. E. Cook, his pastor.—J. E. Cook.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? W. A. Mallory, G. W. Thomas, J. P. Wardlaw. 3.

William Arthur Mallory was born at his mother's ancestral estate near Louisville, Jefferson County, Ga., March 24, 1870. He left this world from the parsonage at Adel shortly after midnight on the morning of December 20, 1929. His father, E. T. Mallory, a Canadian by birth and a Georgian by adoption, was a Christian gentleman and a successful business man. His mother, Caroline Cheatham Mallory, lived Christ before her son and brought him up "in the nurture and admonition of the Lord." When just a little lad, Will Mallory, as his friends loved to call him, was converted at old Mount Moriah Camp Ground in Jefferson County. He joined the Methodist Church with his parents. Early in life he felt a call to preach the "glorious gospel of the blessed God." He moved to Forsyth in his early boyhood and united with the Methodist Church in that city. From there he went to the School of Technology in Atlanta and later went to Emory College, where he was graduated. When he was twenty years old he received a definite call to preach and was licensed at Mulberry Street Church, Macon. Brother Mallory was married to Miss Maude Holmes in the First Methodist Church at Fort Scott, Kans., June 28, 1893. Mrs. Mallory was reared at Bloomington, Ill. One daughter, Eloise, was born to them. Brother Mallory served the Relief Association of the South Georgia Conference as secretary and treasurer for about sixteen years. He performed his duties with splendid efficiency as long as he lived. Brother Mallory was admitted on trial into the South Georgia Conference at Dawson in the fall of 1893. He served the following charges: Whigham Circuit, 1894; Jefferson Circuit, 1895; Summertown Circuit, 1896; Eden Circuit, 1897. At the Conference at Savannah in 1897 he was located at his own request and entered the business world. After he located he was not content and longed for the active ministry. He was readmitted into the North Georgia Conference in November, 1899, and served the Cumming Circuit in 1900 and the Pendergrass Circuit in 1901. That fall he again asked for location on account of the health of his family. In 1906-07 he served as supply on the Adrian Circuit and 1908 on the Garfield Circuit. He was readmitted into the South Georgia Conference at Quitman in the fall of 1908. He then served the following appointments: Garfield Circuit, 1909-11; Reidsville and Shiloh, 1912-13; Helena and Scotland, 1914-16; Abbeville, 1917-18; Tennille, 1919-21; Richland, 1922; Louisville, 1923-25; Unadilla, 1926-29. At the Conference at Macon in 1929 he was appointed to Adel and served one month. He started off with the work there in high favor with the people. He attended the Missionary Conference at Valdosta on December 19, and seemed happy and cheerful. He was taken suddenly ill just after midnight and passed away quietly within a few moments. His people at Adel wanted a service there, and his presiding elder, a lifelong friend, conducted the service. Several of his preacher friends were present and took part, paying high tribute to his life and character. It was his request that Charles R. Jenkins, pastor of Mulberry Street Methodist Church at Macon, have charge of his funeral. His body was carried to Forsyth, his boyhood home, where the final service was held among his friends in the church where he worshiped God in other days.—J. H. House.

George Washington Thomas, son of William S. and Margaret Chisholm Thomas, was born July 19, 1841, in Troup County, Ga., and died at Columbus, Ga., January 18, 1930. Except two years, 1845-47, spent in Louisiana, his entire life was lived in Georgia. In 1852 his father moved to Bartow County, Ga., where the eleven-year-old boy entered school. He was converted in 1858, joined the Methodist Church at Cassville, Ga., and entered the Cassville Baptist College. In 1861 he withdrew from college to join the Confederate Army as a volunteer. He was a brave soldier, and by successive promotions became Captain of the Twenty-Second Georgia Regiment, which position he held when the Civil War closed. He attended the Stilesboro Institute in Bartow County, 1866-67, and taught school from 1868 to 1873. In 1877 he was married to Miss Mary Frances Payne, of Ringgold, Ga., who died in 1893. To them were born six children—Clara Pearl, Marvin Cecil, Garnett Lee, Bertha Estelle, Percival Clarence, and Duke Clinton—all of whom, except the first and third, survive. His second marriage was to Miss Eugenia McClain, of Pelham, Ga., who, with their two children—Mittie Florence and George Russell—is still living. Brother Thomas was admitted into the North Georgia Conference in 1873, at Newnan, Ga. Among the pastorates which he served in this Conference were Subligna, Dalton Circuit, and Ringgold Circuit. Over three hundred people united with the churches in these charges on profession of faith under his ministry. He was missionary to the mountaineers of this section, and through his efforts Reinhardt College, Waleska, Ga., was established. He transferred to the South Georgia Conference in 1897, and served the following charges: Hagan Circuit, 1897; Rocky Ford Circuit, 1898; Girard Circuit, 1899-1900; Jakin and Donaldsonville, 1901; Arlington, 1902; Bibb Circuit, 1903; Parrott Circuit, 1904; Springvale and Georgetown, 1905; Geneva Circuit, 1906-07; Pocatoula Circuit, 1908; Cusseta Circuit, 1909; Mauk Circuit, 1910; St. Mary's, 1911; Waresboro Circuit, 1912-13; Pearson Circuit, 1914. He was superannuated in 1914, and made his home in Columbus, Ga., since that time.

Joseph Pruitt Wardlaw, son of Joseph Madison and Elizabeth Pruitt Wardlaw, was born in Walker County, Ga., December 12, 1847. He was educated in the schools of that county, and, after two years spent in the Confederate army, at the age of nineteen, he entered Emory College, at Oxford, Ga. Circumstances made it necessary for him to leave college after two years. In 1870 he entered the traveling connection in the North Georgia Conference, and was assigned to Ringgold for 1871-72. At the end of the year 1872 he was transferred to the South Georgia Conference, in whose membership he spent the remainder of his long and useful life. It will thus be seen that his membership in the South Georgia Conference is almost coexistent with the Conference; for the Conference had been organized only four years when he became one of its members. The following is a list of the charges he served: 1873-74, Valdosta Station; 1875, Geneva Circuit; 1876, Girard and Trinity; 1877-79, Buena Vista; 1880-81, Blakely Circuit; 1882-84, Louisville; 1885, Springfield Circuit; 1886-87, New Houston Street, Savannah; 1888, Sandersville; 1889, Sandersville and Tennille; 1890-91, Sandersville District; 1892, Valdosta District; 1893-94, Superintendent and Agent of the South Georgia Conference Orphans' Home. The latter part of the year 1894, in connection with the Orphans' Home work, he served as presiding elder of the Macon District. 1895, North Macon District; 1896, Cuthbert; 1897-1900, Waynesboro; 1901-03, Thomasville; 1904-07, First Church, Americus; 1908-09, First Church, Waycross; 1910-12, Fort Valley; 1913-16, Cordele District; 1917-20, First Street, Macon; 1921, Ingleside, Macon. Here he served for only a short time when he was sent to Cuthbert. 1922, Eastman; 1923, Pelham; 1924, Brinson and Iron City. At the Conference which met in the fall of 1924 he was superannuated at his own request. He was married twice. His first wife was Miss Anna Simmie Coachman, a woman of rare gifts and deep spirituality. To this union were born six children, three of whom survive: Joseph Coachman, Wilkinson Coachman, and Mrs. Bessie Mae Lockhart. His second wife was Mrs. Fannie Wynne Pound, of Cordelia, Ga., a woman of great piety and much usefulness.—W. C. Lovett.

JOHN B. ELLIS was born in Robertson County, Tenn., February, 1848, and departed this life October 11, 1929, surrounded by devoted sons and daughters in his home in Springfield, Mo. He was converted on September 15, 1867, and licensed to preach in February, 1869. Four years later he was ordained deacon by Bishop Marvin at Gallatin, Tenn. In July, 1876, he was married to Miss Eliza Tennessee Matthews, daughter of Alexander Matthews, a member of the Tennessee Conference. To this union were born four sons and four daughters, seven of whom are living to testify to the noble character of their father and to express the hope of meeting him in that better world. Soon after Dr. Ellis was married, he brought his bride to Missouri; and in September of that year he joined the Southwest Missouri Conference at Miami, Mo. During the following year he served the Neosho Circuit. Soon after he moved to Neosho, Mrs. Ellis was employed as music teacher at Morrisville College and Dr. Ellis was made pastor of the Morrisville Circuit during the second year of his ministry and remained as pastor one year. He was sent to the Marshfield Circuit in the fall of 1878 and remained there two years. In 1880 he was appointed to the Springfield Circuit, and it was at this Conference that he was ordained elder. During 1881-82 he was pastor of Westport Circuit, and in 1883 he was made presiding elder of the Springfield District, where he remained three years. In 1886 he was elected president of Morrisville College, which high position he filled with great honor to the Church and blessing to all the students for nine years. He was elected for another term of five years, but declined to remain. In the fall of 1894 Dr. Ellis was sent to the Lebanon District as presiding elder, from which place he was sent back to the Springfield District in 1895. At the Conference of 1896 he was made presiding elder of the Neosho Circuit where he remained two years, when he was elected president of Scarritt Collegiate Institute at Neosho. Dr. Ellis moved his family to Springfield in 1902, and from his home he served many Churches in and around the city. Among the members of these Churches he had served and throughout the Springfield District he had many friends and admirers who were tender in their ministries to his last day on earth. At the Conference of 1923 he took the superannuate relationship, but did not cease his labors of love and ministry until he was unable to go where he was called, for he was in great demand for funerals and for sermons in the pulpits throughout the section of the Conference where he spent so many years of genuine service. In September, 1928, Mrs. Ellis became very ill and lingered in a helpless condition for more than a year. Her faithful husband forgot himself and sat by her bedside and literally gave his life for her, and soon after she went home to heaven he was permitted to join her again in the City of God. The funeral services were held from St. Paul's Church on Sunday afternoon, October 13, 1929. William H. Mansfield, pastor, conducted the services and was assisted by the following ministers: J. R. Hargis, H. U. Campbell (presiding elder), H. A. Wood, Alonzo Patison, J. A. Jared, J. A. Young, W. S. Butts, and J. A. Robertson. The body was laid to rest in beautiful Maple Park beside his wife.

JESSE FRANKLIN PIKE was born in Patrick County, Va., January 14, 1849; was married to Miss Mary A. Patton, February 12, 1871, in Kentucky; and died at his home in Webb City, Mo., February 28, 1930. He professed religion in early young manhood and was received on trial into the Louisville Conference in 1876. He preached six years in that Conference and then transferred to the White River Conference in Arkansas, where he served six years, at the close of which time he transferred to the Southwest Missouri Conference in 1886, and served the Pinkhill Circuit the ensuing year, after which he served the following charges: Everet Circuit from the fall of 1889 to the fall of 1892; Papinville Circuit, 1893; Eldorado Springs Station, 1894-95; Richland and Dixon, 1896; Niangua Circuit, 1897-98; Mountain Grove Station, 1899-1900; Nevada Circuit, 1901-02; Appleton City Circuit, 1903; Jasper City Circuit, 1904; Seneca Circuit, 1905; Cassville Circuit, 1906. Apparently his health was failing, so he asked for the superannuate relation and moved into the bounds of the West Texas Conference, and with improved health he was transferred to that Conference in the fall of 1906 and served the Water Valley charge the ensuing year. He was appointed to Carnes City in 1908-10 and to Oakville Circuit in 1910-11. When the Conference met at San Marcos in 1911 he asked for the supernumerary relation, and in the minutes for the year 1912 his name still appears in this same relation to the Conference. So, just after the adjournment of that Conference, or in the year 1913, he transferred back to the Southwest Missouri Conference, and his name appears as a supernumerary in 1913; since 1914 his name has appeared in the list of superannuates. He had a good mind, acquired a little knowledge of Greek, and while in Texas he learned enough of the Spanish language to converse with the Mexicans. He was a plain gospel preacher, rather on the evangelistic order, and won many souls to Christ and the Church. He built some churches and parsonages and improved many more. He was a useful man among us. By his request I held his funeral services in his home at Webb City, in which Brothers C. E. Ruyle, his presiding elder, and J. M. Villines, who was also once his pastor, took part, on March 3, and he was laid to rest in the beautiful Mount Hope cemetery. He leaves his companion, a brother, Rev. W. G. Pike, a nephew, and perhaps a few other relatives.—R. G. Flummer.

Henry D. Hogan was born April 29, 1840, near Nashville, Tenn., and came to the end of a long and useful earthly life on March 12, 1930, at Overland Park, Kans. On his twenty-first birthday at Nashville, Tenn., he enlisted in Company B, 24th Tennessee Regiment of the Confederate Army. At the end of the Civil War he was the only survivor of his company. He served under Generals Hood and Johnston, taking part in important battles in Tennessee and Kentucky. He was a member of the army that sought to obstruct Sherman's march to the sea. In addition to his duties as a soldier, he was elected chaplain in 1862 and served in this capacity until the close of the war. During the revivals conducted by him in the army camps many of his comrades were happily converted. For the past twenty years he served as chaplain of Camp No. 80, Confederate Veterans, Kansas City, Mo. In 1867 Brother Hogan joined the Tennessee Conference and was ordained by Bishop Pierce at Nashville, Tenn. In 1873 he was transferred to the Western Conference and assigned to Atchison Station at Atchison, Kans. Later he served as pastor at Effingham, Council Grove, Hillsdale, Oskaloosa, Kickapoo, Holton, and Rosedale, Kans., and for fifteen years was presiding elder in the Atchison and Council Grove Districts in Kansas and Nebraska. He was a home missionary in this sparsely settled mid-west territory and drove from place to place preaching in schoolhouses, homes, and brush arbors, calling the people to repentance and to God. In this field of work he was recognized as a most successful revivalist. He became a member of this Conference in 1906 when the Western Conference was merged with the Southwest Missouri Conference. In 1876 Brother Hogan was married to Miss Clara Dill, daughter of Dr. E. W. Dill, a well-known physician of old Westport. To this union were born eight children: Mrs. Joseph Goode, Miss Ada Hogan, Harry W. Hogan, Edward J. Hogan, Mrs. D. G. Micholopoulos, and Mrs. C. G. Williams. He is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Ella Drumwright, and nine grandchildren. The funeral was conducted from the Westport Methodist Church on Friday afternoon, March 14, by W. A. Tetley, M. C. Magers, and W. H. Comer of Council Grove, Kans. Burial was in the Pleasant Valley cemetery near Stanley, Kans.

James J. Keller, one of the best-known and most universally loved superannuates of the Conference, after a prolonged illness accompanied with much suffering, passed to his reward on December 24, 1929. He was admitted into the Southwest Missouri Conference in 1882 and served faithfully and well until 1922, when he asked for and received the superannuate relation. Before entering this Conference he preached a few years as local preacher, part of this time in West Virginia, where he preached for the United Brethren. During this time, at a meeting held there, among the large number of conversions was H. H. Fouts, now one of the best-known bishops of the United Brethren Church. His first work in this Conference was as a junior preacher under P. T. (Pete) Cobb. He was united in marriage to Zipporah Woods in 1882. He served the following charges in this Conference: Lamar Mission, Cassville Circuit, Neosho Circuit, Pineville, Sarcoxie, Red Oak, Exeter, Newtonia, Jasper City, South Greenfield, Pink Hill, Lone Jack, Chilhowie, East Lynn, Ash Grove, Fair Grove, Niangua, Bolivar (five years), Morrisville Circuit (six years), and Phoenix. Since his superannuation he and his faithful companion have resided at Morrisville, where they were loved and honored. During Brother Keller's ministry over 1,100 were received into the Southern Methodist Church; besides a large number of those who entered other Churches after being led to the Lord under his persuasive, positive presentation are preaching today. They are in the Baptist, Presbyterian, M. E. Church, and M. E. Church, South. One of those in our Church is W. H. Hessler. Although Brother Keller gave himself in earnest and efficient devotion to the ministry he never received as much as $600 for one year's salary, and most often less than $300. One year he received $78 and a pair of socks. Besides his wife, he leaves two sons (O. P. and O. W.), five grandchildren, three brothers, and two sisters. One daughter, Miriam, died at nineteen years of age. The funeral was conducted December 26, at the Morrisville Methodist Church. C. H. Briggs, one of his first presiding elders and under whom he served in three different districts, conducted the funeral, assisted by H. U. Campbell, W. H. Mansfield, Ava Pitchford, and J. R. Hargis. The following brother ministers were pallbearers: E. L. Thomas, J. A. Jared, Charles Becker, T. I. Yost, Brooks Shook, and E. E. Burton. The interment was in the Morrisville cemetery.—E. E. Burton.

THOMAS HARRISON HICKMAN was born in Hickman, Ky., March 26, 1885, and departed this life at Windsor, Mo., on June 13, 1930, after a week's illness with pneumonia, preceded by an attack of influenza. He came with his parents to Missouri when about fifteen years old. He attended the University of Missouri, Hendrix College at Conway, Ark., and Northwestern University, where he completed a course in Civil Engineering. He was employed as a civil engineer several years in Colorado and then in Missouri. He was converted and received into the Church at Webb City, Mo., on May 10, 1908, by George E. Hargis. He felt the call to preach and gave up a lucrative position to enter the ministry. He was admitted into the Southwest Missouri Conference on trial at Nevada, Mo., in September, 1913. He was appointed to Exeter, afterwards called Cassville Circuit, where he served two years. He then served Sarcoxie two years, Lincoln four years, and Warrensburg three years. In 1924 he went to Colorado, thinking it would improve his health, and was appointed to St. Paul's Church, Denver. After two years he returned to Missouri and was appointed in September, 1926, to Windsor, where he served until his death. He was married to Miss Lela Hesse, of Cassville, Mo., on July 8, 1914. To them was born one son, who died in infancy. Brother Hickman is survived by his widow and four sisters—Mrs. J. B. Wisley, Mrs. Jane Tunnel, Mrs. Julia Jarvis, and Mrs. John Sanders. The motto in Brother Hickman's study—"Time: Shall we use it, or abuse it, or lose it? Its only value is its use"—reveals one of the secrets of his success. He believed in "buying up the time" and using it for the highest and holiest ends. His deep consecration and strong will power kept him faithful to every task, in spite of his battle with poor health for several years. It is said that he never missed an appointment until the day he went to bed, a very sick man, just before his death. The week before he took down with his fatal illness was spent in ministering to the sick, comforting the bereaved, and burying the dead. He was always thinking of others rather than himself. In the last days of his life he carried the sick, the shut-in, the poor, and the unfortunate in his heart. His library, where he spent as much time as possible and where he delighted to be, reveals the taste of the man. He loved to associate with the best minds of the past and the present. He was a lover of good books and drank in their message that he might be better fitted to serve. He was ever seeking to know the Master's will and preparing a message for men. His one book, now in print, "The Kingdom of God," reflects most clearly his high regard for humanity and his noble conception of the Father's kingdom and its nature. He had just finished for publication another book, "Paths to Christian Leadership." As a citizen he stood for civic righteousness, seeking to promote the welfare of the people and to safeguard the morals of youth, giving liberally of his ability and means to every worthy cause. During his pastorate at Windsor he organized the Windsor

Provident Association and did all he could to make it a "live functioning organization." When the World War came, he offered his services to his country, manifesting that spirit that ever characterized him, a willingness to die if need be for what he believed to be right, that the world might be made a better place in which to live. As a minister and a preacher he felt that he was the mouthpiece of a divine message. The funeral service was held in our church at Windsor, which could not accommodate the large number of former and present parishioners and many friends who gathered to show their love and friendship, on Sunday afternoon, June 13, 1930. The service was conducted by F. L. Thomas, his presiding elder, assisted by P. H. Holland, J. D. Prater, and the writer. The active pallbearers were members of his Church and the honorary pallbearers his fellow pastors of the Sedalia District. His body was laid to rest in Laurel Oak Cemetery, Windsor.—Frank M. Burton.

WINFIELD COOPER BEWLEY.—I became acquainted with the subject of this sketch in 1889 while he was a student at Morrisville College. I knew him intimately through the balance of his life. We were in Vanderbilt University together in 1880 and 1881. He joined the Southwest Missouri Conference in 1883 and I in 1885. Neither of us took a transfer through the years. He took the superannuate relation in 1925. His first charge was Butler, three years; then Neosho, one year; Webb City, four years; Agent for Scarritt Institute, one year; Neosho District, three years; Belton and Martin City, two years; Harrisonville, one year; Webb City, two years; Carterville and Prospect, four years; Clinton, three years; Versailles, four years; Arch Street and Marvin, four years; Lamont, two years; Buckner Circuit, one year; Hillsdale Circuit, one year; Olive Street, Kansas City, four years; Atherton and Blue Parkway, one year; Blue Parkway, one year; then five years on the superannuate list. He was born in Bolivar, Mo., in 1852, the son of Jacob and Melinda Bewley, who came to Missouri from Tennessee in an early day. Brother Bewley was converted under the ministry of M. Adkinson and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Smith Chapel in Saline County, in 1868. Soon after joining the Conference he was married to Miss Elizabeth Allen, who, with five children, survives him. Brother Bewley was a true man in the finest sense of the word —a humble, loyal, industrious servant of God, a good preacher, an ideal pastor, an unfailing friend. He passed away at his home in Kansas City, Mo., July 31, 1930. The pastor of his family, R. F. Campbell, directed the funeral services, some of his Conference brethren assisting and others acting as pallbearers. Burial was in Forest Hill Cemetery, Kansas City, Mo.—W. H. Winton.

Ques. 12. Who have withdrawn or been expelled? None.

Ques. 13. Who are transferred to other Conferences? C. C. Daniel, to the Memphis Conference. 1.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? Thomas L. Darnell, William W. Pinson. 2.

Thomas Lavert Darnell was born April 17, 1848, and died July 27, 1930. The life of this old circuit rider was not of the kind to attract the ease-loving of modern times. Born poor, on a farm in northern Alabama in 1848, left fatherless at an early age, with no opportunity for an education, forced to work to support his mother, five brothers, and sister, this man learned to love to serve, and yet had time to dream of being somebody and doing something for the world. He married while young, and his wife taught him to read and encouraged his aspirations to make something of himself. When he was converted the world was changed for him, and he wanted to tell others of the marvelous things he had experienced, but he had not intended to preach, his daughter says. This call came in the absence of the minister in an old-time meeting, and God must have been speaking to him, for he tried to preach, but so great was his failure, as he saw it, that he rushed to a near-by spring and dipped his burning face in the water to get relief. But he had started and went on to preach, to study, to serve, to endure and keep the faith, with little or no ambition to serve the larger appointments, but satisfied to work where he felt he was most needed, and in fields he knew so well. He was admitted into the Tennessee Conference in 1876, and remained there, with the exception of five years spent in the Oklahoma Conference, throughout his active ministry. He was honored by being elected delegate to the General Conference. We think sometimes of these old circuit riders as ignorant men, because they lacked the usual means of education, but Brother Darnell never ceased trying to equip himself for his work. He carried his Webster's dictionary to the field and learned it well, and became a well and accurately informed man. Neither hardships nor poverty, nor sickness in his family, kept him from burning the midnight oil in his struggle to remove the deficiencies of his early training. And this indomitable spirit and courage characterized the man. He stood for the best and let nothing drive him from his position. He passed away at his old home near Spring Hill, Tenn. —C. E. Hawkins.

William Washington Pinson was born in Cheatham County, Tenn., April 4, 1854, finished the academic course at Webb School in May, 1878, joined the Tennessee Conference in October, 1878, was married to Miss Belle Murrell on November 30, 1882, and entered into eternal joys October 7, 1930. Lacking only a few days, he was an active preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for fifty-two years. His work in the Tennessee Conference from 1878 to 1885 is manifested in the lives of many people converted under his fervid ministry—people who continue to live by the faith which brought them into the joy of personal salvation. From 1885 to 1896 his ministry was abundantly fruitful to the salvation and edification of men and women in the State of Texas. In 1896 he was transferred to the South Georgia Conference, and later to the Louisville Conference. After he was elected to the position of Secretary of the Board of Missions, he transferred to his first love, the Tennessee Conference. Doctor Pinson was a world character; thought in world terms, and did world deeds. In the crowning effort of his long and useful life William W. Pinson became a world personality. In his origination of the Centenary Movement in our Church, he projected into all Protestant Christianity a propelling power for missions that continues in force after his death, and, to his great credit, is independent, in its ongoing, of his personality or presence, its power and persistence being inherent in itself rather than in the man who originated it. For that reason the right estimation of William W. Pinson and his work cannot be made just now while the flowers still lie upon his grave; but in the future sometime the historian of Methodism will behold the splendor of his fertile brain and consecrated heart, and tell the world about him.—J. E. Harrison.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? William F. Andrews, William A. Pounds, Henry W. Weise. 3.

WILLIAM FRANK ANDREWS, son of Allen S. and Virginia Hudson Andrews, was born April 12, 1865, at Dayton, Ala. He was married to Miss Laura Seay, at Sheffield, Ala., in 1895. To this union were born six children: Allen Seay, who died in infancy, Mrs. John W. Glenn, Will Allen Andrews, Mrs. J. S. Dalston, Mrs. W. A. Weeks, and Mrs. J. Russell Weeks. Dr. Andrews united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Greensboro, Ala., in 1884. He was graduated from the University of Alabama with the C.E. degree and was awarded the A.M. degree by Southern University, Greensboro, of which his noted father, Allen S. Andrews, was president for fifteen years. Dr. Andrews was licensed to preach at Greensboro in 1885 and was admitted on trial into the North Alabama Conference the same year. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Keener and received into full connection in 1887 and ordained elder by Bishop Hendrix in 1889. He filled the following appointments during his forty-five years as a traveling Methodist preacher: Trianor Circuit, 1885-87; Second Church, Anniston, 1887-88; Sheffield, 1888-91; First Church, Florence, 1891-95; First Church, Tuscumbia, 1895-97; First Church, Gadsden, 1897-1901; Lafayette District, 1901-03; First Church, Little Rock, 1903-07; Centenary, St. Louis, 1907-09; St. Paul, Houston, 1909; Marvin, Tyler, 1910-14; First Church, Texarkana, 1914-17; Kelly Memorial, Longview, 1917-21; First Church, Palestine, 1921-23; Tyler District, 1923-26; First Church, Huntsville, 1927-29. He was reappointed to Huntsville by Bishop Hay at the Annual Conference held in Palestine in November, 1929. On December 27, while reclining in his chair after the departure of his children and grandchildren, who had been spending part of the holiday season with Dr. and Mrs. Andrews, he ceased to breathe. The house in which his spirit had its abode for almost sixty-five years could no longer be occupied. His body was laid to rest in Rosewood Cemetery, Tyler, Tex., December 28, 1929.—L. B. Elrod.

William A. Pounds was born near Center, in Shelby County, Tex., June 5, 1861. When he was about seventeen years old he joined the Methodist Church. When he was twenty-nine he was granted license to preach. In 1908, at the session held in Beaumont, he was admitted on trial into the traveling connection, and served ten pastoral assignments in the Texas Conference. Beginning his itinerant ministry at Burke-Diboll, he was appointed successively to Center Circuit, Tyler Circuit, Chandler, Cedar Bayou, Waller, Katy, Seabrook, Matagorda, and then, because the people knew and loved him especially, he went for a second pastorate to Waller, where he finished his course. His final departure was probably as he would have desired. Knowing that the time for superannuation was near, he had arranged for the little home at Highlands; but on this good day he went to Waller and preached, then, accepting the hospitality of a friend's home, he tarried for refreshment and rest, and before evening "He was not, for God took him." In 1883 Brother Pounds was married to Miss Sarah Brookshire, of Shelby County, and into the home thus established came eight children. Three sons and three daughters survive. Through the family this itinerant makes a noble contribution. One son is our Conference Treasurer, a daughter is the wife of one of our preachers, the others live the life that becometh the gospel and serve faithfully in the Church. Brother Pounds was never assigned to a city church. He held the line in the wayside places, where there are many difficulties. He turned men to God and established them in the faith, then they came in many instances to the city and stood up to be counted for the best things of our citizenship. When the hour of his release came there was no hurry or flurry, but there was no delay and trial of waiting. He went to his preaching place, sang the hymns he loved so well, prayed for his people, published his good tidings, and passed to the Saints' Everlasting Rest.—J. W. Wills.

Henry W. Weise was born in Grassyville, Bastrop County, Tex., February 28, 1862. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1875, was licensed to preach in 1882, and was admitted on trial into the German Mission Conference in the same year. He was ordained a deacon by Bishop McTyeire in 1884, and elder in 1886. Brother Weise served the following charges: New Fountain (assistant pastor), 1882-83; Saraparu Street, New Orleans, 1883-85; Lake Charles, 1885-86; Bellville, Milheim, and Peters, 1886-87; Industry, 1887-90; Weimar and Hackberry, 1890-93; East Bernard, 1893-95; Houston Mission, 1895-98; Western District, 1898-1902; San Antonio, 1900-02; Eastern District, 1902-03; Bartlett and Beyersville, 1903-04; Bellville and Peters, 1904-08; East Bernard, 1908-11; Eastern District and Houston Mission, 1911-14; Llano, 1914-17; East Bernard, 1917-21 (in 1918 several of the charges of the former German Mission Conference were transferred to the Texas Conference, including the East Bernard charge, and Brother Weise was transferred with the charge he was serving); Anderson and Richards, 1921-23; Milano and Chriesman, 1923-24; Rosenburg and Sugarland, 1924-26; Thorndale, 1926-29; superannuated in 1929. H. W. Weise was married to Elizabeth Brodbeck in 1883. To this union six children were born, of whom three preceded their father to heaven in early childhood. Sister Weise, who shared with her husband the hardships as well as the joys and blessings of a Methodist preacher, two sons (Otto H. and Bernard), and the daughter (Mrs. J. B. Oliver), cherish the memory of their husband and father.—E. A. Konken.

Ques. 15. Who are the deacons of one year? R. B. Gateley, Hubert G. Hawkins, J. Ellis McGaughey, D. Townes Windham, Thomas W. Moore, Walton D. Gardner, R. L. Lemons, Ed R. Barcus, Jr. 8.

Ques. 16. Who else is in the class of the fourth year? Roy J. Lewis. 1.

Ques. 17. What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been elected deacons? Traveling preachers, Bernard Lewis Hatch, Felix Clyde Woodward. 2. Local preacher, Lewis Leroy Denman. 1.

Harden, R. L. Doggett, C. P. Carter, J. T. Miller. 5.

Charles Pettigru Carter, youngest child of Samuel E. and Amanda McMillan Carter, was born in the Sharon Church community of Abbeville County, S. C., June 3, 1860, and passed to his eternal home from the parsonage at Leesville, S. C., August 22, 1930. His parents were members of the Baptist Church, but having been reared in a Methodist community and under Methodist influence he joined the Methodist Church at twenty years of age. He joined under the ministry of C. D. Mann and was later happily converted under the preaching of W. P. Meadors. He enlisted at once in all forms of Christian work and soon became a recognized leader in his community. Having a good voice and being fond of music, he soon became the choir leader of his Church. In early manhood he left the farm and was employed by the Seaboard Air Line Railway Company for several years. It was during the years of service with the railroad that the conviction of a call to preach came, and he was licensed to preach at a District Conference held at Ninety-Six in the year 1898. Limited in education and conscious of this limitation, he early applied himself to hard study at home. He became especially versatile in the Scriptures, being able to quote large sections of the Bible from memory. He consequently knew the Book and became a real Bible preacher. For twelve years Brother Carter served the Conference as a supply and was admitted on trial into the Upper South Carolina Conference at the session held in Bethel Church, Spartanburg (its first session), in 1915. He served the following charges as a supply: East Chester Circuit, 1905-06; Lancaster and Chester Mission, 1907; Van Wyck Circuit, 1908-09; Rock Hill City Mission, 1910-11; Lancaster Circuit, 1912-13; Clifton and Glendale, 1914-16. After admission into the Conference he served the following charges: Travelers' Rest, 1916; Bethel, Anderson, 1917-18; Clifton and Glendale, 1919-21; West Main Street, Rock Hill, 1922-23; Van Wyck, 1924; Bethel, Rock Hill, 1925-26; Kelton Circuit, 1927; South Easley, 1928-29; Leesville Circuit, 1930. The funeral services were conducted by the writer in the Leesville Methodist Church, assisted by E. O. Watson, editor of the Southern Christian Advocate, and J. O. Smith. The body after lying in state in the church for an hour was then taken to Sharon Church, six miles west of Abbeville, in the community where he had been born and reared, for burial. In young manhood he was married to Miss Julia J. Penny, who survives. Four children blessed their union. One, Dora Beatrice, died in infancy. Three children survive: Rosa Lee (now Mrs. R. E. Anderson), of Richburk; L. A. Carter, a member of the Upper South Carolina Conference; C. A. Carter, a minister of the Lutheran Church, living in Philadelphia, Pa.—A. N. Brunson.

Robert Lewis Doggett was born December 28, 1868, the son of J. L. and Samantha Doggett. At about the age of ten years he gave his life to God and united with Tanner's Grove Methodist Church, just a few miles from Forest City, N. C., his boyhood home. Growing to manhood, he answered the call to the ministry and served as a local preacher for three years. He later joined the Western North Carolina Conference and served various charges until 1917, when he was transferred to the Upper South Carolina Conference. On September 21, 1898, Brother Doggett was married to Miss Della Carpenter, a daughter of a Methodist minister. It was due largely to the failing health of his faithful wife and companion that he sought a change of climate with the hope of improving her health. Thus he came to South Carolina to take up his ministry among us. But his wife never fully regained her health, and she passed into the other world in January, 1926, while they were serving the Pickens Circuit. Greatly saddened by the separation of his beloved helpmeet and his own health fast fading away, he was forced to take the superannuate relation at the Conference of 1928. Since that time he made his home mainly at Forest City, N. C. The charges he served in the Upper South Carolina Conference after his transfer from the Western North Carolina Conference are as follows: Carlisle, 1917; Cowpens, 1918; Westminster, 1919-21; Phoenix, 1922; Pomaria, 1923; Kelton, 1924; Walhalla Circuit, 1925; Pickens Circuit, 1926; Van Wyck, 1927. He was superannuated at the Conference of 1928. He died in the hospital at Union, S. C., on June 26, 1930. Funeral services were held on June 27 at Tanner's Grove Methodist Church, near Forest City, N. C., with T. C. Cannon in charge, assisted by M. F. Moores, of Forest City, a member of the Western North Carolina Conference. Surviving him are three children: Mason, Margaret, and James; one daughter-in-law, Mrs. L. C. Doggett; one brother, H. B. Doggett; and three sisters, Mrs. J. N. Moore, Mrs. E. N. Crowder, and Mrs. D. P. Tate.—T. C. Cannon.

THOMAS FRANKLIN GIBSON.—On the morning of December 8, 1929, the spirit of Brother Gibson, for five years a superannuate, departed this earth. After superannuation he lived on a little farm on the Glendale Road about three miles from Spartanburg. Brother Gibson was thrice married. His first wife was Sarah Anne Carr, of Andrews, N. C. Of this union J. L. Gibson is the only surviving child. His second wife was Margaret Louisa Palmer, of Nollie, N. C., and of this union the following children survive: Robert H. and Palmer W. Gibson. His last wife, who survives him, was Flora Cain, of Hymans, S. C. They were married in the year 1906, and the following children survive: Olin W. and Mary Leonard Gibson. There were four children who preceded the father to the grave. One of them, William B. Gibson, was for one year pastor of what is now called West Main Street charge, Rock Hill, but he died at the beginning of his second year in the Conference. This was in the year 1908. Brother Gibson was thoroughly consecrated to his work. His early life was spent in Western North Carolina. Here he grew up during the years of the War between the States. He was born November 29, 1850, at Nebo Station, near Marion, N. C. His early education was, of course, limited. A great part of his training was gotten while sitting on a log, with an old negro man as his instructor. These hours were spent in preparing himself for life, and in spite of the lack of opportunity he was a very earnest student, and a report from Marion Academy, which he attended in 1877, shows that his grades were from 97 to 100. He also attended Weaver College, N. C. During his early years he helped to grade for mountain railroad beds in order to secure money to buy books and to go to school. At this work he earned 30 cents per day. He made good use of all his opportunities and became a very effective preacher. He was a good conversationalist, and his sermons were carefully prepared and often delivered with power. Brother Gibson was licensed to preach by the Weaverville Quarterly Conference of the Holston Annual Conference, June 18, 1881. James S. Kennedy was the presiding elder. From the records at hand it seems that he entered the Holston Conference on trial in the fall of 1883, and was appointed to the Toe River Mission, where he served for two years. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Keener at Cleveland, Tenn., October 25, 1885, and elder by Bishop Keener at Bristol, Va., October 5, 1890. His appointments were as follows: 1882-85, Toe River Mission; 1886-87, Haywood Circuit; 1888-89, Fall Branch Circuit; 1890, Bristol Circuit; 1891, Watauga Circuit; 1892, Cheston Circuit; 1893-94, Forsythe Circuit; 1895, Summerfield Circuit; 1896, Andrews Circuit; 1897, Marshall Circuit; 1898-99, South Fork Circuit; 1900, North Cleveland Circuit. In 1901 he was transferred to the South Carolina Conference and was aopointed to the Kinards Circuit; 1902, Cheraw Circuit; 1903, Jefferson Circuit; 1904-05, Lamar Circuit; 1906, Liberty Circuit; 1907, Pacolet Circuit; 1908-09, Loris Circuit; 1910-11, Norway Circuit; 1912, Bethany Circuit; 1913-14, Fort Mott Circuit; 1915-16, Campobello Circuit; 1917-20, Lancaster Circuit; 1921-22, Leesville Circuit; 1923, Carlisle Circuit; 1924, Limestone Street, Gaffney. As the records of his appointments indicate, Brother Gibson served charges in North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, and Tennessee, and the hardships he suffered would perhaps have discouraged others in the ministry. He faced many and severe hardships during his ministry on mountain circuits, being required to ford swollen streams to meet his appointments, and on one occasion he rode from daybreak until after dark in snow three feet deep and covered a distance of only nine miles. At the end of his ride he was so numb and his feet were so frozen to the stirrups of his saddle that it was necessary for members of his family to take him from the saddle and carry him into the house. His salary was usually small. He received as little as $150 a year for his services, and much of this was paid in corn, meat, chickens, and horse feed; and the matter of moving almost every year was enough to break the spirit of any man, to say nothing of that of his wife and children; yet Brother Gibson was not discouraged, nor did he let anything come between him and his Lord's work, and even in old age he was sweet-spirited and for one of his years was very much interested in and enthusiastic about the Lord's work.

WILLIAM MARION HARDEN, son of Martin and Elizabeth Stuart Harden, was born August 20, 1854. His education was begun in Elbert County, Ga., and continued at Anderson, S. C. In early life he gave his heart to God. When thirteen years old he joined the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, and in the fine Christian educational atmosphere of Due West, and especially under the teaching and influence of Dr. W. L. Pressly, he spent several years. There he grew to manhood, having already felt called to preach so distinctly that to refuse he believed would be sin. He was licensed to preach in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the age of twenty-one, O. A. Darby being the presiding elder. Brother Harden was received on trial into the South Carolina Conference in December, 1880, and for forty-two years he served in the hard places of the Conference. He was always cheerful, loved the association of his brethren of the ministry, and did with his might what his hands found to do. He not only gave himself unreservedly to the spiritual interests of his people, but was diligent in his effort to make a good home for his family and leave one for his successor. If there was no home for the preacher when he went to a charge, he usually acquired one. In 1873 he was married to Miss Elizabeth Stuart, of Anderson, S. C. To them were born two daughters and one son; one daughter, Maud Letitia, died in early childhood. The other daughter developed a malady for which Brother Harden took her to Hot Springs, Ark. In that vicinity he served for two or three years; but she also died, and after some years his faithful wife went home to heaven and left him alone with his son. Between them they managed the son's education, even graduating him in medicine, in which profession he has had marked success, being city physician at St. Petersburg, Fla. Between this son and father there was a beautiful devotion, and Brother Harden's six superannuated years were spent largely in the home of his son.—W. S. Goodwin.

JONES TRAYNHAM MILLER. — While preaching the glorious gospel of Jesus Christ at Tranquil Church, near Greenwood, S. C., on the afternoon of August 31, 1930, the spirit of Brother Miller was called home. Home-coming day was being celebrated at old Tranquil Church, and Brother Miller had been requested to preach the afternoon sermon. He was bringing his sermon to a close with an illustration which emphasized the danger of delay in accepting Jesus Christ as Lord and Master, when suddenly he was absent from the body and with the Lord. Had he been permitted to choose the manner of his departure, he would not have wished for a happier ending to his useful life. J. T. Miller was born near Waterloo, S. C., February 18, 1851. He received his early training in the public schools of Laurens County and afterwards spent two years at the Cokesbury Conference School under W. C. Benet and George F. Round. On December 14, 1876, he was married to Miss Emma S. Whitlock, of Greenwood, S. C., who preceded him to the grave by several years. The surviving children are Eustace P., D. Norman., W. Eldon, and Malcomb J. Miller, Mrs. Lottie M. Henderson and Mrs. Grace M. Heriot. When but a mere lad, Brother Miller felt that it would be his duty to preach. He joined the Methodist Church when he was fourteen years of age, but was not soundly converted until 1875. As a layman he was active in Church and Sunday school work, and in 1887, after a religious experience in which he consecrated his life wholly to the service of the Master, the call to preach, which he had felt for some years, became imperative and irresistible. Two years later, while out on the Pacific Coast, he was licensed a local preacher by the Quarterly Conference of Fresno, Calif., Pacific Conference, November 23, 1889. He was ordained a local deacon by Bishop Hargrove at Sumter, S. C., December 10, 1893, and elder by Bishop Galloway at Columbia, S. C., in 1901. As a supply, in the South Carolina Conference, from 1901-06, he served the Parksville Circuit and the Kinards Circuit. He was admitted on trial at Columbia, S. C., in November, 1906. He was appointed to serve at O'Neale Street and Mollohon, and since that time he has served the following charges: Star, Butler Circuit, Waterloo Circuit, McCormick, Enoree, Pendleton, and Richburg Circuits. No man amongst us has been more faithful to his trust, none have given a more devoted service to God and his Church than J. T. Miller. Entering the Conference at the age of fifty-five, he served for sixteen years with a vigor which was marvelous, but in the spring of 1923 a stroke of apoplexy brought about his superannuation. After superannuation he kept abreast of the times, and never for a moment did he lose his interest in the ongoing of the work of the Church. When his strength permitted and opportunity was afforded him he taught in the Sunday school and preached. Just an hour before his passing he said to a lifelong friend, "I am an old man now and my strength is well-nigh gone; I am wandering up and down the banks of the river looking for a crossing; but had I another life to give, I would give it to this ministry." He was nearer the crossing than he knew. Loving hearts and tender hands ministered to him at his passing. The grand old soldier of the Cross fell at his post of service, even as the fire of battle flashed from his eyes and his voice was lifted calling sinners to repentance. He died as he lived, gloriously.—Marvin T. Wharton.

JESSE THOMPSON WHITLEY.—In the passing of Brother Whitley on November 1, 1929, the Virginia Conference lost one of its outstanding members. For lofty character and accurate scholarship, for preaching ability and facility as a writer, he was justly held in high esteem. He came into this breathing world February 6, 1850, in Nansemond County, Va. He was the son of Mills W. and Margaret A. Whitley. Blessed with godly parents, he was early taught to fear God and keep his commandments. At the age of fifteen, under the ministry of W. B. Wellons, he made profession of saving faith and joined the Christian Church, of which his mother was a devout member. For several years he assisted Mr. Wellons in the publication of the Christian Sun, the organ of his denomination. But feeling drawn to the ministry of the gospel, he entered Richmond College to gain a better equipment for his sacred calling. Here he spent three busy and fruitful years, graduating in some departments and doing valuable work in others. In 1869 he was licensed to preach as a minister of the Christian denomination, and for ten years he rendered efficient service in the ministry of that Church. Seeing, however, as he thought, a wider and an equally congenial field of usefulness in another denomination, in March, 1879, he transferred his allegiance to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and was received into the Baltimore Conference. In November of that year he was transferred to the Western Virginia

Conference and stationed at Parkersburg. In 1881, having been appointed chaplain to the University of Virginia, he became a member of the Virginia Conference, and in its ministry he served with conspicuous ability for thirty-two years. Among the charges blessed by his labors were Salisbury, Md.; Elizabeth City, N. C.; Broad Street and Trinity, Richmond; Queen Street, Centenary, and Larchmont, Norfolk; Calvary, Danville; Centenary, Lynchburg; Duncan Memorial, Ashland; First Church, Hampton; and Main Street, Bedford. He also filled for seven years the important office of presiding elder—one year on the Farmville District, two years on the Charlottesville, and four years on the Rappahannock. In this work his thorough and painstaking methods found ample scope and yielded good results. In 1915 a throat affection with which he had been struggling for quite a while became so aggravated as to compel his retirement from active service. He then took up his residence in Norfolk, and here he spent his remaining years. In the good providence of God, these became probably the most fruitful years of his long life; for being denied the privilege of speaking much in public, he resorted to the pen, in the use of which he was already an adept. And having formed a connection with the Virginian-Pilot, he became a regular contributor to its columns. In a letter to the writer, dated April 11, 1929, he says: "I have just sent to the Virginian-Pilot the six hundred and fifty-seventh number of my series of Monday articles, begun in March, 1916. It is a source of great satisfaction to me that I am enabled through this medium to send out nearly fifty thousand copies in the interest of righteousness every Monday morning. It helps me to bear fruit in old age, a thing that we old men may well covet." These "Views of a Veteran," as he called them, were replete with valuable information and with inspiration to wise and useful living, and through them God enabled his servant to reach a much larger audience than he had ever before addressed. In them, too, the catholicity of his spirit was abundantly manifested. In addition to his ministerial duties, Dr. Whitley's activities were varied and valuable. He was for four years assistant secretary of the Conference, and for eight years he edited and published the Conference Annual, in both of which positions he rendered most efficient service. In 1920 he succeeded the lamented W. W. Vicar as secretary-treasurer of the Preachers' Relief Society, a work for which, by reason of sound judgment and a sympathetic heart, he was eminently fitted. In him the needy claimants upon the funds of that society found a wise counselor and a helpful friend. In 1904 Randolph-Macon College conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity, a just and graceful recognition of conspicuous ability and faithful service. Superannuate though he was, our brother literally died "in harness." He loved to preach and never declined an invitation that he was physically able to accept. His last Sabbath on earth was spent in filling an appointment in Suffolk, where he had lived and labored in former years. Returning to his home Sunday evening in a state of exhaustion, he was taken to his bed, and from it he never arose. Pleurisy quickly set in, and under its ravages he sank steadily until on Friday night of that week he fell asleep and entered into the rest that remains for the people of God. At his bedside ministering to his needs were his wife, Mrs. Mattie Cathon Whitley, whom he married in November, 1872, and their two daughters, Miss Mary Whitley and Mrs. Annie Whitley Pleasants, wife of Cameron E. Pleasants, of the Virginia Conference. He died as he had lived, full of faith in God and of love for his fellow men. Among his last words were these characteristic utterances: "Death awes me, but I am not afraid of it," and "Give my love to everybody." Thus passed to his reward a Christian gentleman, an able and edifying preacher, an accomplished writer, a faithful friend, a kind and affectionate husband and father, a man who, as has been well said of him, by simply living in his community and mingling with its people made it spiritually richer. Funeral services, held at Park Place Church, Norfolk, on Sunday afternoon, November 4, were conducted by the writer, assisted by R. H. Potts, William Archer Wright, H. P. Clarke, and Sparks W. Melton, of the Baptist Church, and were attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends. In Cedar Hill Cemetery at Suffolk, amid strains of sweet music and the solemn words of our burial service, his mortal remains were laid to rest.—B. F. Lipscomb.

Charles Henry Green, son of John R. and Ann D. Green, was born in Mathews County, Va., January 31, 1846. His mother was a devout Christian and began to teach him the Bible in his early years. He never forgot her training, which was a great comfort and stay to him in his young manhood. When he was about fifteen years old, the Civil War came on, and, after a short time, he entered the Confederate army and served in Company F, Fifth Virginia Cavalry, in General Payne's Brigade. After the close of the war, in 1865, he worked on the farm, and on August 11 of that year he made a public profession of faith in Christ, at Providence Church, near his home, in a meeting conducted by James E. Martin. He never doubted the work of God's Spirit in his conversion. The regenerative power was unmistakable. He taught a small private school the next three years and gave himself to study that he might deepen and broaden his education and be better prepared for the duties of life, whatever they might be. He entered Randolph-Macon College in 1869, where he spent two sessions. He was a good student and made considerable progress in his studies, especially in Greek, which he followed up after leaving college, and became no mean Greek scholar. He did not enter college with the intention of becoming a preacher, but while there he decided to make the Methodist ministry the work of his life. His work was frequently interrupted, however, on account of the weakness of his body. He was more or less an invalid all his life. He served on the following charges: Hertford, King William, Goochland, West Mathews, Wicomico, Danielstown, Danielstown and Madison, South Brunswick, King William again, Huntersville, Windsor, East Dinwiddie, Wakefield, and Whealton. He was married twice. His first wife was Miss Mary L. Green, of Mathews County, Va., who died in early life and was buried in her native county. His second wife was Miss Lizzie L. Brażeal, of Richmond, Va., who preceded him to the grave by about four years. He leaves two children to cherish his memory: Curtis M. Green, of Chester, Va., of the first marriage, and Charles W. Green, of Fairmount, W. Va., of the second marriage. Several years before his death he wrote of himself as follows: "I lay no claim to extraordinary piety. I have seasons of doubt and fear, but I have seasons of ecstasy, the thrills of eternal life. I have a strong hope of heaven." The stream of his spiritual life ran deep, fed from the never-failing fountains of God's grace, giving him freshness and sweetness in his old age and feebleness. Toward the close of his life he would sometimes express regret that he had been able to accomplish so little in his work for God and his Church, and that thought seemed to embarrass him; but, later on, he added that he believed his work was not done, and that he hoped to take it up again in the great beyond and somehow make it measure up to his intentions. Early in the morning of November 7, 1929, at Chester, Va., he peacefully, but bravely, walked out into "the thoroughfare we call death, ready to take up his unfinished task," with new and abundant life, in the land of love divine. On Saturday afternoon, the third day after his death, his funeral services were held in Monument Methodist Church, Richmond, conducted by Costen J. Harrell, assisted by Fred R. Chenault and the writer. His body sleeps in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, beside the grave of his devoted wife.—W. T. Williams.

John Rufus Gill died Friday morning, January 31, 1930, at his home in Virginia. His death resulted from double pneumonia following influenza contracted in his pastoral work. His four children had been summoned and were with their father while he was still conscious. Mrs. Gill was in another room too sick to be told of her husband's death. The funeral was conducted from the Methodist Church on Sunday, February 2, by the writer, assisted by E. R. Harris, the Baptist pastor of the village. The remains, after temporary interment in Virgilina, now repose in the Gordonsville cemetery. Brother Gill was born August 22, 1869, at Miskimon, Northumberland County, Va. He was the son of Zachary and Nannie Davis Gill. The Gills were sturdy Welsh people who settled in Maryland before the War of Independence. The grandfather of J. R. Gill came to Virginia shortly after the Revolution and the estate which he created at Heathsville is still occupied by his descendants. John, the sturdy son of a sturdy race, was soundly converted at Edgeley Church at the age of twelve, and at the same time answered in his heart the call to the ministry. He graduated at eighteen from the Heathsville Academy. He finished much of the A.B. course at Randolph-Macon College, but was compelled by weak eyes to withdraw before graduation. Brother Gill was admitted on trial into the Virginia Conference at Danville in November, 1892, having been recommended by the Quarterly Conference of the West Lancaster Circuit. Through all the years of probation and full connection he gave to the Church an unblemished and unstinted service. He kept up the study habit and applied himself particularly to those subjects which would make his ministry most effective. He delighted to read the books, new and old, which expounded the Christian doctrines. He was familiar with the contents of the Bible and the Methodist Hymnal. Apt quotations from the Scriptures and the great hymns fortified and adorned his preaching. To the end of the journey he was a very diligent minister. His three months' pastorate on the Hyco Circuit where he died was characteristic of his diligence everywhere. In this brief time he had visited practically every Methodist home in the circuit, had won some who were disaffected, and had planned several projects for the good of the work. During thirty-seven years of his itinerancy he had served the Bloxom, Chesterfield, Gloucester, Caroline, Dorchester, Pocomoke, St. Martin's, Gordonsville, Gretna, Monroe, and Greensville charges. Brother Gill was a builder. He remodeled and built parsonages and churches and added Sunday school facilities in many of the charges which he served. He was a winner of souls. Those in position to know say that perhaps four thousand persons were won to Christ by him. He fought organized sin. He was against the liquor traffic, legal and illegal. He had the courage of his convictions and the ability to defend them. He was a brother to men. He had great sympathy for the poor, the sick, the unfortunate. One of his last acts was to contribute to a needy family on his circuit. He delighted to carry the bread of life to the underprivileged in the lowlands cut off by the swamps and in the mountains with only a trail leading to the cabin, and to those in prison who had missed the way. To his naturally compassionate heart was given the tutelage of suffering. Once for nearly four years he had general peritonitis. At another time a broken leg kept him in bed for almost a year. A gastric ulcer kept him out of the pastorate for nearly a year and a half. He was a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief. He broke the bread of life very tenderly to the sick and the unfortunate. This indomitable itinerant, despite ups and downs, assisted his four children in procuring fine educational equipment. Every one of them graduated in some high-class institution. One daughter is an A.M. of Duke University; the son is an A.B. of Randolph-Macon and an M.D. of the University of Virginia; another daughter is an A.B. of Greensboro College; and the married daughter graduated at Blackstone. Brother Gill's lifelong companion was the sweetheart of his youth, Miss Ida May Russell, of Pastoria, Va., to whom he was married June 12, 1893. She and their children, Miss Nannie Katie Gill, Mrs. W. R. Norris (Ruth Ida Gill), John Russell Gill, and Miss Helen Reed Gill, cherish the memory of a good husband and father. The family, the village neighbors, the skilled physicians, the nurses, and the friends from the circuit rendered every possible attention to Brother Gill in his illness. He who had so long and so faithfully served others was now the recipient of tender human ministrations. Realizing the heroic efforts of the doctors, he said, "I will cooperate with you." But worn nature could not hold out; with his parting breath he whispered, "There is rest for the weary," and slipped away to be with Jesus.—Edwin L. Bain.

RICHARD FERGUSON was born in Dinwiddie County, Va., October 3, 1838, and died at Tampa, Fla., January 1, 1930. His parents were William and Martha Ferguson. They were devoted Methodists and zealous Christians. They brought him up "in the nurture and admonition of the Lord," from which he never departed. His father died when he was nine years old, and his mother when he was in his thirteenth year. From early childhood he felt the call to preach the gospel. He received his education at Randolph-Macon College, graduating with the degree of A.B. He was preparing himself for the ministry when the War between the States began. He felt it to be his duty to join the army of the Confederate States and defend and protect his beloved State and Southland. He served both as a private and as a commissioned officer. He was well-known in the celebrated Pickett's Division for his courage and gallantry. His heroic service in the Army of Northern Virginia makes one of the brightest pages of its history. But as notable and bright as were the pages written of his services in the Confederate Army, more notable and bright were the pages written by his life, of devotion and service as a preacher of the gospel of Jesus Christ. He was for many years a member of the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College, and gave liberally of his means for the support of his Alma Mater. He resigned as a trustee when age and distance made it impossible to attend the meetings of the Board. He joined the Virginia Conference in 1869. Thenceforward until the day of his superannuation in 1918, caused by increasing years and ill health, he let his light so shine that God was glorified in all his labors. Every charge he served, from Coalfield Circuit, his first charge, to Greenville Circuit, his last charge, was a better charge when he left it. Churches were built and repaired. Differences were settled, for he was a great peacemaker; family altars were erected, and fires rekindled on altars where they had ceased to burn; souls were saved, and the members of the charges grew in the grace and knowledge of Jesus Christ, as this gentle, faithful pastor led the way. His ministry was a sin-destroying, soul-saving, and upbuilding ministry. He rebuked sin in high and low, but loved and sought to save the sinner. By faithfully preaching the word, by loving visitation and earnest pleadings, he sought to lead men to Jesus the Saviour of sinners. He always stood in the front line in opposing the legalized liquor traffic. Long, earnest, and unceasing were his labors—steady and strong were the blows he dealt this great evil, until prohibition was written in the Constitution of this State and nation. He was a sound, clear, and strong preacher. He loved to preach and point men to the "Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world." And great was his success in winning souls to Christ. He was married on April 26, 1871, to Miss Margaret Gaines Thrift, of Albemarle County, Va. To this union were born two daughters and five sons. Six children now survive—his oldest son, Richard Ferguson, having preceded his father to the grave. This good wife and mother passed to her reward on November 2, 1902. On November 23, 1904, he was married to Mrs. Bettie Guy, of Petersburg, Va., who died on January 17, 1905. He was united again in marriage to Miss Lucy Vaughan, of Amelia County, Va., who survives to mourn the loss of this great and good man. He is also survived by two daughters, Mrs. R. T. Vaughan and Mrs. Blaisden Mickler, and four sons, John, Robert F., Guy, and Ernest P. Ferguson. He moved to Tampa, Fla., where his married daughter resided, soon after his superannuation. That mild climate doubtless prolonged his days. On January 1, 1930, just as the new year was dawning, he entered his heavenly home. His remains were brought to Petersburg, Va., January 2, 1930, and laid to rest in Blauford Cemetery. The burial services were conducted by the writer, Rev. W. B. Jett pronouncing the benediction.—J. C. Reed.

Joseph T. Routten was born at Fox Hill, Elizabeth City County, Va., November 22, 1853. He was the son of William C. and Louisa E. Routten. In 1877 he felt strongly his call to preach, and in February, 1878, entered Randolph-Macon College to prepare for his beloved work. He attended the college for two and a half sessions. In August, 1880, he was employed by George H. Ray, presiding elder of the Eastern Shore District, to take charge of Conquest and Guilford, to fill the vacancy made by the appointment of W. W. Royall as missionary to China. In November, 1880, he was admitted on trial into the Virginia Conference and appointed to Berlin Circuit, to which he was returned for the second year. On May 31, 1882, he was married to Miss Ida F. West, of Berlin, Md. Four children were given them: Ruby W., Willie W., Joseph Reed, and John Newbill Routten. Ruby, his beloved and only daughter, and Willie W. had gone on before, to greet their father on the shining shore. His widow and two sons, Joseph Reed Routten and John Newbill Routten, survive him. Brother Routten was ordained deacon by Bishop McTyeire and elder by Bishop Keener. In 1882 he was sent to the Wicomico Circuit, where he remained three years. Thereafter he served the following charges: Cunituck Circuit, four years; Princess Anne, three years; Asbury, Norfolk, four years (during this time LeKies Memorial was built, taking the place of Asbury); Crewe, two years; Denny Street, Richmond, three years; Chestnut Street, Newport News, two years; West End Memorial, West Richmond District, four years; West Street, Petersburg, one year; Belle Haven, three years; Heathville, two years. At the Conference held in Saulsbury, Md., in November, 1911, Bishop Kilgo presiding, Brother Routten was appointed Chaplain to Seaman, Norfolk, Va., and continued in this capacity until God called him home. In this work at the Seaman's Bethel at Norfolk he found his ideal and most beloved work in the ministry. For nineteen years he labored with untiring zeal to help those who "go down to the sea in ships." His heart went out to all who sailed the seas. Finding, when taking charge of the Seaman's Bethel and Institute, that the place provided for his work was inadequate and needed enlargement and better facilities for the care of his "sailor boys," as he lovingly called them, he set earnestly to work to provide the necessary accommodations. This he successfully accomplished, by the hearty backing of the Seaman's Friend Society and generous contributions from others. On Bute Street there now stands the handsome Bethel and Institute, providing the men of the sea, without cost when circumstances demand it, home comforts, good food, and an atmosphere of Christian love. It was in the office of this building, while talking to a visitor, on March 5, 1930, that suddenly, without a sigh or groan, he dropped his anchor in the sea of Heavenly Rest. Who did not love Joseph T. Routten? His greeting and smile invited confidence and love. He was a child in his simplicity. He was unique—a charming personality. His visits to the homes of his charge brought brightness and cheer. The children loved him and gathered about him. As a preacher, there was a peculiar charm in his sermons. He had a vivid imagination; he was blessed with a voice of power and pathos. He loved to preach and tell the story of Jesus and his love. He was a true evangelist—a winner of souls to his Saviour. Many were the seals to his ministry. Being dead he yet speaketh. The funeral services took place in LeKies Memorial, where he desired the last rites should be conducted. Those taking part in the services were J. L. Eggleston, pastor, R. H. Potts, presiding elder, D. T. Merritt, and J. D. McAlister. The preachers of the Norfolk and Portsmouth Districts attended in large numbers. The burial was in Forest Lawn Cemetery.—J. C. Reed.

GILBY CAMPBELL KELLY was born in Carter County, Ky., November 19, 1851, and died at his home in Algonquin Park, Norfolk, Va., March 7, 1930. A noble and beautiful life devoted to the service of God and humanity came to its close only to go on in the heavenly world in beauty and truth and goodness. He was fifty-two years in the ranks of the itinerant ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, a member in turn of six different Annual Conferences: the Kentucky, the Western Virginia, the Louisville, the North Alabama, the Tennessee, and the Virginia. His versatility and ability were shown by his successful ministry in various charges of the Conferences mentioned above. It is an excellent thing to be well born; Dr. Kelly was fortunate in possessing a godly and religious ancestry. His father was Rev. Samuel Kelly, a member of the Kentucky Conference; his mother was Mary Jane Rice, a woman strong in character and deeply religious. They were sprung from pioneer stock and their son inherited the pioneer spirit in his thought and work. Young Gilby Kelly attended school at Kentucky Wesleyan College, where he was noted as a brilliant speaker and debater. In April, 1870, before he had graduated and before he was nineteen years old, he was licensed to preach and was admitted on trial into the Kentucky Conference five months later. In 1872 he was made a deacon by Bishop Kavanaugh at the Kentucky Conference meeting at Harrodsburg. In 1874 he was ordained an elder by Bishop Wightman at the Kentucky Conference meeting in Mount Sterling. He was appointed to Catlettsburg as his first pastoral charge. After that he served in succession the following places: Greenwich Circuit in Bourbon County, Milton Circuit on the Ohio River, Carlyle Circuit, Winchester, Covington, Frankfort; Broadway Church, Louisville; Settle Memorial Church, Owensboro; First Church, Birmingham; Tulip Street Church, Nashville; Court Street Church, Lynchburg; Broad Street Church, Richmond; First Church, Charlottesville; Ghent Church, Norfolk. His last charge was Ashland, where, at the end of his fifth year, he voluntarily retired from the ministry after fifty-two years of faithful and devoted service for Christ and his Church. Dr. W. F. Tillett says: "His life is not only a part of the history of Southern Methodism; but he is one of those who have made our history as a Church during the past fifty years to be a history of achievement and progress, with the promise of yet greater service for mankind in the years to come." His family life was very happy. In his young manhood he was married to Miss Nannie Carroll Stitt, daughter of Dr. Alfred Gaines Stitt, of Millersburg. They were lovers all through the long years of their married life. Six daughters were born to them, one of whom died a little girl in Owensboro. The others are: Mrs. W. E. Graves, Mrs. H. C. Featherston, Miss Florence Kelly, Mrs. J. Carl Peck, and Mrs. Oscar B. Ryder. Dr. Kelly's years of retirement were spent at his home in Algonquin Park, Norfolk; they were peaceful and serene years. He had no fear of passing into the spirit world. It was his desire, however, to go quickly without long hours of suffering and waiting. He had his wish, for at the evening meal, surrounded by his family, he bowed his head, rested it upon his arm, and passed to be forever with the Lord. Dr. Kelly was one of the great preachers of Southern Methodism. As a young preacher he gave promise of those powers that reached their mellowness and richness in later years. In May, 1874, he visited the General Conference at Louisville. Without his knowledge it was announced that he would preach in Chestnut Street Church. The Louisville Courier said: "The sermon was a remarkable one to emanate from one so young, the speaker appearing to be scarcely out of his teens. It was a discourse rich in thought—strong, terse, solid thought—clothed in language chaste, polished, and beautifully expressive; combining all the grace of finished composition and exhibiting none of the defects of overstrained effort so common in incipient genius. His style is simple, unaffected, earnest; his manner easy, unpretentious, humble; his voice rich, sonorous, tender; his bearing collected, yet diffident and captivating." He illustrated in his life the Christian graces of which he preached, gentleness, courage, courtesy, humility, cheerfulness, tolerance, kindness of speech—all these appeared in his life, broken gleams of the glory of the Light of the World with whom he walked. Who can tell how many souls he won for his Master by his preaching and his life? Cowper once ended a letter to his cousin Lady Heshketh with these words: "There is not room enough for friendship to unfold itself in such a nook of life as this." Having passed from this "nook of life," this noble soul goes on unfolding itself in the friendships of the "city which hath foundations whose builder and maker is God."—J. N. Latham.

Benjamin Shepherd Herrink was born October 2, 1847, in New Hanover, now Pender County, N. C. His parents were Samuel and Anne E. Bordeaux Herrink. He entered the army of the Confederate States in June, 1864, and served until the surrender of the forces of Gen. Joseph E. Johnston. He participated in the battles of Fort Fisher, Kinston, and Bentonsville. He joined the Church at an early age, and the call to devote his life to the ministry grew upon him as the years went by. He spent two sessions at Randolph-Macon College in preparation. In 1873, while at college, he was licensed to preach, and in 1874 he was received on trial into the Virginia Conference, at Elizabeth City, N. C., presided over by Bishop Marvin. He served the following charges: Patrick, West Charlotte, Caroline, and Berlin, one year each; South Halifax, four years; Henry, two years; Meherrin, N. C., four years; Halifax, one year; East Franklin, three years; Mecklenburg, four years; Pasquotank, N. C., four years; West Bedford, two years; West Campbell, two years; Fluvanna, two years; Hyco, two years; Ashland Circuit, three years; South Chesterfield, one year. He was superannuated in 1912. He was married on January 2, 1883, to Miss Emma Richardson, of Halifax County, Va. To this union three children were born: Clive Richardson, Louis Shepherd, and Helen Graham Herrink. They survive, with their mother, to mourn their loss. The body of our beloved brother was laid to rest in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, Va., the funeral service being conducted by George E. Booker, assisted by E. L. Copley. When on June 25, 1930, Benjamin Shepherd Herrink departed this life, one of the most faithful members of the Virginia Conference went to his heavenly home. He was diligent and faithful, and yet so modest and quiet in his labor that he was never appreciated at his full value except by those who came in close contact with him in his work. This was the privilege of the writer of this memoir. But his Master, whom he so faithfully served, has already pronounced, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." A good and true laborer in the Master's vineyard has gone on to his great reward.—J. C. Reed.

JOHN WILLIAM CARROLL was born in Bedford County, Va., May 7, 1854, and died at his home in Rocky Mount, Va., August 2, 1930. His father was M. A. Carroll, of Louisa County. His mother's maiden name was Martha C. Payne, a granddaughter of William Flanagan, on whose estate was located the well-known Enon Camp Ground, celebrated for great camp meetings in the earlier days of Methodism. Brother Carroll was descended from good Methodist stock. At the early age of twelve years he was genuinely converted to God and maintained his Christian integrity and loyalty to God and duty with increasing fidelity to the day of his death. It was while he was engaged in the hardware business, in the city of Danville, in the early days of his young manhood that he became seriously impressed with a sense of the divine call to preach the gospel. Like the great prophet he heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" and he answered with his whole heart as did Isaiah, saying, "Here am I; send me." When he was twenty-two years of age he entered Randolph-Macon College to study for the ministry and remained there four years in preparation for his sacred calling. He excelled in public speaking as a college student, as well as later as a minister, and received a medal for oratory from the Washington Literary Society. On September 11, 1877, by the Quarterly Conference of Lynn Street Station, Danville, Va., he was licensed to preach. After completing his studies at college, he was admitted into the Virginia Conference on trial in November, 1880. He was ordained deacon in November, 1881, and elder in November, 1884. Brother Carroll was sent to Culpeper Circuit in 1880; Accomac in 1883; to Franklin Circuit, including Rocky Mount, in 1887; to Wright Memorial, Portsmouth, in 1890; to South Princess Anne in 1891; to Wesley, Petersburg, in 1893; to Batesville in 1896; to Lambert's Point, now Zion, Norfolk, in 1899; to Newsoms Circuit in 1900; to Henry Circuit in 1901; to Bedford Circuit in 1904; to Denbys in 1908; to Lunenburg in 1910; and to Schoolfield in 1911. At the Conference of 1912, on account of the impaired condition of his health, he took the superannuate relation and continued in this relation for two years. His health improving, he took up active work again in 1914 and became Solicitor for the Virginia Conference Orphanage. In 1917 he was appointed financial agent for Ferrum Training School and in 1918 was assigned to Churchland and West Norfolk, in 1920 to South Franklin, and in 1921 to West Franklin, which he served for a year, when his active labors as a pastor ceased, and he occupied the superannuate relation from that time until his death. But his restless, zealous, eager soul would not permit him to remain idle, and as far as his strength would permit he worked for the Children's Home Society and the American Bible Society, that he might do all the good he could as long as any strength at all remained. On November 13, 1883, he was married to Miss Alice Shearer, a daughter of Mr. W. Newton Shearer, a prominent and active member of the Methodist Church in Appomattox County. For forty-seven years, until the day of his death, she stood faithfully by his side, comforting, encouraging, and stimulating him in his work as an itinerant Methodist preacher. His only daughter, Miss Sallie Carroll, four years ago went to Japan as a missionary. When he realized that he had but a short while to live he expressed a great desire to look upon her face once more before he died. The Mission Board very graciously and fittingly directed her to come home at once, and she arrived some days before his departure and gave him great peace and comfort by her presence. His last wish was gratified, and he was ready when the summons came to answer to his name on the long roll of the saints of God. He is survived by his wife, his daughter, and five sons—namely: Charles Wesley Carroll, of Palm Beach, Fla.; Andrew Newton Carroll and Robert Scott Carroll, of Rocky Mount, Va.; J. Herman Carroll, pastor of Halifax Circuit, Virginia Conference; Thomas Fitzgerald Carroll, presiding elder of the Charlottesville District, Virginia Conference. It was one of the greatest joys of his life that three of his children have consecrated their lives to all-time service in the kingdom of God as a life investment. On Saturday, August 2, 1930, his purified spirit, ready for the call that came from God, went out of life into life; out of a lower life into a higher; out of a life of pain and suffering into one of endless joy. His last days were spent among those who had known and loved him for many years, some of them for decades. Most of his children lived near him or made him frequent visits. Earth held much that was dear, but for him to depart and be with Christ was far better. Just before his departure he held up his hand as though in obedience to a call from the great Master of the skies, and like the good soldier of the cross that he was, he said, "Ready." This was the last word he spoke on earth, but in heaven his tongue is doubtless loosened to speak the praises of Him who redeemed him and received him to glory. On August 3 his funeral services were conducted from the beautiful new church in Rocky Mount, by his pastor, J. W. Dixon, assisted by J. W. Wimbish, E. E. Dudley, of the Baptist Church, and the writer. His mortal remains were laid to rest in the Rocky Mount cemetery to await the resurrection of the just.—B. M. Beckham.

RANDOLPH THORNTON CLARKE was born in Nottoway County, not far from Blackstone, Va. His parents, William N. and Rosa A. Clarke, were among the best in their section, and before the days of the War between the States lived in comfort on their large farm. Randolph was born when the South was on the eve of that awful catastrophe, out of which his parents came, stripped of most of their earthly possessions. Hence his early educational opportunities were few. At the age of fourteen years, under the ministry of the Rev. J. W. Blincoe of blessed memory, he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, beginning almost at once active service for his Lord. Like a host of others, he soon heard the voice of God in the temple of the great out-of-doors, calling and saying: "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And like the great prophet on another immortal occasion, he said: "Here am I; send me." And God sent him to the halls of Randolph-Macon College to secure the intellectual training necessary to his highest efficiency in his God-appointed ministry. The autumn of 1884 found him a matriculate in this school of the prophets, where he remained till the spring of 1889. In the fall of that year he knocked at the door of this Conference for admission, was received on trial and assigned to North Pittsylvania Circuit, where, in the glow of youth and redeeming love, he did some of the very best work of his entire life. He conducted revival meetings in all the churches of his circuit, and in two years' time had received more than one hundred persons into the Church on profession of faith. It was on this charge that he met and was married to Miss Lessie Wilkinson, one of the most beautiful and charming young women of the county, who has through the succeeding years proved to be an invaluable helpmeet. After two years on the North Pittsylvania Circuit Brother Clarke was sent to Pittsylvania Circuit, and after two years here he was sent to Cascade Circuit, where he remained for four years, maintaining the high standard of efficiency and worth he had set for himself in his first charge. Other appointments served by him were: West Amherst, four years; Rappahannock, two years; Dinwiddie, two years; Louisa, four years; Norfolk Circuit, four years; Onley, one year; Lancaster, two years; Gloucester, two years; Prince Edward, two years; Amelia, four years; Lunenburg, four years; and Windsor, two years. Brother Clarke was in the truest sense a pastor-evangelist, and people were converted under his ministry in every place, the grand total reaching more than fifteen hundred persons. Mrs. Clarke and seven children remain, the youngest of whom is seventeen years of age. The names of the children are: Mrs. Ruth A. Stokes, Mrs. Rose E. Milteer, Miss Elizabeth Randolph Clarke, Mrs. Virginia D. Aitcheson, Mrs. Mary W. Winslow, Paul W. Clarke, and Randolph Thornton Clarke, Jr. There are also nine grandchildren, three sisters, and one brother living. The sisters and brother are: Mrs. Beverly Wells, Mrs. Asa Jones, Mrs. Joel Lambert, and William N. Clarke, all of Blackstone, Va. Brother Clarke's health had not been good for several years, but he stayed in the effective ranks till the day on which he was taken up to join the hosts above. His last illness was of about four weeks' duration, the last two weeks of which were spent in a Suffolk Hospital. He passed away on August 9, and the remains were taken to Hertford, N. C., the next day, where, after appropriate services in the church of that city, conducted by his presiding elder (Clayton O. Tuttle), J. K. Holman, C. E. Pleasants, M. Y. Self (pastor of the Church), and the writer, they were tenderly laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery of the city, to await the sounding of the last trump when the dead in Christ shall arise. Brother Clarke never received over $1,650 salary in any one year of his life, and yet he educated every one of his children and left no debts behind him when he was gone. His two sons are now in school—one at the U. S. Naval Academy and the other at Duke University. He and his wife knew the fine art of stretching dollars as far as they would reach. His name is as ointment poured forth in every community in which he ever lived and served. He came to his end in great peace and glad anticipation of the future because he had lived right. Just before the end came he said: "My greatest desire is to depart and be with the Lord." And again, when in a few moments his chastened spirit was to be released: "I'm going soon. O, it is so beautiful!" And out into the realms of eternal light his hallowed spirit sped.—W. T. A. Haynes.

James W. Heckman was born in Franklin County, Va., in March, 1857, and entered into rest in the city of Richmond, Va., October 17, 1930. He was the son of Luke S. and Elizabeth Montgomery Heckman. His parents were Dunkers and did not believe in Sunday schools and revivals. The early training of Brother Heckman was meager. When he was converted he preferred another body of Christians and accordingly united with the Baptist Church. He soon discovered that he was out of harmony with the close communion as practiced by his Church. During the time that his Church was wrangling over a pastor, Heckman withdrew, uniting later with the Campbellites, now called Christians. He soon found that the tenets of this Church did not appeal to him; so in honesty to them and to himself he withdrew and remained out of the Church for some time. Like many others reared in the hills of Virginia, he knew nothing of Methodism, but was deeply prejudiced against the Methodist Church. At the time of which I write, he was living near to a Methodist preacher. His soul being in trouble, he went to this man of God for help. Rev. Thomas P. Duke loaned Mr. Heckman two works on "Baptism" and also a Discipline of the Methodist Church, which explained to him the Methodist doctrines and their methods of carrying on the work of God. He also read the catechisms on doctrines as set forth by the Methodist Church. New light broke in upon his mind. He was convinced that the Methodist Church was teaching Scriptural doctrines and also had a wise form of government. Mrs. Heckman, the faithful wife, who walked with our brother for more than fifty years, was converted in 1876. The husband soon rejoiced in the joy of salvation. "Thank God," says Brother Heckman, and the words came as from artesian depths, "I never doubted since." Both Mr. and Mrs. Heckman united with the Methodist Church, South, and have been faithful members down through the years. In January, 1887, Mr. Heckman was licensed to preach, serving as a local preacher until the fall of 1890, when he was admitted on trial into the Virginia Conference. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Hendrix in 1892, and elder in 1894 by Bishop Haygood. His first appointment was Snow Creek Mission. He then served the following charges in the order named: King William, Goochland, Bedford, Spotsylvania, Cascade, South Dorchester, South Brunswick, Greensville, Brunswick, New Kent, Fox Hill. This was the last charge he served. Here his health became so impaired that he felt that he should retire. This he did in the fall of 1923. Since then he and Mrs. Heckman have made their home with a son in Richmond. He was not satisfied with being idle, so he set up a shop and began fitting eyeglasses. He had prepared for this work as a young man and had done a little of it from time to time in addition to his circuit work. Mr. Heckman knew the doctrines of the Bible, especially as taught by the early Methodists. He was a firm believer in the doctrine of sanctification as presented by John Wesley, Francis Asbury, and other great lights in Methodism. He was a clear expounder of the word. His manner was one of ease in the pulpit. He was a great lover of sacred songs. His soul was often stirred as he played and sang the gospel hymns. Perhaps the most conspicuous work of our brother's life was the founding of the Spotsylvania Holiness Camp Meeting. This camp is still running, a living monument to the zeal, faith, and good judgment of our brother. On October 17, 1930, our brother passed to be with Jesus, leaving behind to mourn his going a host of friends, his faithful wife, and his son Morton. His beloved daughter had preceded him to the heavenly home.—LeRoy J. Phaup.

Ques. 8. Who are readmitted? None.

Ques. 9. Who are received by transfer from other Conferences? L. C. Beasley, from the North Texas Conference; S. M. Bailey, from the Missouri Conference; M. D. Council and C. H. Booth, elders, and L. D. Brown, in the class of the first year, from the Central Texas Conference; S. W. Williams and E. A. Potts, from the Texas Conference. 7.

Ques. 10. Who are received from other Churches as traveling preachers?

V. L. Wunneburger, from the Church of Christ; Frank Deaver Charlton, from the Methodist Episcopal Church. 2.

Ques. 11. Who are located this year? E. C. Young, W. F. Buss, and G. C. Baumgartel, each at his own request. 3.

Ques. 12. Who have withdrawn or been expelled? Withdrawn, Lon P. Johnson.

Ques. 13. Who are transferred to other Conferences? E. R. Stanford and W. L. Barr, to the Central Texas Conference; W. F. Bryan and W. P. Buckner, to the North Texas Conference; W. A. Fulbright, to the Missouri Conference; L. H. Robinson, in the class of the fourth year, to the Texas Mexican Conference. 6.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? J. W. Childers, P. H. Hensch, F. A. Grimes. 3.

James Washington Childers was born near Sulphur Springs, Tex., January 13, 1874, and died at Houston, Tex., June 7, 1930. On November 26, 1901, he was married to Miss Edna M. Clark, who survives with their three sons. Brother Childers joined the Northwest Texas Conference in November, 1903, and served in that Conference until its division in the fall of 1910. During that time he served four charges: Hale Center, Emma, Gail, and Roby. Upon the division of the Conference he found himself a member of the newly-created Central Texas Conference and pastor at Proctor. Then, after a two years' pastorate at Bluff Dale, he came to the West Texas Conference, and was stationed for three years at Bandera. From Bandera he was moved to South Bluff, Corpus Christi, then to Goliad, and then to Jourdanton. In the fall of 1926 he was transferred to the North Texas Conference that he might be near Southern Methodist University, where he desired to place his boys. He served the Bonita Circuit and Nevada in this Conference before ill health forced upon him the superannuate relation, at which time he returned by transfer to the West Texas Conference, of which he was a member at the time of his death. This noble servant of God gave twenty-five years of active service to the Methodist Church. No matter how hard the task, he always did his best. During all these years he never received a salary of more than $1,500 a year, and much of the time it was much less than that; but he carried on with joy and hopefulness, conscious of the Master's blessing and approval. The funeral service was conducted at Central Church, Houston, and was attended by a large number of his brethren in the ministry and a host of devoted friends. At the grave his brethren of the Masonic fraternity had charge. —Committee.

Peter Henry Hensch went home to his Father on Saturday morning, April 5, 1930, from his home in San Antonio, Tex. In his passing the West Texas Conference and the Southern Methodist Church lost one of her unique and faithful leaders. Brother Hensch was born January 3, 1855, in Belum, Hanover, Germany. When a child he was baptized in the Lutheran Church. In 1872 he came to Mobile, Ala., where in 1878 he was converted and united with the Southern Methodist Church. The next year he was licensed to preach and served as supply. Two years later—1881—he was admitted into the German Mission Conference on trial. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Parker in 1883 and elder by Bishop Duncan in 1887. Brother Hensch was always one of the outstanding leaders in the German Mission Conference, serving in important posts as pastor, presiding elder, and contributor to the Conference paper. His long ministry of forty-one years was spent in the following charges: Mobile, Ala.; Lake Charles, La.; Saraparu Street, New Orlean, La.; New Fountain, Tex.; Grassyville, Tex.; Houston Station; Eastern District; Houston Mission; East Bernard; Bellville-Peters; Western District; San Antonio, Cibolo and Landa; Elm Creek. In 1919 Brother Hensch was granted the superannuate relation. On December 9, 1881, Brother Hensch was married to Miss Minnie Louise Klocke. To this union, severed by the death of the wife on March 11, 1904, there were born eight children, seven of whom survive their father: Mrs. F. W. Radetzky, Adolph Hensch, Mrs. F. W. Koym, Mrs. A. A. Hingst, and Earl Klocke Hensch. One son, Eugene, died in infancy. On May 4, 1907, Brother Hensch was married to Miss Dora Wiebush, who died January 11, 1918. On August 26, 1919, he was married to Miss Augusta B. Merkel, who survives him. Brother Hensch lived a long and fruitful life, attaining the age of seventy-five years.

During the days of his superannuation he was by no means inactive in the work. So long as his strength held out he cooperated diligently with his pastors. In the Government Hill Church, San Antonio, with which he was last connected, he was a bulwark of strength and a constant inspiration, serving regularly so long as health permitted, as teacher of the Men's Bible Class, and aiding the pastor in the pulpit and in all other capacities where needed. He has builded for himself immortality both in "the mansions of light" and in the hearts and lives of that large number he has touched and brought to Christ and into the ministry of the Lord he so loved and followed so faithfully.—Wood H. Patrick.

Francis Augustus Grimes was born in Shelby County, Ind., August 8, 1859. While but a small boy he moved with his parents to Missouri, where he was taught habits of industry, and where he very early in life imbibed the principles that make up an earnest Christian life. He was educated in the public schools of Missouri and at Morrisville College, Morrisville, Mo. On December 28, 1892, he was married to Miss Minnie Pond. This union proved to be a very happy one. In December, 1889, Brother Grimes was admitted on trial into the Missouri Conference and was stationed at St. Joseph, Mo. He remained in the Missouri Conference till 1901, when he transferred to the Mississippi Conference, where he labored till 1908, and then transferred to the West Texas Conference. He labored in West Texas until December, 1912, when he took the superannuate relation and moved to Hazlehurst, Miss., where he resided till death removed him from earth. Brother Grimes was a student. He read much, and read carefully. He studied books, men, and nature, and from these sources he gathered a store of knowledge that made him a strong preacher and an interesting conversationalist. After superannuation he continued to build new sermons and to preach as opportunity offered. During the last two years of his earthly life he had at least one regular monthly appointment and preached his last sermon just eight days before he went to heaven. He was never unemployed, never triflingly employed. He owned a small farm near Hazlehurst. He tended the farm and garden with his own hands. He usually had on his farm a large flock of chickens in which he took pride. But he gave some part of each day to meditation, prayer, and Bible reading. On November 18, 1929, the temple in which he had dwelt for more than seventy years fell down, and he went home to be with God. The body was buried in Magnolia Cemetery, from the Hazlehurst Methodist Church, the writer officiating. He is survived by his widow, one brother, C. R. Grimes, and five sisters, Mesdames Margaret Sager, W. W. Robertson, S. S. Osborne, Omer Craner, and H. J. Moore.—T. J. O'Neil.

WALTER L. DAWSON was born in Forsyth County, N. C., August 2, 1866, and died April 21, 1930. He spent his boyhood days on the farm, the place where most of our truly great men come from. It was never his privilege to go to college, but he was endowed with an unusually bright mind and by close application and hard work he easily ranked as a strong, logical, and effective gospel preacher. He was married July 29, 1888, to Miss Frances Wagner, who was a faithful helpmeet throughout his ministerial life. Is it not a fact that we too often fail to give due credit to the faithful, self-sacrificing wives of our ministers? In the day of final accounts these good women will stand by their husbands, receiving from the hands of the Judge a crown of glory for their unselfish service down here. Brother Dawson joined the North Carolina Conference at Greensboro in 1889, and the next year the Western North Carolina Conference was organized and he served the following charges: 1890, Dobson; 1891, Salisbury Circuit; 1892, Woodleaf; 1893-95, Mooresville Circuit; 1896-97, Wilkesboro Circuit; 1898, Watauga; 1899, Taylorsville; 1900, Statesville Circuit; 1901-02, Stokes Circuit. At the end of 1902 he asked for and was granted a location. In 1905 he was readmitted and served the following charges: 1906, Laurel Springs; 1907, Yadkinville; 1908-09, Wilkes Circuit; 1910-13, West Greensboro; 1914, Matthews; 1915-16, Conference Evangelist; 1917, Rock Springs; 1918, Randleman; 1919-20, Forest City; 1921-22, Spray; 1923-25, Summerfield; 1926-27, Proximity; 1928-29, Farmington. At the Conference of 1929 he was granted the superannuate relation. He was an unusual man. His life was pitched upon a high plane. He lived above the sordid things of earth. Being risen with Christ, he naturally sought the things which were above. His citizenship was in heaven; his marvelous life was hid with Christ in God. He preached a full gospel, and no one could doubt but that he lived what he preached. Few of our preachers have ever been instrumental in leading a larger number into the kingdom. The last Sunday of his active ministry he preached three times, though so weak physically he had to hold to the pulpit. Those who heard him said he preached that day with unusual liberty, unction, and power. He doubtless realized that the "crowning day" was near, and he wanted to make every moment count. He served worthily and well his day and generation by the will of God and peacefully fell asleep and went to dwell with the redeemed in our Father's many-mansioned home above.—Alfred L. Stanford.

PLATO TRACY DURHAM was born in Shelby, N. C., September 10, 1873, and died February 10, 1930. Hon. Plato Durham, lawyer and a prominent figure in North Carolina's political life through those stirring years following the War between the States, was his father, and his mother was Lenora Catherine Tracy Durham, a daughter of Dr. James Wright Tracy, of King's Mountain, N. C., and for many years a prominent physician of his community. Dr. Tracy was a surgeon in the Confederate Army with the rank of major. The father of Plato Durham was born September 20, 1840, and died November 9, 1875, when Plato was only two years old. Several years after his father's death his mother married Dr. B. F. Dixon, a practicing physician and a Methodist minister of unusual pulpit ability, who proved to be a devoted father and counselor through their early years to Plato and to his brothers, Robert and Stonewall. His mother is still living. That several of his ancestors were soldiers may help to explain why the gospel minister enlisted as a soldier in the Spanish-American War and why the poet through his whole life was a crusader. The educational advantages of Plato Durham were the best. The preparatory schools, colleges, and universities were Bell's Academy, King's Mountain, N. C., the Horner Military School, Oxford, N. C., Trinity College (now Duke University), Yale University, Oxford (England), Union Theological Seminary, New York City. His college degrees and other academic honors were A.B. degree, Trinity College, 1895; D.D. (same institution), 1913; diploma Union Theological Seminary, 1899; member of Phi Beta Kappa and Alpha Tau Omega. Dr. Durham married Miss Lucy Cole, daughter of John N. Cole, for long years a leader of the North Carolina Conference. Mrs. Durham, a fair and cultured daughter of the Methodist parsonage, graced every circle she touched, and the home life of Mr. and Mrs. Durham was beautiful indeed. The crowning of these happy years, however, came at the birth of Lucy Cole Durham, July 31, 1925. No father was ever more devoted to his child than Dr. Durham was to little Lucy Cole, with whom he was at play that tragic morning when his heart stood still and he entered beyond the veil. In 1899 Brother Durham joined the Western North Carolina Conference and remained a member thereof till his death. From 1899-1906 he was a teacher of Biblical Literature and Church History, Trinity College; pastor of Trinity Church, Charlotte, N. C., 1906-08; Central, Concord, 1908-11; Winston-Salem District, 1911-13; Charlotte District, 1913-14. In the year 1914 he became dean of the Candler School of Theology, Atlanta, Ga. In 1918 he was forced on account of heart trouble, which finally was the cause of his death, to give up the executive position, but he remained a member of the faculty, occupying the chair of Church History, where he was one of the most highly esteemed members of that superior teaching force of the Candler School of Theology. The foregoing figures show that the greater part of his life after completing his education was devoted to teaching young men who were preparing for the Christian ministry. But through all the years he was preëminently a preacher. Whether pastor, presiding elder, or college professor, preaching was the great passion of his life. From the beginning of his ministry to the end of life the pulpit was his throne. And an outstanding characteristic of his preaching was the revival power that accompanied his ministry. When presiding elder he set his districts aflame with revival fires. A memorable revival, perhaps the most memorable in the history of Emory University, was held by Dr. Durham. And in all sections of the Church he was in demand to hold revival services. This revival power that accompanied his preaching was not confined to the early years of his ministry, as is the experience with the majority of Christian ministers. On the contrary, his evangelistic gifts increased with the passing years. But this was only what should have been expected. For the depth and richness of his spiritual life became increasingly manifest to all who knew him.—A. W. Plyler.

JOSEPH JOSHUA EADS, son of Thomas and Barbara Albright Eads, was born in Guilford County, N. C., June 16, 1859; was married to Miss Sarah Keller, of Davidson County, on June 24, 1896, and at Mount Airy, on August 25, 1930, passed to his reward. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Harold Click and Miss Ruth Eads, and one son, Joseph A. Eads. Brother Eads's educational advantages were limited to the public schools of Greensboro and a course in the Smithdeal Business College. The support of his mother and sister falling to him, he found it necessary to go to work at an early age. As a young man he worked as stock man in the Odell Hardware Company of Greensboro. For industry and fidelity he was advanced step by step until there occurred an opening in the traveling force. He was then put on the road to sell goods, a field in which he achieved success. His Christianity was of the positive type while engaged in business. As a traveling salesman he let his light shine. Later there came the unmistakable call to preach the gospel, an interesting account of which has been furnished by Mr. C. H. Ireland. He says: "Brother Eads came to me one day and told me that he felt a distinct call to preach. Knowing the responsibilities upon him, I tried to persuade him to become a local preacher and not join the Conference. He insisted his call was from God and not from man, and he would have to obey it." So, leaving a salary of $1,800 per year, he went out to serve his Master full time at less than one-fourth that amount. Recommended by the Quarterly Conference of Centenary Church, Greensboro, he was admitted on trial at the Conference of 1892, held in Winston, Bishop Hendrix presiding. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Duncan at Reidsville in 1895, and elder at Asheville in 1897 by Bishop Key. Here are his appointments for the thirty-four years of his active ministry: Green River, 1893-95; Zion and Prospect, 1896-97; Franklin Circuit, 1898; China Grove, 1899-1900; Matthews Station, 1901; Hoskins, 1902; Gold Hill, 1903-04; Coleridge, 1905-07; Bryson City, 1908-09; China Grove, 1910; West Concord, 1911; Lenoir Circuit, 1912; Race Street, Statesville, 1913-14; Troutman, 1915; Robbinsville, 1916; Oakboro-Loves, 1917-18; Danbury, 1919-22; Jonesville, 1923-24; Ararat Circuit, 1925-26. His health was never robust, and, at the Gastonia Conference, in 1926, worn and weary with preaching and travel, he asked for and received the superannuate relation. Retiring from the Ararat Circuit, he continued to reside in Mount Airy, where he filled a real place in the Church life of our people. Cases of need drew him like a magnet. At the death of an aged supply on the Ararat Circuit, it was he who started the movement which resulted in the raising of sufficient funds in Mount Airy to relieve the widow's needs. His devotion to his family was genuine and tender. Out of his meager salary, by strictest economy, he was able to send all three of the children away to college, and two of them are graduates of Methodist institutions. His last day on earth was no doubt as he would have had it. Nine forty-five found him in his usual place at Sunday school. He sat with the wife and daughter in their accustomed pew at the morning service. The daughters, the son-in-law, and the little grandchildren were with them for dinner and during the afternoon. Before the break of day the following morning he answered the call from above.—C. S. Kirkpatrick.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN FINCHER, son of James and Levicie Fincher, was born in Union County, N. C., May 15, 1856. As a boy he attended the public schools. In early life he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Little Bethel, near his father's home. On December 4, 1873, he was married to Miss Louise Starnes, of Union County. There were twelve children, eight of whom survive. This union was broken by the death of Mrs. Fincher in January, 1906. On April 7, 1907, he was married to Miss Dovie Mae Patterson, of Iredell County. To this union were born three children, all of whom with their mother are now living at their home in Derita, N. C. As a young man Brother Fincher worked for the Seaboard Air Line Railroad Company. He followed this work for more than a score of years and would have continued but for the fact that he began to feel the strange thrill of that divinely given impulse, which those who have felt it never can forget, which said to his soul, "Go preach my gospel." He was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision. He attended Rutherford College, where he was trained for the work of the ministry under the teaching of Dr. R. L. Abernethy, the founder of that institution. He was licensed to exhort in 1881. On November 8, 1884, he was granted license to preach. He served as supply eleven years before joining the Conference—three years on the Charlotte Circuit, four years on the Polkton Circuit, and four years on the Clear Creek Circuit. He was admitted on trial at Gastonia, N. C., in 1901. The following is the list of appointments he served: 1902, Clear Creek Circuit; 1903-04, Stony Point; 1905-06, Uwharrie Circuit; 1907-08, Ruffin Circuit; 1909, Randolph Circuit; 1910, Watauga Circuit; 1911-12, Lowesville Circuit; 1913-14, McAdenville Station; 1915-19, Thrift; 1920, Cottonville Circuit; 1921-22, Rhodhiss; 1923, Kerr Street, Concord, N. C. At Winston-Salem in 1923 he was granted the superannuate relation, which relation he sustained until his death. At the Conference held in New Bern, N. C., December 2, 1888, he was elected deacon and ordained by Bishop Granbery. He was ordained elder by Bishop Morrison at Greensboro, N. C., November 25, 1900. As he lived, so we found him at his dying—in his home in Derita, N. C., on the 17th day of April last—a gentle, sturdy, and strong personality, devoted to his family, in love with mankind, and at peace with God. In First Methodist Church, Charlotte, N. C., on the afternoon of Good Friday, April 18, 1930, at the conclusion of a beautiful service, the funeral was held, conducted by E. K. McLarty, W. W. Peele, J. B. Fitzgerald, and N. C. Williams. His body was laid to rest in Elmwood Cemetery.—N. C. Williams.

Robert Franklin Mock, son of the late L. N. and Jane Kamouse Mock, was born in Davidson County, N. C., August 18, 1886, and died October 15, 1930. He was converted about the age of twelve and joined Mount Olivet Church. At fourteen he felt the call to preach, which he interpreted as a call, first of all, to get ready to preach. He attended Arcadia High School, Rutherford College, and Mars' Hill College. His theological work was done by correspondence with Vanderbilt and Emory Universities. He was married to Miss Eugenia Roberts, April 23, 1912. He joined the Western North Carolina Conference at High Point in 1912. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Waterhouse at Shelby in 1914, and elder by Bishop Kilgo at Gastonia in 1916. His appointments were as follows: Huntdale Circuit (now Micaville Circuit), 1913-15; Old Fort, 1916-20; Bryson City, 1921-22; Harmony, Concord, 1923; Cherryville, 1924-27; Franklin, 1928-30. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Eugenia L. Mocks, and two daughters, Mrs. C. G. Clapp and Robbie Gay Mock. On October 17, 1930, a host of friends and neighbors, former parishioners, and brethren of the ministry assembled at Mount Olivet Church to pay respect to his memory. Delegations were present from Cherryville and Franklin, friends who had profited by his helpful ministry. Here he had attended Sunday school and church as a barefoot boy. Here he was converted and joined the Church. From this spot he had gone out to college and then to preach the gospel. And now his body is laid tenderly to rest near the church which gave him spiritual birth. C. M. Pickens, his presiding elder, was in charge of the services, assisted by S. M. Needham, J. A. Flannagan, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Franklin, A. W. Plyler of Greensboro, and the writer. Warm words of appreciation were spoken of his life of service. He was a strong, helpful preacher. There was a warmth and glow about his messages that rendered him most effective. He was genuinely evangelistic and much in demand to assist his brethren in revival meetings. He believed in the necessity for better preparation for church workers. The Efficiency Institute and the Standard Training School found him studying side by side with his leading church workers. No more faithful pastor has labored among us. During the terrible flu epidemic of 1918 he rendered such signal service to his stricken people at Old Fort that nothing would satisfy them but his return for the fifth year. Brother Mock possessed executive ability to a large degree and was at home when facing a business proposition. Two of his appointments grew out of the need for a pastor with just these gifts. At the time of his death he held membership on the Conference Budget Commission. He was a versatile and resourceful preacher and church leader. His power of adaptability was unusual. The three charges which he served longest are each in a class by itself, the country circuit, the situation part town and part textile, and the cultured and conservative county town. On each of these charges he made good. We thought of him as one of our younger men, and his going comes with a distinct shock. His health had been poor for nearly a year. He knew that the end was just ahead, and so announced to loved ones and friends. As this soldier of the cross came to stack arms it was no doubt with the consciousness of having fought a good fight.—C. S. Kirkpatrick.

JAMES COACHMAN POSTELLE was born in York, S. C., October 21, 1854, and died in Lenoir, N. C., June 23, 1930. His early life was spent in Lincolnton. Later the family removed to Asheville, and in 1886 Brother Postelle was received on trial into the Holston Conference and held pastorates at Marshall, Franklin Circuit, Coke Creek, Clear Fork, and Cedar Bluff until 1892, when he transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference, where he served as pastor on Monroe Circuit, South Fork, McAdenville, Lilesville, Rock Springs, Table Rock, Fairview, Franklin Circuit, Macon, and Gold Hill in the order mentioned until 1906, when he transferred to the South Georgia Conference and there served Oglethorpe, Ocilla, Richland, Statenville, Valdosta, and Mill Town until 1912, when he returned to this Conference, where he served Mills River, Prospect, Lenoir Circuit, Olin, Sulphur Springs, Spruce Pine, Burnsville, Henrietta, Gilkey, and Old Fort until 1926, when, after forty years of constant service, he was granted the superannuate relation. His father, the late James H. Postelle, was one time member of the South Carolina Conference, as was his grandfather, Jehu Postelle, and the ministry of these three covered the period from 1811 to 1930. His great-grandfather, Capt. Jehu Postelle, was in the brigade of Francis Marion in the war of the Revolution. The Postelles were of Huguenot stock, and the first of that name coming to America landed in Charleston in 1680 and our Brother Postelle was the eighth in the line from this pioneer. His mother, Mrs. Cornelia Wilson Postelle, was a sister of the sainted Jethro Wilson, late of Lenoir, and a niece of the late Joseph Wilson, the brilliant lawyer and distinguished citizen who was State solicitor in the old Salisbury District in the early half of the last century. Brother Postelle was a good preacher, earnest, consecrated, aggressive, and evangelistic. He was uncompromising for the truth as he believed it; he denounced wickedness in high and low places, but always appealed tenderly to the sinner to turn to Christ. He wore no man's collar, thought his own thoughts, preached his own convictions without fear or favor, believed the Apostles' Creed as literally interpreted, and was generally successful in winning souls to Christ. He was not regarded as a popular preacher, but all believed he was a conscientious and good man, and he thus commanded the high respect of the people. An examination of his record shows that most of his work was on circuits and that his salary was generally small, but his reports indicated good revivals, for during the twenty-five years he served in this Conference his average salary was hardly $750, but during that period he added fully one thousand members to the Church on profession of faith. The records are not available to estimate results of his work in the Holston and South Georgia Conferences. He was fortunate in his marriage in 1889 to Miss Martha Frances Cook of Surry County, who was his devoted helpmeet through the long years of his ministry. "Plain living and high thinking" was the rule in their parsonage, and by economy and faith they reared three sons, all of whom reflect credit upon their parsonage training. These with the widow still abide. When superannuation came he settled in Lenoir. He suffered much during the last days, for he had a lingering malady, and when the pain was tense he would often exclaim, "Though he slay me, yet will I trust him," and then sometimes when semiconscious he would preach to those about him with all the fervor of former days. His wife and children nursed him with beautiful devotion, and when the end came there was no fear, but unfaltering faith, as he passed from earthly suffering to the joys of that better country. The funeral service, held in the Lenoir Methodist Church, was conducted by R. G. Tuttle, J. M. Downum, J. S. Hiatt, W. E. Poovey, R. M. Courtney, W. M. Smith, and the writer, after which the body was laid to rest in the Lenoir cemetery.—William L. Sherrill.

Albert Sherrill was born in Rowan County, N. C., November 13, 1861. During his early life he was a member of Saint Enoch Lutheran Church, at Enochville, Rowan County. He was educated at the North Carolina Lutheran College at Mount Pleasant. While teaching at Hickory in 1890 he joined the Methodist Church and was licensed to preach during the pastorate of T. P. Bonner. During 1891-92 he served as junior preacher on the Enochville Circuit, Salisbury District, with J. D. Buie. At the Annual Conference at Winston-Salem in 1892 he was admitted on trial into the traveling connection. The following are the appointments which he served: 1893, Old Fort; 1893-94, Granite Falls; 1895-97, Stanley Creek; 1898-99, South Fork; 1900-02, Randolph; 1903-05, Lenoir Circuit; 1906, Concord Circuit; 1907, Spray and Draper; 1908, Table Rock; 1909-12, Rutherfordton; 1913-16, Summerfield; 1917-20, Stanley. During the fourth year of his pastorate on the Stanley charge his health failed and he moved to Greensboro, where he spent the remainder of his life. While living in Greensboro, he attended the West Market Street Methodist Church preaching services and the Sunday school whenever practicable. While respecting the opinions of others Brother Sherrill had positive convictions and had courage to express them. He advocated the doctrines of evangelical Christianity. Throughout his active ministry he was abundant in service in preaching the word, in shepherding the fold, and in promoting the varied interests of the charge committed to his trust. Entertaining in conversation, he enjoyed pastoral visiting and won the interest and esteem of the people among whom he ministered. Of him it has been worthily said that he was a true servant of the Lord. On June 15, 1892, he was married to Miss Mintie Rodgers, of Rowan County, who shared in the joys and trials of the itinerancy and who tenderly ministered unto her companion during his affliction. For more than five years he endured physical affliction with Christian courage and submission. On Thursday night, December 5, 1929, he suffered a second stroke of paralysis, and on the following Saturday afternoon he entered the larger life. Surviving are the wife, three daughters, and four sons. The funeral service was conducted in Greensboro on Sunday afternoon by H. G. Hardin, assisted by W. A. Newell, G. A. Stamper, and S. B. Turrentine. Interment was in the Pisgah cemetery on the Summerfield Circuit, the service conducted by H. G. Hardin, assisted by H. L. Powell, pastor of Summerfield charge.—S. B. Turrentine.

Frank Siler, son of Jacob and Mary Thornton Siler, was born near Franklin, N. C., on September 21, 1865. He joined the Church at twelve years of age, and three years later had an experience which he regarded as his definite conversion. His call to the ministry came soon after, while he was helping to clear off the cemetery at Mount Zion, his home church. After going to high school at Franklin and Hayesville, Brother Siler entered Emory and Henry College and remained there until his graduation in 1888. He served as supply pastor at Bristol, Va., during the summer and joined the Holston Conference at Asheville in October of that year. In the meantime he had been granted license to exhort in 1883 and license to preach in May, 1885. Immediately after Conference he was married at Franklin to Mary Elizabeth Crawford, who became the mother of his children and remained with him as mistress of the parsonage and helpmeet until May, 1901. The children are Gilmer Siler, Mrs. H. E. Howard, Beal Hendrix Siler, and Mrs. O. S. Buckner. Brother Siler's first charge was the Webster Circuit, which had seventeen appointments. In the summer he consented to become principal of the Franklin High School and went to Conference at Morristown, Tenn., in the fall expecting to continue teaching. But an urgent call for preachers came from the West, and after being ordained deacon by Bishop Wilson, he was transferred to the Western Conference. Brother Siler's appointments in the West were: Western Conference—Seventh Street, Kansas City, 1890-92; Missouri Conference—Maryville, 1893-94; and Francis Street, St. Joseph, 1895-97. In 1892 he was ordained elder by Bishop Hendrix at the session of the Missouri Conference at Council Grove. In the fall of 1897 Brother Siler transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference, and the next series of appointments was as follows: Trinity Church, Charlotte, 1898-1901; Central, Asheville, 1902-05; Statesville, 1906-07; Charlotte District, 1908. In July, 1903, while he was in the midst of his quadrennium at Asheville, Emily Allen, of Forsyth, Ga., a daughter of the Methodist parsonage, left the faculty of Wesleyan College to become his wife and the second mother of his children. She brought him sympathetic understanding, spiritual insight, and unfailing helpfulness, and shared his labors, joys, and sorrows until he was taken from her. In the fall of 1908 Dr. Siler responded to an earnest solicitation to transfer to the North Georgia Conference in order to become pastor of Wesley Memorial Church, Atlanta. His appointments in the North Georgia Conference were: Wesley Memorial, 1909-11; Gainesville, 1912; St. James, Augusta, 1913. Returning to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1913, he served as follows: Conference Misionary Secretary, 1914-16; Finanical Secretary, Greensboro College, 1917; Winston-Salem District, 1918-21; Hendersonville, 1922-24; Clyde-Junaluska, 1925-28. At the Conference of 1928 Dr. Siler was granted the superannuate relation, and the following year was spent without pastoral responsibilities and cares. In early June of this year came the apparently sudden illness revealing a long existing heart trouble. The following months of recurring strength and weakness were met with characteristic cheer, courage, trustful resignation, and marvelous patience. On Friday night, February 21, 1930, in the home of his son, Beal Hendrix, in Tampa, Frank Siler took his departure for the heavenly home. On the Monday following the funeral was conducted at Lake Junaluska by the pastor, F. O. Dryman, assisted by the presiding elder, C. M. Pickens, and W. L. Hutchins. On the afternoon of the same day the body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Franklin.—Gilbert T. Rowe.

Charles Albert Wood, son of the late Dr. Marquis L. and Mrs. Ellen Morphis Wood, was born in Shanghai, China, October 17, 1863, died in Winston-Salem, N. C., January 31, 1930, and his body was laid to rest in the Winston cemetery February 2, in the presence of a large gathering of friends and acquaintances from all over the western section of North Carolina. His mother died in China while he was an infant of only six months. He, with an older brother, Edward, was placed with a Mr. and Mrs. Crawford, Baptist missionaries living more than one hundred miles from Shanghai, who looked after the children for the father for the next two years. Cut off from support by the Church at home by reason of the War between the States, the death of Mrs. Wood left Dr. Wood with two little boys on his hands and his work to be cared for. It was a fortunate circumstance that Mr. and Mrs. Crawford could take them into their home. As soon as the war was over, Dr. Wood returned to the States and took up his work as a pastor in the North Carolina Conference. He served various pastorates until the summer of 1883, when, upon the death of Dr. Braxton Craven, he was elected president of Trinity College. It was while his father was president that Charles entered the freshman class at Trinity College. He attended the college for about three years, but left before completing the courses for his degree. The greater part of the next ten years was spent at Winston-Salem in various business positions. On September 23, 1891, while living in Winston, he was married to Miss Martha Elizabeth Mann, also of Winston-Salem, daughter of the late James E. Mann, prominent member of the North Carolina Conference. Charles Wood joined the Methodist Church when a boy, but it was in the early part of the year 1896 that he went through a religious experience so profound that he always looked back upon it as the date of his real transformation. It was at this date that he acknowledged a call to preach. He was licensed to preach July 18, 1896, and at the Annual Conference, at Salisbury, was admitted on trial November 21, 1896. Two years later, at Winston-Salem, he was ordained deacon by Bishop Fitzgerald. On November 25, 1900, at Greensboro, he was ordained elder by Bishop Morrison. He served the following charges: 1896, East Bend Circuit; 1897-99, Forsyth Circuit; 1901-02, Ruffin Circuit; 1903-06, Ramseur and Franklinville; 1907-10, Asheboro Station; 1911, Mount Zion; 1912-15, Asheville District; 1916-19, Shelby, Central; 1920, Wadesboro; 1921-1930, Superintendent of Children's Home. He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Martha M. Wood, and an only daughter, Miss Margaret Wood, who make their home in Winston-Salem. Perhaps the outstanding characteristic of this man was his uncompromising honesty. Another clearly defined trait in Charlie Wood's character was his faith in the supernatural God, and one must not neglect to emphasize the trait of loyalty so often manifest in this man's life. Left an orphan at six months of age, he was peculiarly fitted to be the foster father for the past eight years of 200 children at our Children's Home. His closest official associate during these eight years rendered this fitting tribute: "He loved his children." His business career of ten years gave him an aptitude for organization and business administration that stood him in good stead for the eight years' expansion program that he supervised at the Home. He erected one building for each year that he was at the institution. He left it expertly staffed and thoroughly organized. That was his real contribution to the Home, and it was a contribution that is vital to the future of the institution. His background of the place and circumstances of his birth and first two years spent in China gave him an abiding interest in missions. His father and mother went as bride and groom on the ship, "The Seaman's Bride," embarking for the voyage in December, 1859. With them on the same ship went another young couple, also life volunteers for China, Mr. and Mrs. Young J. Allen. No wonder that Brother Wood always followed the development of our work under the able leadership of the world-famed Dr. Allen, for his own father and Dr. Allen had alone held this great territory for our Church in the most trying period of modern missions, from 1861 to 1865. He was also interested in the development of Trinity College. His father was president and he was a student at the college in those trying days that followed the death of Dr. Craven, the real founder of Trinity College. Had Dr. Craven lived, the financial crisis of 1883-87 would probably have never developed. Dr. Marquis L. Wood was at the helm at Trinity at what was probably the crisis hour of its history, just as he was in China at the crisis hour of our mission there. Charles Wood was not abashed by difficulties; he was born into and grew up in the very atmosphere of difficulties bravely faced and overcome. He came to the Children's Home at an hour when a man of calm temperament was needed. He had to fight through two different phases of litigation, the favorable issue of which meant a great deal to the future of the Children's Home. He, with the Executive Committee, chose such wise counselors and fought the cases with such wise judgment, that he won both issues. He seemed, indeed, "a man called to the kingdom for such a time" as this period in the history of the development of the Children's Home. He met the issues calmly, courageously, fought them through, laid down his task for other hands to carry forward, and has entered into a well-earned reward.—John F. Kirk.

WESTERN VIRGINIA CONFERENCE

SEVENTY-SEVENTH SESSION

HELD AT BARBOURSVILLE, W. VA., SEPTEMBER 10-14, 1930

BISHOP MCMURRY, President; W. I. CANTER, Secretary

QUESTION 1. Who are admitted on trial? ANSWER. Frederick Oxendale, Edwin Kyle Sawyers, Bryon Elmo Kelley. 3.

Ques. 2. Who else is in the class of the first year? None.

Ques. 3. Who remain on trial? Asa Everett Kniceley, John Weston Hollister, Samuel Paris Bell, Jr., Lyda Delbert Icard. 4.

Ques. 4. Who else is in the class of the second year? None.

Ques. 5. Who are discontinued? None.

Ques. 6. Who are admitted into full connection? William Cooley Stearns, Jesse Daniel Franklin, Okey Summers, Roy Gainor Ellis. 4.

Ques 7. Who else is in the class of the third year? None.

Ques. 8. Who are readmitted? None.

Ques. 9. Who are received by transfer from other Conferences? J. W. Pearson, an elder, from the North Alabama Conference. 1.

Ques. 10. Who are received from other Churches as traveling preachers? None.

Ques. 11. Who are located this year? Arthur Hall and W. A. O'Dell, each at his own request. 2.

Ques. 12. Who have withdrawn or been expelled? Withdrawn, C. W. O'Dell, from the ministry and membership of the Church under report of immorality.

Ques. 13. Who are transferred to other Conferences? R. H. Ruff, an elder, to the Missouri Conference; W. S. Hendricks, an elder, to the North Alabama Conference; G. P. Warfield and A. A. McNeer, elders, to the Baltimore Conference; R. J. Yoak, an elder, to the Louisville Conference. 5.

Ques. 14. What preachers have died during the year? W. L. Dorsey. 1.

W. L. DORSEY passed away on Thursday, April 10, 1930, just before the break of day, at Runa, W. Va. The day previous he had worked around his home as ususal and retired early, which was his custom when at home. He was feeling well when he retired. At about eleven o'clock his wife was awakened by his struggling and a doctor was called, but when he arrived he found that nothing could be done, and in about five hours Brother Dorsey passed to the great beyond. The Western Virginia Conference had no more loyal member than Brother Dorsey. He was converted forty-five years ago, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. For a number of years he was a member of the board of stewards of the Hominy Falls charge, and as his pastor part of that time I want to say that I never had a better steward in all my ministry. When the General Conference recommended that our Sunday schools be organized into mission schools, at the suggestion of Brother Dorsey the Pleasant Hill Sunday School was organized into a mission school, which was the first Sunday school in the Western Virginia Conference to follow the plan as recommended by the General Conference. He was first married to Miss Neoma Bennett. To this union three sons and one daughter were born: Bolivar (who died in infancy), Alexander, Forest, and Mrs. Cora Evans. After the death of his wife, he was married to Miss Sarah Amick. To this union were born five children: Cora, Lucian, Marvin, Frank, and William. He also reared an adopted daughter, Miss Flora Litz. Brother Dorsey joined the Western Virginia Conference in 1910, and served the following charges: Meadowville, one year; Reader, four years; Hominy Falls (his home circuit), four years; Levisay, two years; Blue Jay, two years; Nallen, two years; Smott, two years; Quinnwood, one year. He was then returned to Hominy Falls charge the second time, where he had served one year and about seven months when God called him from labor to rest. Two brothers, Marvin and Kerneelis, preceded him to the other world. His father, Alic Dorsey, three sisters, Mrs. Marthy Amick, Mrs. Betty Amick, Mrs. Rena O'Dell, and two brothers, Luther Dorsey and Rev. W. E. Dorsey, survive. His funeral was conducted from the home on Sunday, April 13, by the writer, assisted by L. S. Cunningham, presiding elder, O. S. Donahoe, of Rupert, and Mr. Boling, of the Baptist Church. His remains were laid to rest in the new cemetery which he had donated to the Pleasant Hill M. E. Church, South, just about a month before. Brother Dorsey stood at his post, and died in the field.

Ques. 15. Who are the deacons of one year? Harold Hampton Rinehart, Robert James Chenoweth, Walter Burk Bias, Charles William Pugh, Richard Perry Crumpler, Robert Murrell McClain. 6.

Ques. 16. Who else is in the class of the fourth year? None.

Ques. 17. What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been elected deacons? Traveling preachers, Jesse Daniel Franklin, Okey Summers, Bryon Elmo Kelley. 3. Local preacher, none.

Ques. 18. What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been ordained deacons? Traveling preachers, Jesse Daniel Franklin, Okey Summers, Bryon Elmo Kelley. 3. Local preacher, Andrew J. McComas. 1.

Ques. 19. What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been elected elders? Traveling preachers, Rosseau McClung, George Franklin Plybon, Manford Grover Flowers, Perry Edward Stout, Moss Bias, Otie Severn Donahoe, Luther Luster Casto. 7. Local preacher, Colonel Horry Peters. 1.

Ques. 20. What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been ordained elders? Traveling preachers, Rosseau McClung, George Franklin Plybon, Manford Grover Flowers, Perry Edward Stout, Moss Bias, Otto Severn Donahoe, Luther Luster Casto. 7. Local preacher, Colonel Horry Peters. 1.

Ques. 21. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? Their names were called, one by one, and their characters examined and passed, with the exception of C. W. O'Dell, who was permitted to withdraw under report of immorality.

Ques. 22. Who are supernumerary? E. G. Bailes. 1.

Ques. 23. Who are superannuated? H. B. Hewlett, B. C. Davis, Elias Yoak, H. T. Watts, A. B. Moore, J. A. H. Barrett, E. T. Caton, G. W. Presley, L. E. Harrison, J. B. F. Yoak. 10.

Ques. 24. What is the number of districts, of pastoral charges, and of societies in this Conference? Districts, 6; pastoral charges, 139; societies, 462.

Ques. 25. What is the number of members, how many have been received this year on profession of faith, how many have been licensed to preach, and what is the number of local preachers? Members, 39,768; received on profession of faith, 2,187; licensed, 11; local preachers, 130.

How Do Men Pray?

HALF a hundred men of affairs were in conference. A question of great importance to every one present was under discussion. There seemed to be no unanimity of opinion concerning a method of procedure. Then there came a tense moment when human leadership to all appearances seemed lacking. It was not in a church—far from it.

In the group there were Protestants, Catholics, Jews. One man said: "I feel that the time has come when we need leadership from on High." Another said: "Let us pray over this matter to-night." Another queried: "Why wait until to-night? Should we not be always in an attitude of prayer? Why not pray right now that God will lead us out of this wilderness and out into the light?" And one of the number—a business man — offered up an earnest prayer to God for guidance, and direction, and leadership. And a still small Voice seemed to quiet the troubled spirits of the perplexed men who were gathered together.

All of which suggests a very personal question: Do you pray at night only—you who earn your bread by the sweat of your brow, you who make your living by your wits, you who serve tables; aye, you who profess to be striving to save the souls of men from eternal destruction? It is a simple question, easy enough to ask; but how about the answer? Perhaps some one will say, "I pray both morning and night." Even so. But is the petition that is uttered always a prayer? Is it not sometimes a train of thoughts laden with selfish requests and perhaps with platitudes? Is it not sometimes even devoid of spiritual significance, and does it not often lack the elements of worship?

We believe that God's children should be always in the spirit of prayer—should pray without ceasing. "Men ought always to pray." Likewise we should also work without ceasing in order to obtain real answers to our prayers, since God does not promise to do for us anything that we can do for ourselves. It is futile, for instance, to pray for the salvation of the world if we are unwilling to speak a word for Jesus Christ to our nextdoor neighbor, our man of all work, or the man with whom we rub shoulders day by day.

Surely men ought to pray; there is no discounting this. Pray for something: do not merely indulge in platitudes. The Lord not only loves a cheerful giver; he also loves an earnest and worshipful prayer.

Can you count on your fingers the definite answers that you have had to your seriously thoughtful prayers? If not, give some thought to this matter and ask yourself why. If we expect God to hear and answer our prayers, we must attune our lives so that we can hear him when he speaks.

Let us therefore "watch and pray," that we enter not into temptation, knowing that "more things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of." "He that forgets to pray bids not himself good-morrow nor good-day."

If we pray earnestly to God and work faithfully with him, victory is sure to come sooner or later.

Pray, Lord, teach us to pray.

Some Acts of the 1930 General Conference

THE last General Conference will be remembered perhaps as well for what it undid as for what it did.

It was by far the largest of all our General Conferences—472 delegates entitled to seats. And it convened in the heart of the largest State of the Union. Now, let no man deceive himself into thinking that it was a sectional gathering, for the assembled delegates came from twenty-five States, the District of Columbia, and nine foreign countries—truly many men and women of many minds. And, think of this, every twentieth delegate you met was a woman.

The Conference went in strictly for business and to save as much time as possbile; hence the reading of the minutes before the Conference was dispensed with, thus saving about thirty minutes daily.

The report of the Commission on Constitution was considered, amended, and adopted item by item, but the report as a whole failed of passage when the final vote was taken.

Traveling preachers who have been in effective relation for ten consecutive years may now have a year's leave of absence every seventh year under certain conditions without losing their relationship as effective ministers. (See editorial elsewhere.)

Assistant preachers were provided for.

Provision was made for the establishment of autonomous Churches in Brazil, Korea, and Mexico.

The Belgian Mission, Texas Mexican Mission, and Western Mexican Mission were erected into Annual Conferences.

The Latin District of the Florida Conference was detached and formed into a Mission.

The Denver Conference was merged into the New Mexico Conference.

The East and West Oklahoma Conferences were consolidated into the Oklahoma Conference.

The Panhandle District of the West Oklahoma Conference was transferred to the Northwest Texas Conference.

In order that the Church may conduct an effective and harmonious program which shall cover all the interests included in the general assessment and the Voluntary Kingdom Extension Offering, General and Conference Commissions on Benevolences were provided for.

The General Board of Christian Education was established, and it will do all the work formerly done by the Sunday School Board, Epworth League Board, and Board of Education.

The words "serve him and obey him" were stricken from the marriage ceremony.

Three new bishops were elected: Arthur J. Moore, Paul B. Kern, and A. Frank Smith.

The Conference by a vote of 293 to 10 recommended to the Annual Conferences the adoption of a measure providing for the establishment of a Judicial Council.

The Conference provided for the automatic retirement of bishops at the General Conference nearest their seventy-second birthday—effective at the close of the General Conference of 1934.

The publication of the Methodist Quarterly Review was ordered discontinued.

On the fifteenth day, by a vote of 174 to 159, the Conference voted to "grant to faithful, called, and prepared women the rights of the clergy on the same basis as they are granted to faithful, called, and prepared men." The bishops decided that this is a constitutional question and would require a two-thirds vote to send down to the Annual Conferences for ratification. The question coming up again, it was declared lost when the vote stood 164 for and 128 against.

Many other things were done that need not be recorded here. Interested readers may find the full report of the proceedings in the Journal of the Twenty-First Session of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Additions on Profession

WHILE at this writing the official reports are not in from all the Annual Conferences, the indications are that there will be no material difference in the number of members received on profession of faith this year and last. (See Table II at the back of the YEARBOOK.) That there has been no appreciable difference is perhaps due to the fact that 1930 was General Conference year and also that there has been a feeling of depression among the people of every class all over the country.

But is it not true that in times of depression there is a tendency on the part of multitudes to lift up their hearts and turn them toward the throne where sits the Heavenly Father? If this is true, surely there are now thousands who are ready, upon occasion, to profess faith in Jesus Christ as their Saviour and to come into the fold of the Church.

Indeed, these are times when the souls of men are tried and preachers and Christian laymen should be on the alert to do everything in their power to strengthen the faith of men and women in the realities of religion and the eternal verities. If serious effort is put forth in the year now at hand, there is no reason why a quarter of a million new members should not be received into our Church on profession of faith during 1931.

"They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever."

Sabbatical Leave

THE General Conference at Dallas made a stride forward when it adopted legislation granting leave of absence to ministers under certain conditions, as follows: "Any minister who has been in effective relation to any Annual Conferences for ten consecutive years from the time of his admission on trial may have a leave of absence for one year without losing his relationship as an effective minister. This leave is to be allowed for travel, study, rest, or for other justifiable reasons. This leave of absence, granted by the bishop holding the Conference, must be upon the vote of the Annual Conference to which the minister belongs, after said minister has given notice to his presiding elder and after the presiding elder has given notice to the bishop, not later than the first day of the session of the Annual Conference, of his intention to request such leave of absence. Such leave of absence shall not be granted to one man more frequently than one year in seven."

Although this new paragraph has been in the Discipline only since the adjournment of the General Conference, we find that several of our preachers were soon ready to take advantage of its provisions, as the following names testify:

J. P. Bray, Northwest Conference.
J. M. Cannon, Little Rock Conference.
E. J. Harper, Northwest Conference.
W. C. Jones, North Carolina Conference.
J. D. Pinkston, North Texas Conference.
R. R. Rose, Missouri Conference.
E. A. Walker, Memphis Conference.
G. W. Western, Arizona Conference.
C. C. Wilkerson, Alabama Conference.
J. C. Wolfe, Holston Conference.
J. M. Workman, Little Rock Conference.

We predict that, year by year, as our preachers adjust their affairs to make it possible for them to enjoy a year of change, rest, recreation, and study, more and more of them will be found who will be asking for the privileges of the Sabbatical leave of absence.

Ministers in Service Clubs

MANY of our preachers scattered about over our territory are connected up with some of the well-known service clubs. And this is to be commended, for these clubs stand for something really worth while. Presumably there are several things that motivate Methodist ministers in joining these clubs: A good chicken dinner once a week, an opportunity for self-expression with men only, a relaxing good time at noon in midweek, and participation in teamwork with a group that is striving to render some civic service for the benefit of the community.

Methodist Headquarters

OUR cities should have centers where Methodists can come together for special meetings and for fellowship generally—not merely for those who live thereabouts, but for the accommodation of those who may stop over for a day or two to see the points of interest. We now have headquarters in the cities named below:

Atlanta: Wesley Memorial Building.

Birmingham: 516 North Twenty-Second Street.

Chicago (M. E. Church): 58 East Washington Street.

Dallas: Publishing House, 1308 Commerce Street.

Dobbs Ferry, N. Y. (M. E. Church): Book Concern Building.

Fayetteville (Ark.): Mount Sequoyah.

Lake Junaluska: Assembly Grounds.

Little Rock: Eleventh and Scott Streets.

Los Angeles: Trinity Church.

Louisville: 1115 Fourth Avenue.

Memphis: 616-618 Empire Building.

Nashville: Publishing House, 810 Broadway; Mission Rooms, Doctors' Building.

New Orleans: 512 Camp Street.

New York (M. E. Church): 150 Fifth Avenue.

Philadelphia (M. E. Church): 1701 Arch Street.

Richmond: Publishing House, Fifth and Grace Streets.

St. Louis: Security Building.

San Francisco: Publishing House, Pacific Building.

Our Veteran Secretaries

Facts About Our Bishops

THERE have been 61 bishops of the Church, including those who were bishops before the division in 1844, and 51 bishops in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, since the division.

The youngest man ever elected to the episcopacy was Charles B. Galloway, who was elected at the General Conference in Richmond, Va., in 1886, at the early age of 36.

The oldest man ever elected was John Early, who was selected at Columbus, Ga., in 1854, at the age of 68.

Joseph S. Key died in 1920 at the age of 91, being the oldest of the bishops.

The oldest living bishop is Collins Denny, who was 76 on May 28, 1930.

The youngest living bishop is A. Frank Smith, who celebrated his forty-first anniversary on November 1, 1930.

When Our Bishops Retire

THE General Conference of 1930 at Dallas adopted the following legislation concerning the superannuation of a bishop: "A bishop may be superannuated on account of age or infirmity, at his own request, or on recommendation of the Committee on Episcopacy; provided, that no bishop shall remain on the effective list longer than the General Conference nearest his seventy-second birthday; provided, further, that the provision in regard to age retirement shall not become effective until the close of the General Conference of 1934."

If each of the sixteen bishops now living continues on the active roll until the General Conference when he will become automatically superannuated, the table below gives the year of his retirement and also his age on May 15 of the General Conference year:

1934

W. A. Candler	76 years, 9 months
Collins Denny	80 years
H. M. Du Bose	75 years, 6½ months

1938

John M. Moore	71 years, 3½ months
W. F. McMurry	73 years, 10½ months
James Cannon, Jr	73 years, 6½ months
Sam R. Hay	72 years, 7 months
H. A. Boaz	71 years, 5 months

1942

E. D. Mouzon	73 years
U. V. W. Darlington	71 years, 9½ mos.
W. N. Ainsworth	70 years, 3 months
W. B. Beauchamp	73 years, 2 months

1950

H. M. Dobbs	71 years, 6 months

1954

Paul B. Kern	71 years, 11 months

1962

Arthur J. Moore	73 years, 4½ months
A. Frank Smith	72 years, 6½ months

Pre-Episcopal Occupations of Our Bishops

WE give below a list of the living bishops, the Conference of which each was a member, and the position held by each when elected.

It will be noted that four were college or university presidents, six were pastors, three were connectional secretaries, two were university professors, and one was Book Editor.

Warren A. Candler, North Georgia, President of Emory College.

Collins Denny, Baltimore, professor in Vanderbilt University.

Edwin D. Mouzon, West Texas, professor in Southwestern University.

John M. Moore, North Texas, Secretary of Home Missions.

William F. McMurry, St. Louis, Secretary of Board of Church Extension.

Urban V. W. Darlington, Western Virginia, President of Morris Harvey College.

Horace M. Du Bose, North Georgia, Book Editor.

William N. Ainsworth, South Georgia, pastor of Wesley Monumental Church, Savannah, Ga.

James Cannon, Jr., Virginia, President of Blackstone College for Girls.

William B. Beauchamp, Virginia, Foreign Secretary of Board of Missions.

Sam R. Hay, Texas, pastor of First Church, Houston, Tex.

Hoyt M. Dobbs, North Alabama, pastor of First Church, Anniston, Ala.

Hiram Abiff Boaz, Central Texas, President of Southern Methodist University.

Arthur J. Moore, North Alabama, pastor of First Church, Birmingham.

Paul B. Kern, West Texas, pastor of Travis Park Church, San Antonio, Tex.

A. Frank Smith, Texas, pastor of First Church, Houston, Tex.

Salaries of the Bishops

The active bishops are paid $6,000 per year, with a maximum of $1,500 per year for house rent and clerical help and $500 per year for traveling expenses. The bishop who serves the district along the Pacific Coast is allowed $500 extra for traveling expenses.

The salary of a retired bishop is $3,000 per year. The compensation for the widows of bishops is $1,200 per year, with an allowance of $300 per year for each dependent child under eighteen years of age. Miss Nina Wilson receives $1,200, and $800 for the care of her sister.

Bishops' Widows

The living widows of our bishops are: Mrs. James Atkins, Lake Junaluska, N. C.; Mrs. John C. Kilgo, Charlotte, N. C.; Mrs. J. H. McCoy, Athens, Ala.; Mrs. A. Coke Smith, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. R. G. Waterhouse, Knoxville, Tenn.; Mrs. Seth Ward, Dallas, Tex.; Mrs. W. B. Murrah, Memphis, Tenn.; Mrs. J. E. Dickey, Atlanta, Ga.

The Yearbook

This is the eighth volume of the General Minutes and Yearbook issued under one cover. We sincerely trust that the Yearbook is filling a long-felt need with our laymen and preachers everywhere. As our chief aim is to serve the brethren and to make of the General Minutes and Yearbook a volume that is in every respect worthy of going into our permanent libraries of Methodist history, we are gratified that it is being cordially received everywhere. We are sure our Methodist people will find it more and more serviceable as they become better and better acquainted with its many features.

We have much pleasure in commending Secretaries R. S. Satterfield, R. G. Mood, Sterling Fisher, and W. L. Sherrill for remarkable promptness in forwarding complete minutes this year. They made records to be proud of, when we consider how much labor is required to compile the statistics and work out the Conference directory in addition to furnishing all the answers to the forty-five questions asked by the bishop at the Conference.

During the year 1930 the following named Secretaries furnished complete reports to this office within four weeks after the adjournment of their Conferences and are entitled to places on our

Honor Roll of Secretaries

Favorite Hymns and Texts

THE two hundred and forty clerical delegates to the General Conference were asked to name their several favorite hymns and texts for the benefit of readers of the YEARBOOK. The indications are that many of these brethren had already furnished this information and perhaps thought it a work of supererogation to appear in print again. The list below has many points of interest:

The most popular hymn is No. 481, "O Love that wilt not let me go," with others following, respectively, as follows:

1. "O for a thousand tongues."
135. "Majestic sweetness sits enthroned."
141. "When I survey the wondrous Cross."
309. "Amazing grace, how sweet the sound."
463. "Jesus, Lover of my soul."

Of the favorite texts, as in previous issues of the YEARBOOK, John 3: 16 leads all the rest, this time with sixteen votes. The texts are scattered through the Bible, favorites being found in three books of the Old Testament and twelve books of the New Testament. Sermons preached from the texts named above will go far toward lifting the thoughts of our people to higher things and will help to make our people better Christians.

Kinsmen in the Ministry

If the average layman has as many relatives per capita in the ministry as the ministers themselves have relatives among themselves, there can be no doubt about it: the whole world is surely nearly akin.

And it is fortunate that this brotherhood is so widespread and so closely knit together; for wherever we go we may be sure of a welcome from some brother beloved—or perchance a cousin, an uncle, a nephew, or a grandfather.

May their tribe increase.

James Edward Alexander, Southwest Missouri, and William Marvin Alexander, Missouri, are brothers.

Walter Anthony is the nephew of Bascom Anthony, and uncle of Anthony Hearn, all of South Georgia; double cousin of B. B. Glasgow, North Alabama; cousin of H. L. and R. H. Edmondson, North Georgia, and cousin of Mack Anthony, South Georgia.

Sidney Henry Babcock is the father of Sidney H. Babcock, III, local preacher, Oklahoma.

W. A. Betts, South Carolina, is the father of Albert D. Betts, South Carolina, and Daniel L. Betts, South Brazil.

James W. Blackard, Memphis, is the father of William F. Blackard, Holston, and Embree Hoss Blackard, Southwest Missouri.

T. M. Bradley, North Mississippi, and O. W. Bradley, Louisiana, are brothers.

Homer U. Campbell is the nephew of R. F. Campbell, Southwest Missouri.

E. B. Chappell, Tennessee, is brother of A. C. Chappell, Western North Carolina, and C. G. Chappell, Texas, and the uncle of Phil. E. Chappell, New Mexico.

Julius Earl Crawford, Central Texas, is the father-in-law of Charles Otis Ball, Oklahoma.

J. W. Crichlow, North Arkansas, is brother-in-law of B. L. Harris, North Arkansas, and cousin by marriage of C. T. Tally, Holston.

William A. Davis, Pacific, is the uncle of Norman Goode, Southwest Missouri, cousin of Warren T. Whiteside, North Texas, and brother-in-law of A. T. O'Rear, Pacific.

R. I., J. F., and G. W. Graham, Oklahoma, are brothers.

Waights G. Henry is the father of W. G. Henry, Jr., local preacher, North Alabama.

J. Mack Jenkins is first cousin of W. D. Jenkins and second cousin of James L. Jenkins, all of Memphis.

John S. and Frank E. Jenkins, North Georgia, C. R. Jenkins, South Georgia, I. C. Jenkins, Florida, and L. R. Jenkins, St. Louis, are brothers.

William Peter and George L. King, North Georgia, are brothers.

William F. Maxedon is the son of T. F. Maxedon, brother of E. W. Maxedon, and nephew of J. B. Maxedon, local preacher, all of Memphis.

Alexander C. Millar, Little Rock, and Charles C. Millar, Presbyterian missionary, are brothers.

James Walter Mills is brother-in-law of L. B. Elrod and cousin of A. J. McCary and John W. Mills, all of Texas.

Harry M. and William B. North, North Carolina, are brothers.

James M. Ormond, North Carolina, is a cousin of J. L. Cuninggim, North Carolina, and a brother-in-law of Bishop Paul B. Kern.

W. Roy and D. A. Phillips are brothers and cousins of L. T. Phillips, all of South Carolina.

Clare Purcell, North Alabama, and Edwin Purcell, Southern Presbyterian, are cousins.

William F. Quillian, South Georgia, is cousin of H. M. and Frank Quillian, North Georgia, Paul Quillian, Little Rock, and A. W. Quillian, South Georgia.

Olin Ray, Virginia, Guy Ray, North Mississippi, and C. M. Ray, local preacher, North Mississippi, are brothers.

Alfred F. Smith, J. Linn Haw, St. Louis, and Marvin T. Haw, Southwest Missouri, are cousins.

Charles A. Spragins, North Texas, and H. S. Spragins, Memphis, are brothers.

Richard T. and R. E. Tyler, North Alabama, are brothers.

Robert W. and Albert F. Vaughan, Louisiana, are brothers.

O. E. Vivion is the father of King and Monroe Vivion, all of the Texas Conference.

Per Capita Giving in the Church

THAT the financial depression of which we heard so much in 1930 was really widespread is perceptibly reflected in the reports that were presented at the Annual Conferences. A glance at the table below will show that in only six Conferences and two Missions in the United States was there an increase in the per capita giving of our people. For the entire Church the average per capita contribution for all purposes in 1929 was $15.47; whereas in 1930 it was only $13.62—a falling off of $1.85 for every man, woman, and child in the Church. This is almost 12 per cent and is greater by far than it should be, even in abnormal times. Let us lift up our hearts in 1931, count our manifold blessings, loosen our purse strings, bring our tithes into the storehouse of the Church, and see if God will not "open the windows of heaven, and pour out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

The table below shows the fluctuations for a quadrennium. Examine it and see if you and your Conference are on the upgrade.

The American's Creed

I BELIEVE in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign States; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies. (Written by William Tyler Page, Clerk of the U. S. House of Representatives, in 1917, and adopted and promulgated by the Government's Committee on Publication. Accepted by the House of Representatives on behalf of the American people, April 3, 1918.)

PASTIMES OF OUR GENERAL CONFERENCE FAMILY

As one sits on the platform at a General Conference day after day and looks down into the sea of faces of the many men and women who constitute its delegated body, he is impressed with the dignity, the patience, the good humor—we might almost say the perseverance—of these saints. They are attentive, nearly always sympathetic—even when they do not agree with what is being presented from the speaker's stand—and always courteous. The most of them are far from home and the old familiar haunts. And as all their acts at General Conference concern the work of the Church, one sometimes wonders if they ever have time back at home to indulge in any playful pastimes. In order to satisfy this curiosity the Editor made specific inquiries of the delegates concerning their own pastimes and those of their life partners, and is delighted to report that they have many hobbies to ride when the work of the day is done. Let each one who responded tell his own story:

Business.—Nat G. Rollins.

OUR ONE HUNDRED (100) LARGEST CHURCHES

Editorial Note

It was our intention to present several lists under this heading this year; but, for one reason or another, the Annual Conference Journals were very slow in reaching our office during the fall and winter of 1930, the last day of the year finding us without some of them. As we are entirely dependent on these journals for much of the information that we expected to present here, we abandoned the project at the last minute when it became apparent that we could not give full and accurate information concerning the churches that made the largest contributions for missions and also for the benevolences. Since the last General Conference adopted the system of the Voluntary Kingdom Extension Offering for raising something more than a million dollars a year for some of the boards, instead of endeavoring to raise the amount by the assessment method, it will be a matter of great interest next year to publish the list of our one hundred churches that will respond most liberally to this appeal for the causes interested.

The two lists presented here are compiled from the very latest reports to this office.

Churches marked with an asterisk (*) appear in both lists.

50-63 YEARS MARRIED—AND SWEETHEARTS STILL

HALF a century is a long time for a man and a woman to live together in happy wedlock. Still we have many couples in our Church who have long since celebrated their Golden Weddings —and some who expect to celebrate their Diamond Jubilees if their strength abides.

Below we give the date of marriage, the full names of the happy couples when known, present address, and place of marriage when possible.

August 16, 1868.—Albert and Fredricka Kletser Horn, Glendale, Calif. Married at Tonawanda, N. Y.

December 31, 1868.—Mr. and Mrs. John Samuel Williams, Albany, Mo.

1869.—Mr. and Mrs. William Hurt, Grider, Ky.

December 21, 1870.—James Wesley and Lillie Josephine Pryor, Mayfield, Ky. Married in Marshall County, Ky.

April 27, 1871.—Robert Bruce and Davia Lackey Blackburn, Mayfield, Ky. Married at Woodburn, Ky.

March 19, 1873.—Rev. and Mrs. T. Thomas, Berkeley, Calif.

November 17, 1874.—Henry Bascom and Julia Ann Hobbs Wright, Mayfield, Ky. Married in Graves County, Ky.

December 2, 1875.—Andrew S. and Mary Eliza Curry Wilson, Altus, Okla. Married at Waxahachie, Tex.

July 15, 1877.—Charles Ingram and Mary Elizabeth Hite Travis, Mayfield, Ky. Married in Graves County, Ky.

CENTENARIANS, NONAGENARIANS, OCTOGENARIANS

In addition to the hundreds of men and women whose names have appeared in this department during the last seven years, we have pleasure in presenting another contribution this year. These dear fathers and mothers in Israel are a benediction to those with whom they come in contact, including those of their own households. May they continue to be a blessing to many.

OUR BENEVOLENCES

Our Healing Ministry

BY CHARLES C. JARRELL

"The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, recognizes its obligation to relieve human distress in the name of the Lord Jesus, who 'went about doing good and healing all manner of diseases.' Accordingly, the Church believes that hospitals should be established and maintained by our denomination for the care of the sick and injured." These are the opening words of Chapter XVII in the Discipline of 1930.

No radical change in hospital legislation at the last General Conference was either asked or made. The new Discipline, however, will show several improvements in the practical handling of the Golden Cross Enrollment funds.

Funds coming from Conferences not owning or controlling hospitals will be remitted by the General Hospital Board to the Southern Methodist Hospital and Sanatorium at Tucson, Ariz., inasmuch as it is the only connectional hospital owned by our Church.

Recent Events in Hospital Field

1. On March 3 the first patient was admitted to the newly opened Methodist Hospital at Fort Worth, Tex. This hospital building has been widely admired as one of the greatest hospital structures in the nation. It is ten stories high, and will ultimately have a capacity of 405 beds. Several floors at present have been left unfinished, so that the bed capacity at this time is about 200. The building is a dominant figure in the sky line of Fort Worth, and the impression conveyed by the building is nothing short of immense. Seen from the air, the building presents the figure of a majestic cross. It has cost up to date $1,250,000.

2. The opening early in July of the new Duke Hospital and Medical College bestows upon the Methodist Church and upon the Southern people in general a medical center destined to have a nationwide reputation. This healing plant, with its equipment, cost four million dollars, and is fortified by an endowment of six million dollars. The General Hospital Board joins the Church at large in gratitude to God that the ministry of healing is thus beginning to bear fruit in the life of our Church. It is safe to say that Duke Hospital will carry the memory of its noble founder to the ends of the earth and afar down the files of time.

3. The magnificent new building at Barnes Hospital is costing over $500,000, and its service will be improved by an additional endowment of $450,000. Other buildings closely affiliated with Barnes Hospital will increase its national fame as a medical center, and enlarge its service to the multitudes, both rich and poor, who seek its ministration. Barnes offers unusual opportunities for doctors seeking advanced work and for young women seeking nurse training under the auspices of a great medical college.

4. The Good Samaritan Hospital at Lexington, Ky., rejoices in the erection of a beautiful hospital building, four stories high, constructed of white stone on three sides. This new building sits just in front of the original Good Samaritan Hospital and will increase the bed capacity of the institution to 200 beds.

5. The latest Southern Methodist Hospital is being located at Elkin, N. C., to serve the Piedmont regions around Winston-Salem. The contract was signed early in July for the construction of a fifty-bed hospital on a beautiful fifteen-acre site. The family of the late Mr. Hugh Chatham has given liberally to this enterprise, and the Duke Foundation has contributed one-half of the orginal building cost. It will also pay to the hospital one dollar per day for every charity patient treated.

Recent Big Gifts

During the year 1930 several large donations have been made to our hospitals by generous givers.

1. Mr. W. S. F. Tatum has given $100,000 as an endowment to our Methodist Hospital at Hattiesburg, Miss. Brother Tatum is President of the Board of Trustees and is deeply interested in this enterprise.

2. The sum of $100,000 was given to the Good Samaritan Hospital by a generous donor who has since passed to her reward, Mrs. Mary A. Ott. To this sum was added $200,000 by the President of the Board of Trustees, Mr. H. L. Ott, of Passa Grille, Fla. Both of these gifts have gone into the new building (described in another paragraph), which will be known as the Mary A. Ott Memorial.

3. The sum of $25,000 has been given to the Methodist Hospital at Dallas, Tex., by its loyal friend, Mr. W. E. Easterwood.

4. The Marshall Foundation has been created in Tucson, Ariz., to receive and administer the Marshall fortune. This foundation names the Southern Methodist Hospital and Sanatorium at Tucson, Ariz., as one of its two coequal beneficiaries. While this foundation brings no immediate relief to the hospital, it makes large provision for its future development.

5. The Hutchinson Fund for the Needy Blind is being transferred to the General Hospital Board as trustee. This fund will be used for the needy blind of Arizona through the services of our hospital at Tucson. The fund amounts to about $20,000.

6. The General Hospital Board has received the sum of $2,000 from the estate of the late Mr. Joseph McKinley, of Atlanta, Ga. This sum of money is held in trust by the General Hospital Board.

This board sincerely prays that other similar and larger amounts may be conveyed to it by gift or bequest.

A SWIFT REVIEW

There are now twelve Southern Methodist hospitals, counting the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital, now being erected at Elkin, N. C.

Our hospitals have about 1,800 patients' beds; treat annually 32,000 to 33,000 patients; give annually $475,000 of free service to men, women, and children unable to pay the regular fees; train over 700 young women for the ministry of healing; and are worth upward of $16,000,000.

THE GOLDEN CROSS

The Golden Cross Enrollment is the point of contact between the healing ministry in Southern Methodism and the work of the local Church. Again and again at needy places this movement has proved that it is a highly efficient method of enabling the Church in general to serve the sick in particular. This is the point where the individual Church member may federate himself with other Good Samaritans of the twentieth century in the Christlike ministry of healing.

BOARD AFFAIRS

We are pleased to report that the General Hospital Board has been able to prosecute the ministry of healing with its limited resources and at the same time keep out of debt. Our auditors' report, under date of January 31, 1930, shows that our net surplus is $13,682.27. The office is kept busy with its limited force and has established an increasing correspondence in the Church with an ever-enlarged Golden Cross personnel. Last year we reported that we had secured the names of 5,000 Golden Cross Charge Directors. We are now able to report that for the Enrollment period of 1930 we secured the names of at least 7,500 Golden Cross Charge Directors. The Texas Conference leads the connection in Golden Cross returns, having raised $9,910. The North Georgia Conference is next with $8,600. This is a good record for 1930, being only about three or four per cent below the record of 1929.

NEW ENTERPRISES

The General Conference has already charged the General Hospital Board that a Methodist hospital is needed in the city of New Orleans and in the city of Hot Springs, Ark., but no provision has been made as yet for these enterprises. Several cities are now earnestly considering the establishment of Methodist hospitals, and other Conferences and cities should be considering the same thing.

The blessing of God has been upon the work, and we are confident we shall go forward under the leadership of the Great Head of the Church who went about doing good and healing all manner of sickness and diseases among the people.

ANNUAL STATEMENT OF OUR PUBLISHING AGENTS

As required by the Discipline of the Church, we submit for your consideration our annual statement for the fiscal year ending February 28, 1930.

We have made still further improvements in our Sunday school literature without any increase in price.

The Christian Advocate and the Methodist Quarterly Review continue to show a considerable loss to the House. The only remedy for this is in securing a larger increase in the number of subscribers to both. We have earnestly, and in many ways, tried to do this, but hitherto have not succeeded.

The Cokesbury Press has issued many valuable books during the year by authors of national and international reputation, which have met with a gratifying reception from the reading public. Your Publishing House now ranks among the leading publishers of religious and devotional books not only in our own country but in the world.

We have compared the prices at which books and Sunday school literature are sold by us with those charged by other houses, and we find that our prices are appreciably lower on almost every item. We invite your own investigation of the truth of this statement, which can be easily made by simply taking any book published by another house and comparing it and its price with a similar book published by us.

The total sales for the past year were $1,931,298.05, and the net profit on sales amounted to $150,361.53.

We express to our preachers and people our deep and sincere appreciation of their continued loyal support which has made possible the prosperity of the House and its present fine standing in the financial world.

Reviewing the year's work, the Book Committee has found itself justified in appropriating the sum of $100,000 for the benefit of claimants on the Conference funds. This is $40,000 increase over the appropriation for the first year of the last quadrennium.

Respectfully submitted.

LAMAR & WHITMORE, Agents.

Approved by the Book Committee at its annual meeting held at Nashville, Tenn., April 15, 1930.

C. A. CRAIG, Chairman;
W. LOUIS DAVIS, Secretary.

OUR ASSEMBLIES

Lake Junaluska Methodist Assembly

THE Lake Junaluska Methodist Assembly is in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Western North Carolina, twenty-eight miles from Asheville and three miles from Waynesville. The altitude of the Assembly Grounds is 2,650 feet above sea level. Within a radius of fifty miles there are more than fifty peaks of five thousand or more feet above sea level. The Great Smoky Mountain National Park is not far from Lake Junaluska and a road leading into the western entrance passes near the Assembly Grounds.

The summer climate of Western North Carolina is one of its greatest attractions. The days are warm and pleasant, but there is rarely a night during the summer when it is not necessary to sleep under heavy blankets. The average temperature for July is 70 and for August 69.

The Assembly is owned and managed by thirty-four trustees chosen from Annual Conferences that are east of the Mississippi River. The officers are: E. A. Cole, President; E. P. Anderson, First Vice President; John T. Fisher, Second Vice President; E. L. Woolf, Third Vice President; Ralph E. Nollner, Secretary, Treasurer, and General Superintendent.

The official season at Junaluska is from June 1 to September 15. The Assembly coöperates with Duke University, and the General Boards and Commissions of the Church, in holding summer schools, conferences, institutes, camps for boys and girls, and general meetings. Among the recreational advantages are golf, boating, fishing, horseback riding, mountain hiking, tennis, etc. The lake covers two hundred and fifty acres of land and is stocked with bass, bream, and trout. Thirteen hotels and boarding houses provide entertainment at reasonable rates.

For any information regarding Lake Junaluska, write Ralph E. Nollner, Lake Junaluska, N. C.

Western Methodist Assembly

MOUNT SEQUOYAH is nestled in the heart of the Ozarks, and overlooks the city of Fayetteville, Ark., where the State University is located. With an elevation of 1,722 feet, health, scenic, recreational, educational, and worship advantages are featured during the summer season. These advantages are carried on by the Assembly over a property tract of 440 acres, with hilltops, beautiful springs, mineral water well, tourist camp, cottages, library, cafeteria, drug store, bookstore, dormitories, chapel, Epworth League building, woman's building, athletic field, and children's playground. All guests have access at reduced prices to our city's new golf course and swimming pool.

The Assembly is owned and controlled by thirty-three trustees chosen from thirteen coöperating Annual Conferences—all the Conferences in Arkansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas, Louisiana, and New Mexico. The immediate management is in charge of a superintendent, who is elected annually. The officers are: A. C. Millar, President; W. L. Scarborough, Secretary; T. L. Hart, Treasurer; and S. M. Yancey, Superintendent.

Mount Sequoyah is an ideal location for Chautauqua, musical, educational, recreational, and worship programs presented by the Assembly in coöperation with the General Boards and Commissions and Conference Boards of the Church. The program will open there the last of June and continue into September.

For any information regarding Mount Sequoyah, write S. M. Yancey, Fayetteville, Ark.

*With reference to the Lake Junaluska and Western Methodist Assemblies the General Conference on Thursday, May 22, 1930, adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, recognizes the splendid spiritual and educational work that is being done at Lake Junaluska and the Western Methodist Assembly, and we commend them and their work to the patronage of our people; and in furtherance of these assemblies and their meritorious activities, the Committee on Budget is directed to provide a reasonably adequate amount in the general budget to take care of this pressing need; provided, however, that any Annual Conference shall have the right to decline to accept its pro rata of such asking or assessment or any part thereof; provided, further, that all contributions and responses to this cause from Conferences east of the Mississippi River shall be for the Lake Junaluska Assembly and remitted accordingly; and all such contributions and responses from Conferences west of the Mississippi River shall be for the Western Methodist Assembly and accordingly remitted."

†Explanatory Note for Conference Treasurers: If your Conference accepts the apportionment for Assemblies, make your distribution according to the percentages given in the first column of figures; otherwise, use the second column.

CHARTER OF THE PUBLISHING HOUSE

ACTS 1855–6

CHAPTER 136

AN ACT to incorporate the Agents of the Publishing House of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in the City of Nashville.

SECTION 1. Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee, That Edward Stephenson and Francis A. Owen, and their successors in office, be, and they are hereby, made a body corporate and politic, under the name and style of the

and by that name and style to have perpetual succession, for the manufacture and distribution of books, tracts, periodicals, &c., &c.; to make and use a common seal, and the same to alter at pleasure; in this name to sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with, hold personal and real estate, by purchase, deed, grant, gift, devise, or bequest, and the same to sell or dispose of, as they may deem best for the interests involved.

SECTION 2. Be It Enacted, That the corporation hereby created shall now, and at all times hereafter, be under the control of the said Methodist Episcopal Church, South, according to the laws and usages of the same as contained in their present, or any future edition of their Discipline.

NEIL S. BROWN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives;
EDWARD S. CHEATHAM,
Speaker of the Senate.

Passed February 26, 1856.

USE THE BOOK YOU PREFER

The New Cokesbury Hymnal

An all-purpose Songbook that is gaining in popularity daily, nearly 400,000 copies having been sold since publication in 1926. This book is the result of repeated requests for a new Songbook by Southern Methodist leaders.

In it are 291 songs selected by preachers and laymen throughout the Church—songs we all love to sing. There are a number of new songs for children.

And in addition the Order of Worship, a large number of Responsive Readings and Programs for Public Worship are featured.

The slight increase in price of The New Cokesbury Hymnal is due to the many added features that go to make it such a worth-while Songbook for every purpose.

» Prices «

Cloth, $45.00 per hundred; paper, $30.00 per hundred. Single copies: Cloth, 50 cents; paper, 35 cents. Transportation extra. Send for returnable sample copy.

The Cokesbury Hymnal

This Songbook was originally published in an attempt to bring back the songs that people love to sing. Suggestions were received from preachers, song leaders, and Christian workers, and 289 of the songs submitted were accepted.

As a result this book contains a popular selection covering every subject of divine worship and comprising both hymns and revival songs.

A group of responsive readings are included, many being chosen for use on special occasions, while all are appropriate for weekly Church service.

The Cokesbury Hymnal has met with praise everywhere—nearly two million copies having been sold since publication. It may be conveniently used for Church services, Sunday school, or revival meetings.

» Prices «

Cloth binding, $40.00 a hundred; Manila binding, $25.00 a hundred. Transportation extra. Send for returnable sample copy.

Important

Be sure to state whether New Cokesbury or Cokesbury Hymnal is wanted, also state whether round or shaped notes are desired.

A New Revival Songbook!

SPIRITUAL LIFE SONGS

This book has the approval of the General Conference Commission on Spiritual Life

The Revival Songbook The Church Has Been Awaiting

❡ A real need has been met in the publication of this NEW book of Spiritual Life Songs. It contains 142 songs, all of which were selected under the direction of Mr. H. P. Armstrong, Director of Music, First Methodist Church, South, Birmingham, Ala. Each song was selected because of its appropriateness for revival purposes.

We suggest that you order a sufficient quantity for your Revival season Now. The price is very reasonable and in reach of all Churches.

COMFORT FOR THOSE WHO MOURN

Compiled by Rev. O. V. Armstrong

Bible Poetry Prose

Ninety-six pages of Prose, Poetry, and Scripture Verse. Beautifully printed and bound. An excellent gift for families and friends who have lost loved ones.

"A gift of wide service to those whose eyes are dim with tears or who wish to express their sympathy for saddened and burdened souls."—Dr. Charles R. Erdman.

"The perusal of the little book 'Comfort for Those Who Mourn' has afforded me much pleasure and has also convinced me of the comfort which it will be to many people. I have ordered a number of them to use in cases of sorrow."—John Timothy Stone.
